Whereas an Election for Seven Common Councilmen was held on the first Monday of April Eighteen hundred and forty two, it being the fourth day of said month. We the undersigned duly appointed Judges of said Election do hereby certify and return that we did attend on the day and year aforesaid at the place by law appointed for holding Elections in said City and did then and there appoint William

Glover and Henry Thompson Clerks of the Election who severally qualified as directed by law, we further certify, that we did then and there qualify as Judges of the Election as by law directed and did then and there at the hour of nine o'clock in the morning open the polls for an Election for Seven Common Councilmen as aforesaid. That we continued the polls open until six o'clock in the evening of the same day when they were closed, the ballot Box opened and the ballots publicly counted when it appeared that Richard J. Jones, Henry Hobbs, William McNeir, S. Abraham Claude, Michael C. Kearney, Edward S. Davis were duly elected Common Council men for said City and that Daniel Caulk and Jonathan Pinkney each received forty eight votes the same being a tie.

Given under our hands, at the place of holding said Election this 4th day of April 1842

attest;
