Zeta Phi Betas mark 46th anniversary

Sorors of Alpha Zeta chapter of Zeta Phi Beta happily wended their way back to their Alma Mater to celebrate their 46th anniversary at Morgan Christian Center, Morgan State College, Saturday, to greet a founder and president meritus Soror Arizona Cleaver Stemmons, of Philadelphia, and welcome a recently - elected regional director Soror Arthalia W. Lott of Yeaton, Pa., Mrs. Lott was also the guest speaker of the day.

• • •

THE GROUP was greeted in the lobby by members of the Founders' Day committee which included Alfene Cornish, a pretty hostess in blue satin skirt which featured a back flounce, topped by a Chantilly lace blouse, and blue hat and underpinned with blue satin slippers;

Also Soror Isolene Crowner, stunning in a high and wide black felt hat trimmed in black kid above a white boucle wool suit, black accessories and pearls; Doris Howell in a Parisiana hat of blue, green and brown beads, atop a blue knit suit and brown patent accessories; and Ethel Hodges, lovely in soft beige suit and hat, black accessories and crystal jewelry.

• • •

THE COMMITTEE then escorted the sorors to the lower auditorium, where Soror Hazel Phillips created a soft background music.

Soror Mary B. Hurt, basileus of the chapter, was toast mistress. She was a charmer in white brocade. Invocation was by Chaplain Goldia Ford, after which luncheon was served.

Soror Audrey Davis sang following the luncheon, and Mrs. Cornish introduced Mrs. Lott, who among other things is a teacher of 21 years, editor of the Baptist Women's Magazine, guidance councillor and leader in the Job Corps project.

• • •

IN HER talk on "The Image of a Founder," Mrs. Lott stressed, among other points necessary for successful projection, the understanding of others, thirst for knowledge, ability to communicate, capacity for work, vision and belief in God and in your fellowman.

Founders' Day Observance Certificates were awarded to Sorors Arizona Stemmons, Ethel Thompson, Ethel Payne, Alice Hall, Ruth M. Clever, May W. Fortune, Beatrice Mayo, Thelma Ashe, Beatrice Hall, Nellie Buchanan.

Also Sorors Mary J. Taylor, Reva Lewis, Sandra East, Hazel Phillips, Catherine C. Neal, Isolene Crowner, Lillian Webb, Beatrice Pitts, Geraldine Queen and Mary B. Hurt.
