Ask to house 4 families at 2709 Garrison

An appeal asking the housing of four families at 2709 Garrison Blvd. faces the board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals for decision Tuesday.

Also scheduled, among the cases to be heard beginning at 1 p.m. in Room 231, City Hall, is another seeking the operation of a dry cleaning plant at 2000 E. Lafayette Ave.

In still another case, the board will be asked to prohibit the use of 3406 Bateman Ave. for three tenants in addition to housing one family.

The board the past Tuesday approved appeals asking the continued housing of two families at 765 Granby St., and the erection of a school at 2528 E. Federal St. with a reduced front yard and a fence.

Withdrawn was another asking the use of the basement a 3400 Reisterstown Rd. for a beauty parlor.

Postponed until Aug. 3 was a hearing on the appeal to erect a three-story building, including two non-residential "direct" offices at 2520 Liberty Heights Ave., near the site of the new Provident Hospital.

ON CIVIL RIGHTS: Freedom is not a treasure to be hoarded; it is a faculty to be used and to be constantly renewed through use. This is as true of our civil liberties as it is of our civil rights.

NEWEST MEMBERS of the Girls Jobs Corps from Baltimore were sworn in Wednesday by Judge Robert Hammerman during festive ceremonies at the Meadowmia Shopping Center. The next morning four of the young ladies were flying toward the Cleveland, Ohio training center, and four were headed to the newly-opened center in Omaha, Neb. Judge Hammerman cited the eight new members as "pioneers" and said that the government's confidence in them is illustrated by the $5,000 it is willing to spend to train each of them. From left are: Misses Patsy Mason, 18; Bertha Feaig, 18; Grace Gold, 17; Darlene Daniels, 19; Elizabeth Thomas, 18; Hilda Roberts, 21; Eva Epps, 17, and Evelyn Joseph, 20.
