Gadabouting In Baltimore

Who was afraid of the big, bad storm?

With Lula Jones Garrett

An elegant after - party, hosted by three very elegant hostesses, took guests from the Chipperettes Snow Ball to the Elegante Room for breakfast, Saturday morn.

The hostesses were Bernadine Harrison, Gwendolyn Hillen and Hermione Weaver. In keeping with the theme of the dance at which they, among other Chipperettes, had hosted the hours before, they set a pace in this area too.

A white crepe sheath, paved in rhinestones, featuring a low - cut back, was the gown worn by Mrs. Weaver. Mrs. Hillen chose white, with pink and white crystal in an all - over design. It was one of those little imports from Hong Kong. And Mrs. Harrison's gown combined a crystal tear-drop beaded overblouse with a satin skirt.

Their guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Harris, Alvin Watson, Walter Edmonds, Wilfred Seaborne, William Pinder, hughes, Lloyal Randolph, Melvin Callaman, Robert Diggs:

Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Wilson, Alvin Trent, Leo Hilles, Clifton Murray, David Wright, A. Paul Moss, Errol Taylor.

Messrs. and Mesdames Aaron Ellis, Charles Hicks, Arthur Hatcher, Elson Higginbotham, Malcolm Chamberlain.

Drs. and Mesdames Bernard Harris, Albert Burwell, Lonnie Greene, A. U. Forte; Mesdames Alise Clark, Mary Alston, Jean Williams;

Misses Betty Williams, Daisy Kiag, Berkley White of Detroit, Royal White and Arlington Phillips.

• • •

AT THE same hour, Berine Gail was breakfasting the guests she had entertained at the Chipperettes dasce.

Lengthening the evening in Mrs. Gails' attractive Garrison Blvd. apartment were:

Messrs. and Mesdames J. C. Reaves, Clarence Dyson, Leroy Lindsey, Melvin Parker, Rudolph Redd, William E. Griggs; Celestyne Crawford and John H. Queen.

The Steve Moores, who had been the gifests at the dance at East Wind, were just too close to home to turn the other long way into the city . . . and the Yancey Whittakers, also her guests, were reserving strength for the moving into their new home in the Mohawk Ave. colony, next day.

PRECEDING DINNER at six, a Saturday ago, members of the Baltimore Chapter of Moles sipped champagne and showered Blanche Beckham with an abundant array of pretties for her new home on Ellamont Road.

The group revelled in the coziness of Harriet Trader's Sequoia Avenue home. Dinner rivaled the setting in tastefulness and artistry, with drop turquoise covered tables on all three levels were arranged about the living area.

But with all the gaiety, those Moles did settle down to business, directing their attention to national Mole business — the conclave to be held in Richmond, Va. . . . their annual closed anniversary party to be given by their Mules.

About were:

Mary McPherson, who heads the chapter; Florence Bailey, Bea Wright, Celonia Walden, Josephine Sloan, Louise Lockerman, Emma Dudley, Helena Hairston, Carolyn Stubbs, Blanche Beckham, Anabel Rawlings, Bertha Forte, Helen Queen, Mary Pitts, Jacqueline Spencer, Anethia Williams, Bernice McDaniels and Mrs. Trader, the hostess.

• • •

THE FOR-WIN-ASH Garden Club was hosted by Carrie Johnson in her elegant home on Lynchester Road, Saturday . . . and again neither the snow or sleet stopped her from having a full house.

Plans were made for the annual trip to New York for the flower show in March.

Attending were:

Ada Veney, Myrtle Lee, Katherine Gross, Madeline Harding, Isolene Crowner, Jimmie Laforest, Inez Kent, Naomi Camper, Hilda Higgins, Rosalie McGuire, Meriball Bell; Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Frisby, Dr. and Mrs. Martin Rodney and Mae Campbell.

Mrs. Lee showed movies of the club's Round Robin during the holidays. Needless to say, it was great fun seeing themselves in action.

• • •

THE IMPRESSIVE luncheon, held in the Baltimore - Sheraton Inn, Saturday, to mark Founders' Day of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, brought to the city any number of out - of - towners.

Among them were Mrs. Olga B. Baynard, Mrs. Louise Bullock and their attractive and stately regional director, Mrs. Elizabeth Proctor, all of Washington.

• • •

THOSE WERE the stout ones . . . who plowed through that storm (the worst of the century said the weather folks) to attend the Libertarians' cocktail party and dance, Saturday evening.

Some of the hosts didn't manage to get there themselves . . . but those who did held the fort for:

Messrs. and Mesdames Wallace Hall, John Hawkins, Joe James, Walter Smith, William Walker, Francis Green, Dallin Wicks, Harry Bowen, Robert White, John Gilmore,

Messrs. and Mesdames Glendi E. Johns, Henry Patterson, William B. Kidd, James A. Cook, Joseph Felton, W. Johnson, James McPherson, William Dunway,

Messrs. and Mesdames Edwin E. Westcott, Thomas R. Smith, Joseph Smith, William Bevans, Oscar Savage, Cornelius Tinsley, George C. W. McKnight Jr.,

Messrs. and Mesdames George Jackson, A. D. Watsos, Joseph Lee, Eldridge Dixon; Mesdames Gwendolyn F. Balfour, Laura Gould,

Mesdames Melvina Jackson, Louise Edmonds, Aileen Pope, Alice Hall, Helen Miles, Shirley Colvin, Doris Payne, Ida Martis;

Misses C. Williams, Jean Britain, Amy Johnson, Ida Finney, Cheryl Dorsey; Daniel Smith, Thomas Greene, Jr., Michael Brown, John H. Ellis, George Floyd.

Pat Matthews, Nathaniel Horton, Albert Times, Thomas Wright, Ellsworth Hopkins, Clifton Cole Sr., Ernest Thornton, Thomas Sterrette, Anthony M. Wicks.

DATE DATA: There's the Sweetheart Ball being sponsored by the Rector's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church on the 11th. They have engaged the Gliders to provide dance music for the affair which will be held in the Guild Hall on Lafayette Avenue.

There is also the Valentine tea and world gift show to be held by the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA, beginning at - 4 p.m. on the 13th. The tea is being sponsored by the Business and Professional Girls Club, whose president is Miss Bernice Williams.

Assisting her is a committee composed of Mesdames Susan Watson, Mildred Mason, Frances Gardner, Mabel Pass and Gwendolyn Culbreath; and Miss Irene McCullum.

Add too, there's the shower for Miss Maxine Allen Johnson, at the Sheraton - Belvedere Hotel on Sunday. The honoree is to become the bride of Marcus Wood, Jr., son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Wood.

THE CLOTHES TREE: And how about that chalk bead and crystal trimmed leather gown that Joan Scott danced in, at East Wind, Friday evening?

The same evening, at Union Hall, Lucille Cephas was making a pretty picture in a backless orange satin gown, worn with matching shoes; Gladys Patterson was being chic in white featuring a scooped out neckline; and Myrtice Bennett being stunning in white jewel shell and matching skirt. Shapely Lucretia Whitten was an eye catcher in pink beaded shell and gray skirt.

This was at the dance given by the Companions. Later Louise Brown held forth at an early hour party at Holiday Inn.

Chili Con Carne rates high when temperature zooms low

A piping hot bowl of Chili Con Carne is welcome as a friendly greeting with the home-from-the job adults or youngsters just in from school.

It serves as a snack or a meal.

Everyone has his own way of making chili but here are a couple of unusually flavorful recipes you will enjoy. They are even better the next day, so you can make these dishes ahead.

• • •

CHILI BILLI is made with two pounds of ground beef, one clove minced garlic, one cup minced onion, one cup chopped celery, a half cup chopped green pepper, a teaspoon salt,

A pinch of pepper, one and a half tablespoons chili powder, one tablespoon paprika, one teaspoon ginger, one tablespoon sugar, one small can tomato paste.

One small can tomato sauce, one No. 2 can tomatoes, a half cup water, two No. 2 cans kidney beans, two tablespoons flour, three tablespoons water.

• • •

COMBINE AND fry beef, garlic, onion, celery and green pepper lightly. Add next 10 ingredients and simmer gently one hour. Then add kidney beans. Make a paste of the flour and water and stir into mixture and simmer 15 minutes longer. Makes eight servings.

Try some of the Chili on Chili Coney Islands.

These are made by slitting frankfurters lengthwise and brushing slightly with barbecue sauce. Grill until done. Serve on heated buns topped lavishly with Chili Con Carne.

• • •

MEXICAN CHILI is made with one pound of kidney beans, a fourth pound salt pork, cut small, three cloves garlic, minced, two large onions, chopped, one pound beef, diced,

One pound pork, diced, a half teaspoon oregano, a pinch of ground cumin, two cups tolmato puree, three tablespoons chili powder, and salt and pepper to taste.

Simmer beans in water to cover or half-inch more, till not quite cooked. They absorb water as they cook so add water as needed.

• • •

COOK SALT pork crisp in large skillet or Dutch oven. Add garlic and onion. When wilted, add the pork and beef shoulder cuts, (in both cases are good) and mix in all other ingredients. Simmer one and a half hours adding tomato juice or water if necessary from time to time.

Taste and correct the seasoning if necessary. Makes six to eight servings.

Lamb Kabobs

Lamb Kabobs are made with ¼ cup chopped onion, 1 clove garlic, minced, 1 teaspoon curry powde, 1/8 teaspoon ground ginger, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 can (10½ ounces condensed cream of mushroom soup, ¼ cup water,

Also 1 pound lamb, cut in 1½ - inch cubes, 2 apples, quartered, 1 medium green pepper, cut in 1 - inch pieces, and 8 small white onions.

For sauce, cook onion, garlic, curry powder and ginger in butter until onion is tender. Add soup and water; cook 5 minutes; stir often. (Partially precook green pepper and white onions if very tender vegetables are desired.)

On 4 skewers, alternate lamb, apple, green pepper, and onion; place on broiler rack. Brush kabobs with sauce.

Broil, about 4 inches from heat for 30 minutes or until meat is tender; turn kabobs and brush with sauce every 5 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Egg Sauce

A quick trick that can make your cooking skills look extra-good — that's "Quick Egg Sauce."

U.S. Department of Agriculture home economists recommend it especially for serving over cooked vegetables or ham croquettes. Their recipe makes two cups of sauce.

MAKE QUICK Egg Sauce with 10 ½ - ounce can of condensed cream of celery soup, 2 hard - cooked eggs, finely chopped, 2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper, ¼ cup milk, and 1/8 teaspoon pepper.

Combine all ingredients. Heat to simmering.

As a variation, use cream of mushroom soup in place of the cream of celery soup.
