Know all men By These Presents, That I, Charles Thomas Ramsburg, of Frederick County, in the State of Maryland, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make, publish, declare and ordain the following as and for my last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say:-

After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses, as well as the cost of the erection of a suitable monument to my memory, the selection and cost thereof to be left solely to the discretion of my executors herein after named (unless I should erect such monument in my lifetime), I give, devise and bequeath as follows:-

1st: I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Margaret B. Ramsburg, provided she should be living at the time of my death, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00).
2nd: I give and devise unto my son, Henry T. Ramsburg, the farm upon which he resides, situated about one mile South of Middlebrook, in Frederick County, Maryland, and which was formerly the home of my father, containing One Hundred and Fifty-seven Acres of land, more or less; charged, however, with the payment by my said son into my estate as purchase money for said farm, the sum of Eighty Dollars ($80.00) per acre, he to have the right to have said farm surveyed at the expense of my estate should he not be satisfied to take the said farm at the quantity of land herein stated, namely: One Hundred and Fifty-seven acres. In the event my said son Henry T. Ramsburg should fail to elect to take said farm at the price herein stated within three months after my death, then I will and direct that said farm shall be sold by my executors hereinafter named and the proceeds arising from said farm, whether the same be sold by my executors or taken by my said son, Henry T. Ramsburg, at the valuation herein named, together with all of the rest and residue of my estate, real personal or mixed, of which I may die seized and possessed after the same has been converted into money, I will and direct shall be divided into seven equal parts or portions, and I give and bequeath one of said equal parts or portions to each of my children: Lilly R. Coblenz, wife of Horace B. Coblenz, Henry T. Ramsburg, Claggett E. Ramsburg, Samuel C. Ramsburg, Nellie L. Ramsburg, Valie E. Ramsburg and Beatie E. Ramsburg; provided, however, that any advancement made by me to any of my said children during my lifetime other than in payment for services rendered me by them, shall be charged against his or her share, so that my children shall participate equally in every respect in the distribution of my estate. I hereby authorize and direct my executors hereinafter named to sell and dispose of all real estate which I may have and hold at the time of my death not hereinbefore specially mentioned.

And lastly, I hereby constitute and appoint my son-in-law, Horace B. Coblenz, and my sons, Henry T. Ramsburg, Claggett E. Ramsburg, and Samuel C. Ramsburg, to be the Executors of this, my last Will and Testament; and in lieu of Commissioners, I hereby direct that each shall be paid the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) in full for their services as Executors, and should either or any of them refuse to serve as Executor for said compensation, then I hereby declare that he or they shall not be an Executor of this, my last Will and Testament, and his or their appointment is hereby revoked.

I further direct that my said Executors shall be allowed the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for counsel fees to be paid out of my estate, and it is my wish and desire that they employ as their said counsel, Emory L. Coblenz, Esquire, of Frederick, Maryland, who has agreed to accept said sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) in full for said services as counsel as aforesaid.

Executors } as follows:

- (1) I give and bequeath unto my nephew E. Stanley Delander the sum of one hundred dollars.
- (2) I give, devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of my property and estate, real, personal and mixed, including my one half undivided interest in the home farm upon which I reside, situated in said Frederick County, Maryland, containing about 101 acres, 2 rods and 20 square perches of land, more or less, and which said farm was conveyed to my brother William H. Willard and myself from Seligman S. Hensperger trustee in No. 5-102 Equity; by deed dated June 25th, 1886, and duly recorded in Liber N. D. P. No. 1, fol. 663 etc., one of the Land records of said Frederick County, Maryland, and also including my one half undivided interest in all personal property, farming implements, live stock, house hold goods etc., to my nephews and nieces, including my said nephew, E. Stanley Delander, equally, share and share alike, per capita and not per stirpes, and if any of my said nephews and nieces should die before my death, then and in that event, the share of said deceased nephew or niece to go to his or her children and descendants per stirpes, and if said deceased nephew or niece should leave no child, children or descendants living, then, and in that event, the said deceased nephew or niece's share shall be divided equally, share and share alike, amongst all my remaining nephews and nieces, the children and descendants of any deceased nephew or niece to take the deceased parent's share per stirpes.
- (3) If my brother William H. Willard desires to live on the said home farm after my death, then and in that event, I hereby authorize and direct my executors hereinafter named to lease my said one half undivided interest in said farm to him, upon the following terms and conditions, to-wit: The said William H. Willard to pay all taxes, insurance and other expenses of running said farm, to keep all buildings and fences in good repair, to keep all buildings insured and cause the policy of insurance on same to be so framed or endorsed that one half of said insurance will be payable to my executors hereinafter named in case of loss or damage by fire; that the said William H. Willard shall pay all the interest on the note of one thousand dollars held by the said E. Stanley Delander against my said brother William H. Willard and myself, so long as he, my said brother, William H. Willard, lives on said farm, (four hundred dollars, or one half of said note being chargeable against me, and four hundred dollars, or the other half of said note being chargeable against my brother, the said William H. Willard, the said one thousand dollars having been borrowed by us and used as a part of the purchase money of said farm); that in addition to the above payments to be made by my said brother William H. Willard, if he should desire to live on the said home farm after my death, he shall pay to my executors hereinafter named a rental of one hundred dollars per year, each year he so occupies said farm, for the use and occupation of my one half undivided interest in said farm, which said rent shall be placed on interest by my said executors hereinafter named, and to form a part of my estate to be distributed with the residue of my said estate as hereinafter directed.

(4) I will and direct that my said nephew E. Stanley Delander shall have the option to purchase all my right title and interest in and to said home farm (being a one half undivided interest) at any time within thirty days after my brother William H. Willard shall cease to live on said home farm, or shall fail or refuse to comply with the terms and conditions of the rental hereinbefore set forth, at and for the sum of thirty two dollars and fifty cents per acre for my undivided one half interest in said farm, (that is, if he the said E. Stanley Delander should desire to purchase my said interest as aforesaid in said farm, he shall pay the said sum of thirty two dollars and fifty cents for my undivided one half interest in each and every acre of said farm).

(5) I hereby authorize, empower and direct my executors hereinafter named to execute a good and sufficient deed, conveying all the right title and interest in said home farm of which I die seized and possessed unto the said E. Stanley Delander, if he should elect to purchase my said interest in said farm, upon his paying unto the said executors hereinafter named, the said purchase money of thirty two dollars and fifty cents per acre for my said undivided one half interest in each and every acre of said farm, amounting to the sum of three thousand three hundred and two and 3/4 dollars for all of my undivided one half interest in said farm, less four hundred dollars being my share of the indebtedness on the said note of one thousand dollars due him the said E. Stanley Delander, from my said brother William H. Willard & myself. It being my will and intention that the said note for the sum of one thousand dollars which my brother William H. Willard and myself owe, shall be paid in full to my nephew the said E. Stanley Delander in addition to what I have bequeathed and devised to him by this my last will and testament, and that no request or devise herein to the said E. Stanley Delander shall be construed to be in any manner a payment on said note, whether he elects to purchase my interest in said farm or does not elect to purchase my interest in said farm, and while the full amount of said note for one thousand dollars could be collected from either my brother William H. Willard or myself, it would be right, just and equitable for each of us to pay the one half of said note, that is, for my brother William H. Willard to pay four hundred dollars of said note, and for me to pay four hundred dollars of said note, and I hope it will be paid and satisfied in that way.

(6) If my brother William H. Willard desires to purchase my one half undivided interest in the personal property located on the said home farm, hereby authorize and direct my executors hereinafter named to sell to him my said one half undivided interest in said personal property, or any portion of it he desires to have, at the appraised value of my said one half undivided interest in said personal property; and should my said brother William N. Willard decline to purchase my said one half undivided interest in said personal property or any portion thereof, then I authorize and direct my said executors hereinafter named to sell my said one half undivided interest in and to any and all of said personal property not so purchased by my said brother at its appraised value, to my nephew the said E. Stanley Delander, if my said nephew wishes to buy my said one half undivided interest in any portion of said personal property at its appraised value, and I further direct my said executors to sell at public sale my said one half undivided interest in all personal property located on the said home farm, which is not purchased by my brother William N. Willard or my nephew E. Stanley Delander upon the terms herein set forth.

(7). I constitute and appoint my said nephew E. Stanley Delander and my sisters Narcissus Harley and Harriet Jeanette Abart to be the executors and executrices respectively of this my last will and testament, and in the event of the failure or refusal of my brother, the said William N. Willard to comply with the conditions hereinafter set forth with respect to his living on said home farm, and in the further event the said E. Stanley Delander fails or refuses to purchase my said interest in said home farm within the time hereinafter specified, then and in that event, I hereby authorize, empower and direct my said executors to sell my said one half undivided interest in said home farm to the highest bidder at either public or private sale, whichever my said executors or a majority of them shall deem most advantageous to my estate, and to convey the same to the purchaser thereof, upon the payment to them of the purchase money, and to distribute the proceeds as soon as practicable, as herein provided.

(8). It is my will and desire that my said executors hereinafter named and appointed by me shall be excused from the necessity of giving bond for the performance of their duties as executors, whereas the word "executors" is used in this will it shall be taken and construed to include those of the feminine gender I have or named and appointed as well as the one of the masculine gender I have or named and appointed and that the survivors or survivor of the said executors herein appointed shall have the same power and authority under this will that is herein conferred upon all of them.

(9). The words "all the rest and residue of my property and estate, real, personal and mixed" as used in item (2) of this my last will and testament, shall be construed to mean all the rest and residue of my property and estate of every kind and description and wherever situated, that is left and remains after the payment of all my just debts and the payment of the legacy of one hundred to my said nephew E. Stanley Delander as set forth in item (1) of this my said last will and testament.

(10). I hereby revoke all other wills and Codicils by me heretofore made.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this Eighteenth day of December, in the year A. D. nineteen hundred and nine

After the payment of all the just debts for which I am legally responsible and my funeral expenses, I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate of every kind, real, personal and mixed to my sister Mary L. Markell in trust as follows.

The said Mary L. Markell to hold the same until my youngest child shall arrive at the age of twenty-four years, and in the meantime to invest the same in such investments as she may think proper, with full power and authority to sell, change or vary said property and investments when and as often as she deem proper, and upon the further trust to collect and receipt for the interest, dividends, rents and income of said trust monies, property, securities and investments when and as the same may arise, and to use the net proceeds thereof in the support, education and maintenance of my daughters Ruth and Eugenia and my sons Jackson and Willard; The said income to be used and expended in such manner as in the judgment good trustee will best subserve the interest of my said children Ruth, Eugenia, Jackson and Willard, and without regard to the amount expended on any one of them.

Upon my youngest child arriving at the age of twenty-four years (if my youngest child should die in the meantime the next youngest shall then be considered the youngest etc.) the said trust shall cease and terminate and said trust fund, property, monies, securities and investments shall vest absolutely in and be paid over in equal shares to all of my children, to-wit: my daughters Maria, Ruth and Eugenia, and my sons Willard, Gerritt, Jackson and Willard.

And I hereby empower said trustee to appoint her successor to execute said trust by deed of appointment duly recorded among the Land Records of Frederick County, Maryland, or by her last will and Testament.

And whereas upon my death a portion of the trust fund in No. 4887 Equity created by the will of my father Le Witt C. Keller, will vest in my children, I hereby request that my sister Mary L. Markell, or some person other than my husband William Wilcoxon, be appointed guardian for each of my children as may be under age at that time.

And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my sister Mary L. Markell to be Executrix of this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this, and none other, to be my last will and Testament.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 22nd day of April in the year nineteen hundred and eight.

(1) I give and bequeath unto my wife, Anna Rebecca Hargett all of my property and estate, real, personal and mixed, for and during her natural life, with the right to sell and dispose of my investments or other personal property, and to invest the proceeds thereof and from time to time as may be necessary to reinvest the same in such securities as she may deem advisable, and to apply the income therefrom to her maintenance and support; but should such income be insufficient for her comfortable maintenance, she shall have the further right to use and consume so much of the principal of my personal estate as she may require, provided the amount of such principal to be expended by her shall not exceed the sum of Five Hundred dollars in any one year.
