California Jambalaya that will add spice to New Year buffet

The compatible flavors in this casserole mixture are blended and mellowed just as they should be, but all the cooking is done on the top of the stove —no baking. It's sized to serve that New Year crowd.

When you serve this Jambalaya, complete this delicacy with glasses of the same wine as a mealtime beverage. A dry white wine, such as a California Sauterne, (sotarin) or one of the Rhine (rine) wine types, such as a Riesling (reezling) is an excellent choice.

* * *

CALIFORNIA JAMBALAYA is made with 1½ cups chopped onion (2 medium onions) ¾ cup chopped green pepper (1 medium pepper), 1 clove garlic, minced or crushed, 1 bay leaf, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons cooking oil, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1½ cups raw regular brown rice;

Also, 1 (1-lb.) can stewed tomatoes (2 cups), 2 (14-oz.) cans chicken broth, ¾ cup California Rhine Wine, Sauterne, or other white dinner wine, 1 to 2 cups diced cooked ham, and 1 to 2 cups diced cooked turkey or chicken.

* * *

COMBINE all ingredients except ½ cup of the Rhine Wine, ham and turkey in a large pan or skillet. Bring to a boil, stirring; lower heat, cover and simmer about 45 minutes stirring occasionally.

Remove cover, stir in ham and turkey; cook uncovered about 10 to 15 minutes longer or until rice is tender. Remove from heat and stir in remaining Rhine Wine. Garnish with chopped parsley or shredded Parmesan cheese, if desired.

Miss Wilson to wed Mr. Araya of Africa

With Lula Jones Garrett

MISS PEGGY ANN MCMECHEN WILSON of Baltimore and Yeshitila Araya of Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, Africa, exchanged marriage vows in St. Andrew's Chapel of Saint James Episcopal Church, Baltimore, Sunday afternoon.

Lovely is the word for the ceremony in St. Andrews Chapel of St. James Episcopal Church that united Peggy Ann McMechen Wilson of this city and Yeshitila Araya of Ethiopia, Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Fr. Cecil Marshall officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, Herbert Wilson, the bride wore a champagne suit-dress of imported brocade. Her pill box hat was encrusted with pearls and crystals and worn with a fingertip veil of illusion. She completed the ensemble with matching shoes, and carried a prayer book topped with orchids tinted to match the dress.

The bridegroom, who wore a dark gray suit, had as best man, Paul Chester. Paula Chester, cousin of the bride, maid of honor, wore a pink maid of honor, wore a pink and white brocade suit, with matching shoes and hat, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Wilson, mother of the bride, chose a pale blue suit of silk matelasse, matching pill box hat and shoes and a corsage of white fringed carnations.

The new Mrs. Araya, granddaughter of the late George W. F. McMechen, attorney, and Mrs. McMechen, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Wilson, Sr. of Washington. A graduate of Morgan State College, she is a social worker in Detroit.

Mr. Araya, son of Mr. and Mrs. Araya W. Gabor of Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, is a graduate student in the School of Social Work at Michigan State University. He completed his undergraduate studies at the School of Sodial Work of the University of Addis Ababa.

Leaving this city for Washington, the bride wore a pale blue wool suit with blue and green turban and black accessories. The couple will be at home in Detroit.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. Roberta West of Jamaica, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Otto Williams of Freeport, L. I., N. Y. Mrs. Argenia Turner and Mrs. Madeline Burton of Wilmington, Del.

THE MOST composed person throughout the triple-affairs that saw the christening of Jan Allyson Bailey on Sunday was the young lady herself.

The four-month-old daughter of Bob and Florence Bailey coed right through the services performed by the Rev. Reginald Daniels in the Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church. Was an angel throughout the following reception hour, had her nap after reaching home, and at the close of the dinner hour was jabbering away at whoever made a sound in her direction . . . all of which goes to say that she's a carbon copy of her Dad (he's a Government attorney) as far as looks is concerned, but she is, as far as personality goes, her mother's (city school official) own daughter.

The baby's name is a counterpart of that of her paternal grandfather, the late John Alexander Bailey. Her exquisite christening ensemble was the gift of Mrs. John A. Bailey. Paul Beckham and William Pinderhughes were godfathers and Mrs. Mary Sprow and Miss Gloria Forte were godmothers.

Mrs. Bailey wore a suit dress in silver and gray-blue brocade, with a corsage of baby chrysanthemums, whether by design or not, all of the other ladies of the christening party were in red, including the pretty Mussenden twins, Christine and Carol, who received at the door, and Mrs. Paul Beckham and Mrs. Alan Forte, hostesses.

Guests at the dinner party were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Bernard Rusk, David Sloan, Alonzo Hairston, Reuben Jones, Walter Gray, Charles Harper;

Messrs. and Mesdames Edward Van De Castle, Cliff Mackay, Wilton Webb, Howard Collins, Wesley Stubbs, William Pinderhughes, Roland Williams, Marshall Bright;

Messrs. and Mesdames David Wright, Paul Beckham Samuel Sharrow, Douglas Goodwin, Robert Diggs, Nathaniel Peck, James Davenport, Philip Christ;

Messrs. and Mesdames Rudolph Redd, Thomas McPherson, Ervin Lockerman; Drs. and Mesdames Tom Jones, Edward Gerzuik, A. U. Forte, Nathaniel Proctor;

Mesdames Claire Parker, Blanche McRae, Mattie Connor, Blanche Lindsay, Llewellyn Walker, Betty Marine, Florence Bennett, Pearl Brackett, Lydia Mussenden;

Misses Lynn Diggs, who shares the same birthday as Jan; Emily Peck, Daryl Jones, Almira Miller, who provided the beautiful organ music background; and Orris Walker, Jr., and Chico Allen, who assisted with the receiving.

MISS MARILYN OLIVER, daughter of the John Olivers and a junior at the University of Maryland, attended the wedding of classmate, Miss Paula Erleck and Dr. Richard Goldberg at the Broadmore Hotel in Washington, on Sunday. She was also one of the 50 guests at the dinner dance and festivities following.

On Dec. 29, Marilyn held forth at a luncheon at her home, for Miss Dee Dee Buyl of Belgium. The attractive guest of honor is the sister of Maryland schoolmate, Rosemay Buyle.

Guests were Connie Doswell, Renee Keyser, Jackie Bass, Adrienne Watson, Deborah Hunter, Mary Buyl, Janet Edwards, Jule Augustine, Carletta Booth, Edith Dennis, Joan Veal, Darnell Thigpen, Diedra Johnson, Connie Carroll, Patricia Scott and Paula Chester.

Wednesday night, Marilyn and her brother, John Jacob Jr., showed Dee Dee, the town and attended the reception for Me De So debutante Carolyn Costa.

IN THE BEAUTIFUL Hilton Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland (Anethia) Williams Christmas Day, that couple gathered family and intimate friends for dinner and entertainment.

From the moment of arrival, when champagne cocktails were served, to the last sip of demitasse following the luscious dinner, Mrs. Williams filled the hours with music, carol singing and games to keep her party at high pitch.

A special feature of the music was the singing by A. Sinclair Swann to the accompaniment of William Parrott, composer of a Christmas Anthem. (The words, incidentally are by Dr. Carl Murphy) plus the playing of a medley of tunes for dancing by Mr. Parrott.

At the party were:

Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. William Watts, Mrs. J. Logan Jenkins, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Parrott, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Welcome, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Mackey, Ronnie Williams, Miss Paula Jones, Miss Mary Sue Welcome and Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Barksdale.

PRETTY AND unique was Josephine Brown's club meeting for the We Wives last Thursday at her husband's "Uptown Club."

Special long tables decorated in Christmas motif, were set up for club members and guests who brought gifts to place under the tree and exchange. Brownie brought in a combo to dance and entertain.

Guests were Florine Thomas, Audrey Hall, Margaret Driver, Gladys Brockington, Bernice Monroe, Olice Froe, Doris Wheeler, Theodosia Stokes.

Members about were Gwen Tarter, Verniece Reynolds, Margaret Armstrong, Mae Dyson, Adelle Foreman, Ivy Grinage, Margaret Hythe, Roberta Keets, Priscilla Lansey, Iris Mapp, Bettye Moss, Margery Prout, Ida Smith, Ruby Reid, Agnes Reaves, Ada Weaver and Lillian Ross.

South Baltimore Notes

By WALTER W. E. HILL Sr.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas upon their 54th Wedding Anniversary. Mr. Thomas is among our sick and shut-ins.

Mr. Raymond Washington, WWOB was honored with the visitation of his mother from New York City. Mr. Washington is the noted engineer and Ham operator of this city and has done much to inspire the older as well as the newcomers.

The Rev. W. H. Anderson and Mrs. Elizabeth Turman were among the holiday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. E. Hill. Others were Mrs. Henrietta Brown of Washington, D.C. and Eugene Pratt (brother) of Sandy Spring, Md.

The Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group went about the neighborhood on December 23 singing Christmas Carols and presenting donations to the aged and shut-ins.

Inspiring Caroling also came from Girl Scout Troop No. 693 on Christmas Eve. Along with their many songs, was the presentation of their membership booklet plus a gift of candy. Mrs. Mary Wise is leader; and Miss Lola Hall is assistant.

We pause here to wish our many readers a very happy and prosperous New Year and Ham operator of this also to thank them for their many expressions of season's greetings.

The Christmas spirit was excellently demonstrated in the much talked about Paca Street where the decorations of the four resident homes on the even number side were truly prize winners to behold. Congratulations from your Civic Interest Group.

Birthday greetings both belated and present, are sent to Mrs. Emily Adams Shorts, Mrs. Mable Patterson, Walter Alton, Mrs. Amanda Foote, William Thomas, Mrs. Beulah Carroll, Maurice Jones, Walter Hill, Jr., William Alton, Mrs. Lillian Hardy, Mrs. Alice Savage, Delmar Harris, Mary Sue Thomas, Mrs. Elizabeth Polk, Mrs. Darleene Hall, and Charles Henderson. Also greetings to Henry (Tony Eldridge.

Your cards and calls can best convey your thoughts to the sick and shut - ins. Please give and send them to: Paul Thomas, Mrs. Alice Savage, Howard Patterson, Clinton Shorts, Mrs. Gertrude Tyler, Mrs. Fosset, Mrs. Mary Wise, Mrs. Monroe, Emma White, Mrs. Lillian Emma White, Ms. Lillian Johnson, Mrs. Estelle Marshall, William Thomas, Saul Kellum, Mrs. Lena Graham, Mrs. Pack, and Victor Wilkens.

CORE worker spends Yule in Louisiana

John Gee, a 20 - year - old, second year student at Coppin State College, is spending his vacation working in voter registration in the KKK stronghold of Louisiana.

Mr. Gee has participated in a number of celebrated demonstrations in this area.

* * *

A NUMBER of Coppin students and friends collected enough funds to get him to Tallulah, where he joined several veteran CORE field workers, in the field. Since leaving by bus on Dec. 17, he has called for additional funds from his family, and expects to start back to Baltimor this weekend so he can resume his studies at Coppin Jan. 3. Other local CORE members who have spent some of their precious days in the Deep South during 1965 are Hal Squith, Isaac Kershner, Arnold Landon and Mrs. Janice Grant, who has divided her time between the NAACP and CORE in several essential projects.

The last word (before press time) coming from Mr. Gee was a phone call to the local CORE office that he and a dozen other students, under the leadership of Ike Reynalds, CORE field secretary, were preparing for a sit in in a segregated theater in a town called Ferriday. (Area Code-318 757-4469.
