Gadabouting in Baltimore

Kappas set plans for April conclave

With Lula Jones Garrett

Baltimore Alumnae Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity and their "Silhouettes" are deep in plans for hosting the 1966 Provincial Meeting in this city in April.

In their intentions to make this a major event (but, naturally, one of their own, Charles Tildon is provincial polemarch) they have engaged space in Holiday Inn-Downtown for headquarters . . . have a party session set for Warren House, Pikesville; have a banquet and a slew of parties in the offing, and a fashion show (Shilhouetts' offering) for the ladies.

Delegates to the National Conclave in Boston, Mass., recently, had good news to bring to the local meeting, this week. They had garnered the 1968 conclave for this town (as against such cities as Detroit, no less).

Attending the Boston sessions were Mr. Tildon Lawrence Parker, Roland Henson, Joseph Thomas, Lewis Williams and James Tabron.

DIG THOSE energetic women who make up the Camp Mohawk Mothers Club . . . they're the tops.

Last October, they decided they wanted a swimming pool at Mohawk, which is the Baltimore YMCA's overnight resident camp for boys and girls in Huntingtown, Md.

So, Margaret Ross and her aunt, Lena K. Lee, the lawyer, sparked a group of women to work for it.

Last week, they convinced the powers that be in the Y that their proposal was a worthy one and the Y board of directors voted to borrow the $60,000 plus to build a new Olympic—size pool and have it ready by camp opening in June.

This means their children won't have to swim in nearby Patuxent River which has become dangerous on account of high tides.

"We saw what a swell job Mr. Moss (A. P. Moss the director) was doing and we wanted to help him improve the camp," Mrs. Lee said.

And, get this — these ladies not only ask for something, they do something themselves, which brings me to mention the benefit they're giving Sunday, Jan. 30 at 5 p.m. at the Sphinx.

The Bill Murphy trio will provide music, so this promises to be a real event.

Last year, these mothers used money from skating party benefits to buy the camp a new stove and widen the road into camp and spray for insects.

This year, they hope to make further improvements.

In addition to Mrs. Ross, the president, other active members of the club, which is open to all mothers of campers and prospective campers, are:

Mesdames Virginia Coleman, secretary; Roberta Keets, financial secretary; Hermione Weaver, chairman benefit committee; and Mamie C. Jones, vice president; Marjorie Green, Esther Holley, Gloria Jones, Ann Bunton, Ida M. Smith, Carrie Sheppard, Grace Walker, Alleen Bagley, Daisy Stevenson, Helen Tucker and Maebelle Richardson, business managers;

Also Mesdames Peggy Tarter, Camora Harold, Mary A. Johnson, Evelyn Rose, Louise Braxton, Estelle Stanley, Bettye Moss, Shirley Lawrence, Mary Barnes and Portia B. Johnson.

Little did she realize that a tape recorder had been secretly placed to capture her every expression of joy, also the comments and songs from her children, grandchildren, great - grands, great and great - great nieces and nephews.

Felicitations poured in from Messrs. and Mesdames Alexander Brown, Sr., Samuel Matthews, Clinton Sellers, Percy Payne, Julius Peterkin, Mittie Palmer, Daniel Peterkin, Alexander Brown, Jr., Thomas Perry;
