Civic Club pays tribute to Mrs. Carter

Mrs. Dora Carter, who conceived the idea of the Civic League Club of Guilford, was honored by the club on Sunday evening, in the dining room of the McClain Motel in Waterloo.

Dinner was followed by a number of short speeches from members of the club, and guests, who paid tribute and gave recognition to Mrs. Carter for the dynamic leadership she has rendered to the community down through the years. The honoree responded in her usual style of grace and humility.

THE ORGANIZATION is comparatively young, having been organized for approximately more than a year. The officers in attendance at the dinner were Robert Coleman Sr., president; Mrs. Helen Gross, financial secretary; Mrs. Dora Carter, the honoree, chaplain; Edward Holland, treasurer; and Luther McClain, co-founder of the club.

Other members of the club present were Mrs. James Abrams, Mrs. Edward Holland, James Gross, Edward Beck, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Rosalie Anderson, and Mrs. Catherine Bailey.
