Women's reserve unit seeks new WAVE recruits

The Baltimore Wave Reserve Unit is looking for new recruits, F. V. Decker, recruiting petty officer announced today.

Baltimore is one of the few large cities with a permanent unit for women's reserve naval training and is located at Building 3, Fort McHenry.

Officer Decker told the AFRO, "these women will be able to take an active part in our country's great reserve program without leaving home or job."

For further information on the WAVE program, write: Wave Recruit Training, Division 5-51, Ft. McHenry, Baltimore, Md. 21230.

Orioles put Robinson, 'new image' on display

Mere hours after he had taken on the local sports press corps—with glittering success — Frank Robinson, the newest Oriole, greeted Wednesday evening some of the city's leading citizens and avid baseball fans.

At an informal and intimate buffet luncheon in the Hit and Run Club of Memorial Stadium, sponsored by the management, the personal superstar was as big a hit with prominent fans of color as he had been earlier with the writing fraternity.

Among the "stag" guests at the reception were educators, athletes, businessmen, professionals of diverse fields, and just plain baseball fans.

During the refreshment—filled social hour, which also included a steak luncheon, Frank was peppered with questions running the gamut from Sandy Koufax to his wife and two children.

Presiding at the reception was Frank Cashen, Oriole executive vice president, aided by Harry Dalton, and ticket executives respectively and Joe Bride new team publicist.

* * *

THE YOUNG executives, like the acquisition of the former Cincinatti Redleg star, represent the "new image," being projected by press corps—with glittering the fortunes of the Orioles.

The purpose of the reception, therefore, was to make a beginning on the ultimate goal of establishing the "new image" in all segments of the community.

Groundwork for this objective began as soon as the direction of the club fell in the hands of brewery magnate Jerold C. Hoffberger, who served notice that he intended to direct the team in a manner which was "best for the stockholders, the employees, and the community."

"If I fail to do one of these well," he said at the time, "I won't be able to do any of them well."

In subsequent acts and utterances, Mr. Hoffberger has left no doubt that he wants the team to have a sound working relationship with the total community.

Messrs. Cashen, Dalton, and Dunn, with the approval of the majority stockholder chose the debut of the teams most glittering star to date in that direction—G.W.C.

Harlem Park in campaign for members

The Harlem Park Neighborhood Council, headed by Charles R. Curtis Sr., has announced a membership goal of 1,500 members in its aim to become the "best organized community in the city."

The annual membership campaign this year is under the direction of George Dozier, 530 N. Fulton Ave. Co-chairman is the Rev. Sidney Daniels.

In announcing its annual drive, the Council said that membership fees could be sent to Mr. Dozier at his home address or given to individual block club presidents.

Individual memberships cost $1 per year. Business, church and contributing memberships are $5. Groups or clubs may join for $2.50 for a year.

* * *

THE COUNCIL said the memberships will help it continue to seek these goals for the residents of the area bounded by Lafayette Ave., Franklin St., Fremont Ave. and Monroe St.:

Decrease in property taxes, decrease in crime rate, decrease in the number of liquor outlets, increase in number of Inner Parks, more efficient housing inspections, better street lighting more police protection.

Jobs for youth and unemployed adults of the area, adequate school and recreational facilities, abolition of narcotics in the area, more organized blocks and citizen participation, better services from city agencies and proper enforcement of zoning laws.

Lose weight among friends in new club

Mrs. Ella Mae Cooper is acting as head of a new organization to help over-weight women lose those extra pounds. Part of the national group known as "TOPS", Take Off Pounds Clubs, Inc., will be a "first" for Baltimore women.

"We have to weigh-in at each weekly meeting, and the ones who have not lost at least one pound will be penalized," Mrs. Cooper tid the AFRO.

Baltimore members will receive the national "Tops" magazine and participate in the national convention to be held in Baltimore this coming March. Dues are $8.

The next few meetings will be held at Cooper's Beauty Salon, second floor, 3829 Liberty Heights Ave.

For information contact Mrs. Cooper between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. Mondays and 7-9461.

"Skin was drying out...flaking...looked dull and gray. 'Vaseline' Petroleum Jelly helped make it soft and smooth...looked 100% better in a few days."

Mrs. Donald P. Ryder, New York, N. Y.

Applied as a continuous film to hands, ankles, face, arms—when your skin needs more than cosmetic care—'Vaseline' Petroleum Jelly is the soothing answer. Helps dry, ashy-gray skin regain its normal look and tone. No other softeners, no skin cream, no skin lotion provides better moisture protection. Try it.

WHEN SKIN NEEDS MORE THAN COSMETIC CARE.
