Miss Diane Parham, Marvin Scott wed

Faith Baptist Church, in a decor of palms and yellow and white gladioli, was the setting, recently, for the wedding of Miss Diane Marie Parham and Marvin Adam Scott.

The Rev. Walter E. Paige officiated at the double-ring ceremony, and a program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Charles McLeod, organist; and Mrs. Dorothy Maclain and Miss Sybil Cooke, soloist.

• • •

MISS PARHAM, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Parham, was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a gown of white peau de soie and Chantilly lace, made with long sleeves that ended in points at the wrist. The front panel of the floor-length gown was of lace, as was the detachable train which was appliqued with lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls.

Her headdress was a pillbox of the lace underpinned with the peau de soie, and held her four-tiered veil. She carried orchids, lilies of the valley and bridal roses designed in a wedding ring motif.

• • •

Miss Jean Whelche, maid of honor, wore a gown of yellow silk organza, designed with a lace bodice and bell-shaped skirt. Her accessories were in yellow and she carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and sweet peas.

The bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Ann Stokes, Jean Smith and Delores Wrice.

Their gowns, too, were of yellow silk organza, with which they wore matching accessories. They carried yellow carnations and snapdragons.

• • •

SHERYL BOSTIC, flower girl, wore white lace and organza and carried white and yellow roses. Darrell Fields, ring bearer, carried the rings on a heart-shaped white satin pillow, which was showered with ribbons and forget-me-nots.

Ushers were Sherman Scott, Barry Parham, Stanley Holmes, Elmore Davis, Jr. and William Seaton.

• • •

A RECEPTION for 500 guests was held in the Prince Hall Masonic Temple following the ceremony.

Here, gifts were displayed as well as at the home, including a congratulatory message from President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson. Assisting as hostesses were Mrs. William Bostic and Mrs. Geneva Smith, aunts of the bride.

• • •

FOR HER daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Parham wore a two-piece creation of Nile imported silk brocade. Her hat was of the same material, and she chose matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The mother of the bridegroom was in an ensemble that included pink brocade dress, matching hat and shoes, and a corsage of pink roses.

What ever became of the gin that was the talk of London in 1769?

It became the toast of the world. England. America. The world! The name is Gordon's. Alexander Gordon's brilliant brainchild. Silky-smooth, icy-dry. Unrivaled in 18th century England. Unmatched after 196 years. Because its cherished formula is still Gordon's alone. Directly descended from the celebrated original that set London buzzing in 1769. And still does.
