READY... SET... GO ON VACATION

What exhilarating summer activity did the 18th century English enjoy on the ice?
Some called it one of the most refreshing ideas the English have ever had. Mr. Gordon just called it his gin. Glorious, gleaming Gordon's. Smooth as ice. Dryasmow. Such an exhilarating pastime. The English have been devoted to it for 196 years. It's still best-seller there. And here. In fact, throughout the thirsty world. Let Gordon's exhilarate you during summer's dog days. See for yourself why the English can brave the noonday sun.

Sugar Ray to fight unknown

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI — Fabled but faltering Sugar Ray Robinson, five time middleweight champion, will fight little - known Billy Crowder of Petersburg, here July 27.

Robinson, 45, has lost three of five earlier battles this year in his campaign for another title shot.

Promoter J. Edward (Ed) Weaver said Robinson would meet 26 - year - old Crowder, unbeaten as an amateur and 7 - 1 - 1 since turning professional in April, 1963, in a 10 - round feature at the Sports Arena.

The former champion was recently asked by the World Boxing Association to retire after a 25 - year professional fight career.

Light House keeping

By LULA JONES GARRETT

Aren't teen-agers the most? Now her's area. These fellows are buying tailor make it into slacks. (Bleeding for years.)

This phenomenon is reported by the Sportswear Buyers which keeps buyers ed in what the public wants. It told the buyers six months ago the teenagers wanted Madras, but apparently the buy ers didn't buy enough.

Anyway it takes about three yards of fabric and two and a half yards of lining, and costs about $15 to make. The colors must be bright, the plaids must be big, and says Walter Logan, writing on the subject, the fabric must bleed. (This means the colors "run" when washed.) The pants have on-seam pockets, belt loops and no cuffs.

And the girls? Well they are buying shave lotion, after shave lotion, cologne, or whatever the men uses. They want to use the same scent as their boy friends.

• • •

COOKING CAPER: It costs no more to buy breads, flours, cereals, etc. made from enriched, restored or whole grain. This is an inexpensive source of supply of the B-vitamins thiamine, niacin, riboflavin and mineral iron for the family.

Incidentally, to keep breakfast pancakes warm until serving time, layer them between sheets of paper toweling on a baking sheet. Place in a warm oven. The pancakes will stay baked moist but will not become soggy.

Recipe for this week is a different kind of "hamburger" for your cookouts. The recipe comes from the Cereal Institute, and is called Corn Flake Pancake Burgers. Testing is believing, for proof of their remarkably good flavor lies strictly in the eating.

The burgers are made with a pound of ground beef a half cup rolled oats, quick or regular, uncooked; a fourth cup of finely chopped onion, one egg, one and a half teaspoons salt, a dash of pepper and a third cup milk.

For the pancakes use one and a half cups prepared pancake mix, one and a half cups milk, two eggs, a third cup melted shortening and one and a half cups corn flakes.

Combine burger ingredients. Mix well. Shape into eight thin four-inch patties. Store in refrigerator.

Combine pancake mix, milk eggs, and shortening. Mix well. Stir in corn flakes. Grill or broil burgers until done.

Pour about three tablespoons batter onto hot griddle for each pancake. Bake until top of cakes are full of bubbles and edges are dry. Turn and cook second side.

To serve, place a burger between two warm pancakes. Serve with catsup, mustard and pickle relish or your own favorite topping. Yeild: eight servings.

• • •

BEAUTY BIT: This is about skin care. As you know marble smooth legs and under arms are a must for daintiness and glamour during the warm weather months. Grooming, not cover - up cosmetics, counts say the beauty experts.

All of this to say that the authorities say that shaving does not make hair grow faster. Hair, they say, grows quickly to a certain length and then the growth is barely perceptible.

It also gives me a chance to tell you about our new find for the week . . . a tote bag filled with shaving gear for women.

The kit provides a pre-shaving conditioner formulated especially for the ladies, a razor, a dispenser of steel blades and an after-shave moisturized All are packed in a plastic carry-all bag that's handy for travel and neat around the house.

MRS. ARTHUR BRISCOE WATERS, JR.

Waters-Bean ritual in Bethel Church

The marriage of Miss Francina Nina Bean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy M. Bean, to Arthur Briscoe Waters Jr. took place at Bethel AME Church, Saturday.

The Rev. Frank Madison Reid Jr., officiated at the double - ring ceremony. James M. Mitchell was organist and Miss Hazel J. Bryant was soloist.

• • •

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a two - part gown. The crystalline over gown with long sleeves cuffed in a V at the wrist and a cathedral train featured the under gown of French lace which had a top re-embroidered with seed pearls.

Her floor - length illusion veil fell from a lace crown. She carried a bouquet of gladiolo and lilies.

• • •

MRS. LORETTA Byers, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a green gown of silk trimmed with gold metallic and green silk fringe on the jacket sleeves and bottom.

The bridesmaids, who wore similar gowns in gold, were Miss Peggy Waters, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Arlene Holoey, cousin of the bride. Junior bridesmaids were Misses Josephine Williams, Anne Hecther and Juanita Covington.

Each attendant carried a basket of yellow gladiolas and lilies and wore matching headpieces of flowers and veiling.

• • •

LISA KENE BEAN, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her floor - length gown was in yellow silk organza. She had a matching headpiece and carried a basket of varicolored flowers. Her brother Franklin Dean Jr., was ring bearer.

The bride, who received the BFA degree in fashion design from the Maryland Institute College of Art, and teaches dressmaking at the Hanne Addams General Vocational High School, designed the wedding ensembles.

• • •

LEROY HAWTHORNE was best man. Ushers were McNair Taylor, Dorsey Skinner, Ronald Jeter, Arthur Boseman, Hilbert Byers and Roland Douglass.

For the wedding, Mrs. Bean wore a blue silk three-piece floor - length suit with a lace over blouse and matching accessories. Mrs. Waters chose a gown of pale blue lace and silk organza with matching accessories. Both parents wore white orchids.

• • •

A RECEPTION for 500 guests followed the wedding and was held in Coker Hall of the church. Assisting hostess was Mrs. Carolyn Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Holsey, cousins of the bride, entertained the wedding party at a champagne party in the home of the bride's parents are the couple left for New York City.

Out - of - town guests included:

COMING THIS WEEK

JULY 18

The Rev. Wilfred W. Ward, assistant minister at the First Unitarian Church, Charles and Franklin Sts., will deliver the sermon at the 10 a.m. service Sunday in the parish hall of the church.

JULY 21

The children's films, "Puss in Boots," "Horse Farm" and "Home-Made Car," will be shown at the Pratt Library Northwood Branch at 2 p.m.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
SUMMER FRUIT NOG
1 egg white
1½ tablespoons honey
1 cup water
1½ cups orange juice
½ cup REALEMON
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
In a bowl, beat egg white, honey and salt until stiff, turn into 1 or 2 quart jar. Add remaining ingredients and shake vigorously. Pour over ice cubes or cracked ice and serve.
ALSO USE REALEMON ON SLICED FRESH FRUIT TO PREVENT IT FROM TURNING BROWN.

Oh, there's a million uses for ReaLemon lemon juices!
