when they turned their time and thoughts to the aid of a needy family. The recipients of their good will was a mother, her six children (all under the age of nine) and father, confined to a hospital.

They provided four boxes of clothes, food to last for weeks, toys and the beautiful garments they had knitted through the year for the family.

They had all the fun affordable just getting the gifts ready, and being entertained by member, Geraldine Young.

In this group are Mrs. Young, Anne Johnson, LaVerne Turner, Gwendolyn Seaborne, Mary Walker, Essie Banks, Ida Thomas, Hellena Edmonds and Madelyn Pyles.

THE CARL MURPHY family celebrated Christmas with the usual round robin of parties. The family started family visiting right after midnight mass at St. James' Episcopal with the usual waffles AND . . .at Ida and Ed Smith's.

They were joined by the John Murphy 3rd family Sharon and Danny and Sharon's intended Hodford Brown of Islip, N.Y.; Agnes and Lenerd Underwood and Cynthia; Anethia Williams and son, Roland; Bettye and Paul Moss and children; Frankie and Clarence Henderson and Bob and Vashti Matthews.

The same group then to Paul and Bettye Moss for the annual set up the tree. . . only with the children all attending midnight mass.

Marie had teen-age friends for a party in the club room and the adults enjoyed a beautifully prepared late snack.

Christmas Day Dr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy gathered all the children and grandchildren together in the sunparlor at Morgan Park to hear Dr. Carl's annual brigINal family prayer, brunch and exchange of gifts.

Then Christmas night, the entire family sat down for formal Christmas dinner at Frankie and Clarence Hendersons on Dorchester Road. The family day ended with old - fashioned family sing of carols with Clarence at the piano. . Various grandchildren such as Bennie Phillips and Susan Wood helping out.

THE FIRESIDERS are still raving about their annual Christmas Party — this year in the form of a day at the races. . . at Charles Town, W. Va.

Each year, one half of the club entertains the other half. Guests were invited Wednesday to meet in front of the Civic Center at 10 a.m. On arrival, they were handed tickets to the grand stand at Charles Town and bus tickets.

On arrival, the group had reservations in the private dining room of the Club House with tables overlooking the finish line.

The group leisurely lunched amid the excitement of selecting winners.

After the races, . guests and members took a brief rest and then to Bea Nixon's house on Dennlyn road for cocktails, their annual exchange of gifts, cards and a beautifully prepared late snack. (Clem Nixon, . is now really an honorary member of the club and Bea is permanent chairman of the everyother - year group).

Hostesses were Essie Watkins (president. . . who was called to North Carolina suddenly on Christmas Day, due to the death of her aunt) Bea Nixon, Ada Weaver, Evelyn West, Ida Smith, and Frances Ashby.

Guests were Dot Wood, Alice Pinderhughes, Bea Wright, Mable Dennkins, and Ivy Grinage.

Club member guests were Iris Mapp, Helen Cothorn, Florence Ringgold, Irma Dancy, Lilliam Ross and Milburn Brown.

Fashions to wear to the races included Florence Ringgold's moss green knit suit with matching hat. . Lillian Ross' black wool coat with leather belt, . her pale blue velour hat had matching shades of blue in her scarf. . . or Iris Mapp's chocolate brown hat with short brim and high crown her coat . . . a black and red caraul fur or Ada Weaver's orange wool coat topped with small mink cloche . just to name a few of the outfits worn by this elegant group which turned heads as they journeyed to the various windows.

POT - POURRI: . There were so many parties on the local beath, that just listing them fills a column.

The No - Name Club held forth at a cosy get - together in the Manor, - Forest Park Ave.; the Guardsmen went to Morgan Park and the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bill Garner to greet the New Year.

Harriett and Kerfit Abel's party at their Arundel - on - the - Bay place had Dr. and Mrs. Henry Green (they are going to Europe this month), Dr. and Mrs. Jesse Keene of Wabington and Mrs. William Richardson as guests. Her party incentits, - a flock of joke gifts which would have to be seen to be fully appreciated.

Eurkie Lee Smith and brother, William Smith hollo hosted their brothers and sister - in - law, the Lorin Smiths; and brother - in-law did the Kappa Conclave in Boston and sister, the David Manns, and David, Jr. from Bainbridge, Ga. The Manns also did the Conclave in Boston.

A group from Annapolis was hosted by Capt. and Mrs. Leonard Doughty at the latters place on Winchester Road. Mrs. Doughty is the daughter of Artist Don Swann. At this affair were Lula Hardesty, Eloise Richardson, Vandola King, Thelma Sparks, Blanche McRae and Anita Thomas of nereaoouts; Betty Hyson, Joyce McManus and Joyce McManus and Alma Hilliard.

Mrs. George Rosedom, shedding a period of mourning, had guests at dinner Christmas Day. . . her first party since the death of the attorney.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Byrd hosted at dinner . in two relays, Saturday, incidentally also marked the 25th anniversary of their marriage, Sunday ago. Dr. and Mrs. Ted Phifer chalked up 30 years of marriage.

And I can think of no one with a better reason for welcoming the holidays than had Mrs. Raymond Haybert. He posed a full-length ranch mink coat under her tree for Christmas, nor Mrs. Alberta Bowie, who was able to be home for the holidays after a stay in Sinai Hospital. She's a State Beauty Board inspector.

Georgia Mae Benbow (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Frieson) and James Johnson will hereafter have a holiday date to celebrate. They are to be married in St. Francis Xavis Catholic Church, Saturday afternoon at four.

Drs. Thelma and McDonald Bando had an island holiday, getting off of the Caribbean for Christmas. Shirley Kyle went rome to Minneapolis, for the holidays, is back on the home front as of Monday.

The William (Matie) Gardners, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gill, Dr. Richard McKinney, the James Grants, the Robert Johnsons and Kenneth Ervins of this town flew to Detroit, Mich. for the Omega and Que-Ettes elegant cocktail - dinner - dance, here.

IT WAS "Shower Time" at the December meeting of the Baltimore Chapter of Sigma Wives as the members gathered at the fraternity house and showered it with household and decorative articles.

A special presentation was the large original collage done in oil by Mrs. Reva Lewis which coordinated the interior design of the room. The masterpiece was hung in the Sigma Wives room of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity House.

The members devoted their thoughts to the social service needs of the area and in turn, directed their aide giving toward the Western District of the Police Department. A special project for the year is work with institutions; in conjunction with this, money as donated to purchase recreation equipment for the girls of the Montrose School.

Hostesses officiating at a traditional yuletide collation were Mesdames Hazel Phillips, Beatrice Pitts, and Lorraine Hayes.

Other members present were, Mesdames Macy Jeter, Naomi Camper, Juanita Hill, Thelma Moore, Violetta Lee, Esther Wiles, L. Boyd Holden, Cora Gibson, Reva Lewis Bernice Bucker, Katherine O. Johnson, Mar-

Guess Who The Boss Is At Your A&P

It's you!
Think about it. It makes sense.
All of us from the president on down work for you.
Frankly, where would we be without you and many people like you?
We know. We'd still be that little store on Gorsey Street where we started more than 100 years ago.
That's why you're important. That's why we care so much about how we serve you . . . about being fair, honest and dependable.
Is this kind of attitude a good reason for shopping A&P?
It's one of many.
