KAPPA CHAPTER, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, held its meeting on Saturday evening at the Central Branch YWCA Sorors Lois Boyette, Geraldine Hooper, and Gladys Ball served as hostesses for the evening.

Highlight of the business meeting was the announcement by the scholarship committee chairman, Soror Fannie Poulson, that the chapter would sponsor seven entrants in the National Merit Scholarship examinations in March. This is the examination from which Iota Phi Lambda selects its national scholarship winners. Entrants are: Roslyn Veney, Minnie Robinson, Bernadette Butler, Joyce Hill, Joan Underwood, Joanne Glasden, and Wilhemina Whitfield, all students of Dunbar High School.

After the business meeting the Sorors enjoyed a Negro History week program presented by a committee composed of Sorors Claudine Harden and Mary Crump, co-chairman; and Sorors Ethel Douglass, (who had to be absent because of a snow fall) Marion Ransom, Gladys McCoy, and Isabel McConnell, members.

For the past several years the chapter has observed the History Week, and used the money they would have spent on a public program to pay on their Life Membership Pledge to the NAACP. The program was built around the national theme for the Week, "Freedom from Racial Myths and Stereotypes Through History." Soror Mary Crump presided and developed the theme using as background the two articles by Dr. Benjamin Quarles, Morgan State College, and Dr. Charles Wesley, president of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, Washington, D.C., which were printed in the manual included in the kit prepared and distirbuted by the Association.

Sorors Isabel McConnell reviewed "The Negro Revolt" by Louis E. Lomax, in which the author takes the reader on a long trip through history from the Revlutionary War and Crispus Attucks down to the present in an attempt to answer the questions "why the Negro revolt," and "why now"

Soror Gladys McCoy presented a very informative explanation of Negro History Week, which was the brain child of Dr. Carter G. Woodson who was dedicated to the idea that until the history books include the colored American in his proper place, a Negro history had to have a special place in the thinking and minds of all people but especially colored people.

A guessing game on facts of history prepared by Soror Marion Ransom Prizes for the most knowledgeable were awarded to Sorors Evelyne Wilkey, Mary Irvin, and Marie Lewis.

Sorors present were:

Gladys Ball, president; Evelyne Wilkey, first vice president; Mildred Noel, second vice president; Mary Ames, recording secretary; Mary Ervin, corresponding secretary; Eloise Taylor, treasurer; Mary Tucker, financial secretary, Isabel McConnell, journalist, and Fannie Poulson dean of pledgees;

Sorors Lois Boyette, Emma Brown, Joyce Chisholm, Mary Crump, Bertha Green, Claudine Harden, Thelma Juggetts, Marie Lewis, Gladys McCoy, Jessie Nicholson, Geraldine Hooper, Velma McCullough, Yvonne Jacobs.

Sorors Blanche Pettiford, Josephine Wallace, home on a visit from her overseas assignment in South America with the State Department; Marion Phelps, Marion Ransom, Margaret Robinson, Mable Waters, Helen Weatherford, Vivian Young and Anna Wilson.

Buy grapes in small quantities and use them quickly. They are a highly perishable fruit.

SPRING is a good time to be hardheaded about winter clothes. Before packing away the past season's wardrobe, go through the clothes and see if there are some you haven't worn at all. If so, it's a good idea to think seriously about discarding them.

SATIN TIES do better anchored with a tie clasp rather than a tie tack. The clasp won't leave any mark.

ONE WAY to wash a sweater that will dry to the right size is to make a pattern in advance. Place the unwashed sweater on heavy cardboard and draw its outline. Then, when you're ready to dry it, pat it into shape on the pattern.

Vegetable Stuffed Beef Roll

Please your family! Serve tasty but inexpensive Vegetable Stuffed Beef Roll.

VEGETABLE STUFFED Beef Roll is made with two tablespoons butter, one - half cup chopped onion, one package (10 ounces) frozen mixed vegetables, one tablespoon water, one and one - half pounds ground beef, one beaten egg, one - half cup fine dry bread crumbs, two-third cup (small can) undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk, one tablespoon prepared mustard, two teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, one teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper and two slices process American cheese.

* * *

MELT BUTTER in frying pan. Add onion and saute until tender. Stir in mixed vegetables and water. Separate vegetables. Cover and cook over low heat about 10 minutes. Uncover and cool slightly. Combine ground beef, egg, bread crumbs, Carnation, mustard, Worcestershire, salt and pepper. Blend well.

On wax paper, lightly pat meat into 16 x 14 - inch rectangle. Spread vegetables over meat, up to one inch from edges. Starting at 7 - inch side, roll meat lightly, using wax paper to lifting and guiding meat.

* * *

PLACE ROLL, seam side down, in 10 x 6 x 2 - inch baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 55 minutes. Remove from oven. Cut cheese slices in half, arrange on top of meat loaf. Return to oven and continue baking 3 to 5 minutes or until cheese melts.
