Joseph Mebane named printing chief in D.C.

Joseph Mebane, native of Baltimore, has recently become a "first" with his promotion as a maker-up-in-charge, a supervisor in the Government Printing Office in Washington.

The new job culminates 14 years in government service and followed Mr. Mebane's apprenticeship in printing which began at the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN in 1939.

Mr. Mebane came to the AFRO upon graduation from Douglass High School and remained until 1951. His time with the newspaper was interrupted for Army duty from 1941-45, being discharged as a sergeant.

The duties of the new post include over-all supervision of linotype operations in the composing section of the printing office. Mr. Mebane is head of over 230 printers and composing personnel.

The oldest son of the Mebanes is following his father's example by also being a "first" as apprentice at the Washington Post.

Mr. Mebane, 44-year-old appointee and his wife Lila and their three children reside in the 3800 block of 20th St., NW, Washington.

December party gets two guests long prison terms

POLE DOWN — One of the first accidents in the city after snow started blanketing Baltimore on Wednesday occurred in the 2400 block McCulloh St., just before noon when this auto knocked down street pole and landed at shop. (AFRO photo by Phillips)

Lee Lane, 19, 1900 block Eutaw Place and Joseph Weaver, 18, 2100 block McCulloh, have been sentenced toOh St., involved in an after party squabble over a fifth of whiskey in December, terms in the Maryland Correctional Institute.

On Wednesday, Judge William J. O'Donnell in Criminal Court sentenced Lane to two terms of three years and nine months each, for assault on Officers Charles George and Robert Dorsch.

Testimony before the court revealed that while Lane and Weaver were fighting over the bottle and the officers were trying to "break it up" Lane felt someone grab him from behind and struck out, not knowing he was hitting officers of the law.

A suggestive knife, a scalpel, was found in his possession. He was found guilty of assaulting each of the officer. Weaver received a one-year sentence for assault.

ATLANTA — (API) — Dr. C. Clayton Powel, optometrist, last week was appointed to head a committee to perfect plans for precinct-level GOP conventions throughout the state on March 5.

In Memoriams

BEVANS — In loving memory of my husband and our father GEORGE, who passed away January 6, 1962.
You're not forgotten, father dear,
Nor ever shall you be,
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.
WIFE and CHILDREN.

BRISCOE — In loving memory of my dear husband, ARTHUR E. BRISCOE, who passed away January 30, 1947:
Deep in my heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest.
In memory's frame I shall keep it,
Because you were the best.
LOVING WIFE—LAVINIA.

BUTLER — In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, J. HIRAM BUTLER, Sr., who passed away January 30, 1961:
The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the love, the voice, the
Of the one who once sat there.
CHILDREN-HILDA B. BROWN, J. HIRAM BUTLER, JR.
GRANDCHILDREN-ROBERT, JR. HIRAM and BORA AMMONS.

DELK — In loving memory of my husband, BERTRAM, who passed away January 30, 1964:
Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place.
Or we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears to silence some day;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us three years ago.
DEVOTED WIFE—VIRGINIA DELK.

GANTT — In memory of our father, WILLIAM E. GANTT, SR., who passed away January 27, 1963:
On father dear, you'll never know
Just how much we miss you so;
But, God above, He knew best.
So He took you home with Him to rest.
Loving Children
ZOLA A. BROWN
WILLIAM E. GANTT
ALVIN L. GANTT

HARDY — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOSEPH, who passed away January 27, 1963:
Since you went first and I remain
To walk the road alone,
I live in memory garden, dear,
With the happy days we have known.
In spring I wait for the rose red,
In summer leaves blue,
In autumn when the brown leaves fall
I'll catch a breath of you.
LOVING WIFE—LOUISE HARDY.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my husband, THURTON M., who passed away January 28, 1960:
Today my heart is as heavy as lead,
My thoughts are with you, dear Thurton
Oh how I miss you, THURTON dear.
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no it isn't true.
For one long year has passed dear,
And my heart still aches for you.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of our loved son, WILLIAM M., who passed away January 28, 1956:
A helping hand to all he knew,
He was so kind, so good and true.
On earth he nobly did his best,
Grant him, Jesus, Heavenly rest.
MOTHER, SISTERS, BROTHERS and NEPHEWS.

MORRIS — A tribute of love to the memory of our beloved husband and father, ROBERT T., who passed away January 28, 1960:
Sometimes its hard to understand,
Why some things have to be,
But in His wisdom, God has planned
The world can never be
Blessed over twice—twice and
DEVOTED DAUGHTER-FANNIE HOLLY.

NOLLIE — In loving memory of our father and grandfather, ELIJAH, who passed away January 28, 1962:
Close, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face;
But you left us to remember
Some on earth take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet its memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
DAUGHTERS and GRANDCHILDREN.

RICHARD — In loving memory of my devoted husband and our father, BEVERLY W. RICHARD, who departed this life January 30, 1958:
We shared our joys and sorrows,
Through many happy years.
From love my support borrows,
Some comfort for my tears.
Faith teaches me to endure
That our reunion nears.
Devoted Wife—ZELMA P. KELLY
Children — HELEN WALTER RICHARD and DAUGHTER-ODESSA DANGERFIELD.

VAUGHN — In loving memory of our daughter, IOLA (CORNIE), who passed away January 27, 1963:
Dear God, plant flowers in a lonely grave,
Place you alone from gate by line,
You alone know the place I pine,
And saw her close
Her weary eyes,
Also, you know, dear God above,
How our hearts are broken.
The memory of her precious love
Is our only sacred token.
THE FAMILY.

WILMORE — In loving memory of our husband and father, CASSIUS, who passed away January 29, 1962:
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing,
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
One year ago today.
DEVOTED WIFE and DAUGHTERS.

WILSON — In loving memory of my mother, SYLVIA, who passed away January 19, 1963:
Although God has you in His Keeping
I still have you in my heart.
DEVOTED DAUGHTER, MAGGIE W. PAYTON.
