lys, Ransoms, Clifforts, Prichetts, Simpsons, Tates and Pointers, all one clan.

The event was held at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Williams, 603 Rosedale St. Among Baltimoreans present were Mrs. Elsie Griffin, aunt of Mrs. Maud Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Hawkins, Mrs. Rosie Williams, Mrs. Edna M. Douglass, Mrs. Estellena Prichett, Mr. and Mrs. M. Williams, Dr. Melvin Williams of Washington and Mrs. Mary B. White.

Mrs. Prichett is the vivacious teacher who retired in 1917 but refuses to tell her age. Her story of the family of hundreds of members and some six generations is most interesting.

Last year the group met in Cambridge, Ohio with 200 members attending. It was their 41st annual assembly called "The Lett Settlement Reunion" and was held July 25 in Cambridge City Park at the main shelter house.

Louis Early, president, resides at 2322 Cleveland Ave., SW Canton, Ohio. Mrs. Dorothy Betts, secretary, resides 523 S. 8th St., Cambridge and Mrs. A. R. Prichett, 706 W. Lanvale St., Baltimore.

IN A formal hot pink hostess robe, an original, Mrs. Maurine Myers entertained at a festival luncheon New Year Day at her home 3508 Springdale Ave. Guests were Lesera King, Atlantic City, Nina Scott, Vera Pratt, Tripolia Washington, Rose Robinson, Rosella Watters, Wilhelmina Curly, Romaine Doguie, Cora Johnson.

Driving to Baton Rouge, La. Thursday in their spanking new canary yellow Bonneville with nylon top were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Haymond. He's the famed Colt star and she, his bride of 15 days, is the former Miss Jo Ann Winchester of Baltimore.

For Al, the most prolific punt - runner in the AFL, its a journey to his home state where his family resides in New Orleans. And, it's a back to school for some hard study too.

Haymond is a senior at Southern University where he begins classes Feb. 1 to complete requirements for a degree in physical education and social studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Haymond will be at home off campus in Baton Rouge until July when he returned to Baltimore for training.
