Graham-Warrington ritual in St. Pius

Miss Helen Elizabeth Warrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Warrington of Berwyn Ave., and Ned Leonard Graham Jr. were married, here, Saturday.

The ceremony, which took place in Saint Pius Roman Catholic Church, was performed by the Rev. Francis A. Dynan, who was assisted by the Rev. David I. Dorsch.

• • •

MISS WARRINGTON given in marriage by her father, was attended by Mrs. Yvonne Wilder. The bride wore a suit of ivory silk peau de soie with a lace blouse which was re - embroidered in seed pearls. The jacket edges, as well as the edge of the skirt, was scalloped.

Her bubble hat of the same material, was covered with a flouffant arrangement of tulle underpinned with tiny white flowers, and she carried a bouquet of carnations centered with an orchid.

• • •

THE MATRON OF HONOR was gowned in pink. Her ensemble was a jacket dress, with which she wore a pink headpiece of braded straw which featured a streamer of pink flowers.

MR. and MRS. NED LEONARD GRAHAM, JR.

Albert P. Ford was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception for 50 guests was held in the home of the bride, on Berwyn Avenue.

GARNER HERAS, NOTED VOCALIST, RECORDED THE SMIRNOFF MULE.

NEW DRINK...SMIRNOFF® MULE

It swings!

Here's the swingingest drink since Smirnoff invented vodka—the Smirnoff Mule. It's Smirnoff and 7-Up®. Jigger of Smirnoff over ice. Add the juice of ¼ lime. Fill Mule mug or glass with 7-Up to your taste. Delicious! And it leaves you breathless.®

School No. 146 pupils hear of news career

Youngsters enrolled in eighth grade social class at Preston Elementary School No. 146 received tips on newspaper work as a career on Wednesday morning.

Speaker was Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy Moss, vice president-treasurer of the AFRO-AMERICAN, and editor of the column, 'If You Ask Me.'

Mrs. Moss explained the preparation necessary for a newspaper career.

• • •

DURING THE question and answer period, the speaker urged pupils to begin planning now for their life's work. She emphasized the need for excellence because "unlimited opportunities will exist for you provided you are qualified.

"No longer," she said, "will you be able to complain you were passed over because you are colored. Ability and performance will be the determining factors."

Mrs. Gertrude Sherman is principal of the summer school Charles Pitts is the regular session principal and coordinator.

• • •

THE PROGRAM was arranged by Mrs. Mary E. Robinson, fifth grade teacher. Guest of the class were fourth, fifth and sixth graders whose teachers are A. L. Sutton and Mrs. Aurora B. Chambers.

During the program children exhibited arts they obtained during field trips and as a result of their activities.

Children in the classes are: Harrietta Key, Benjamin Mattis, Denise Kirkland, Daniel Wilkerson, Dorothy Suiside, Robert Adams, Larry Meeks, Leonard Vaughn, Darry Vaughn, Lamont Phillips.

Stephanie Anderson, Leon Wheeler, Valerie Agurs, Wardell Lester, Larry Johnson, Willie Anderson, George Betts, Michael Jones, Columbus Winfield.

Miss Truitt at Scout Roundup

Miss Roberta Marcella Truitt was one of the 90 Girl Scouts representing the State of Maryland who left, Sunday, for the Girl Scout Roundup, being held in Farragut, Idaho.

The Maryland group will be among the 10,000 girls from the United States and foreign countries who will spend two weeks camping at the site, which is 50 miles northeast of Spokane, Wash.

• • •

THE ROUNDUP is designed to strengthen the World - wide link of Girl Scouting. The program includes hikes, demonstrations, forums, tours and special activities.

The Patrol of which Miss Truitt is a member made a replica of the first flag flown over Port McHenry, which they will exhibit. To carry out the motif they will wear costumes of that era.

• • •

MISS TRUITT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Truitt of Bentalou St., was a June graduate of Forest Park High School. Named to this school's Hall of Fame, she was recipient of an award, received a shield, city pin and a trophy for outstanding performance in swimming and archery. She was also lay - out editor for the year book.

She scouted under leadership of Mrs. Floretta Jones, is a music student of Mrs. Charlotte Swan, a member of Ames Methodist Church and will enter Morgan State College in the fall.
