How much electricity is in there, Mom?

The answer's easy.

There's plenty! More than enough for all Mom's appliances and for Daddy's workshop tools. And for fun things, too—like the TV and the radio, the barbecue and corn-popper and a whole lot more.

There'll always be plenty too—for you and for Americans everywhere. We, and more than 300 other investor-owned electric companies across the land, are planning and building to keep the supply ever abundant and low in cost.

You've got good things going for you with service from investor-owned electric companies!

Bolton Hill to get 35 new town houses

Groundbreaking ceremonies for a group of town houses in the Bolton Hill sector were held this morning, (Friday), with Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin and officials of the Baltimore Urban Renewal and Housing Agency participating.

The development, to be known as Bolton Square, is to be located on a 2.6 acre site extending along both sides of the new closed Linden Ave. between Mosher St. on the north and Lafayette Ave. on the south.

There will be 35 town houses constructed, ranging in price from $22,000 to $38,000.

BURHA officials see this as one of the boldest moves to date by housing developers to attract higher income families back to the city.

The town houses will be oriented to a private, inner park, including a landscaped commons and shallow reflecting pools.

Each of the homes will have a walled, private garden bordering on the commons will access to the inner park.

Design will be centered around four basic models, with from two to four bedrooms. Construction is scheduled to be complete by early December.

Birthday Tributes

McCULLOH. — A birthday tribute in memory of my husband, JOHN, our father, R. LENTON, on his birthday, (August 31), who departed December 31, 1964.
When you can be at peace, God will set alone and broken hearted.
Cherry something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind.
So true companionship, I know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory pictures everything
The grave is victory — death is sting.
To those loved your dear mine you; who held you very dear, and in loving days gone by, those Often feel your presence near. Though God has taken you away You are with us every day.
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.

Then I did on the day of your going.
For absence can never close the door of my heart
And lamp of my love is still glowing.
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world,
Your love the best to recall
For no one on earth can take your place,
You are still the dearest of all.
