If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

No fair weather Christians

It was pouring down rain at 11 a.m. on Sunday, but there was plenty of sunshine inside Waters AME Church at 427 N. Aisquith St. in East Baltimore.

Nearly 500 persons braved the foul weather to attend the founders day and race relations service.

They were rewarded with an inspiring program. There was joyful singing of familiar hymns . . . by the four choirs with the minister, the Rev. Melvin Chester Swann, lending his rich baritone to the choruses.

There was the tribute to Bishop Richard Allen, (the AME Church founder in 1787), by Ramona Moore, a ninth grader at Lombard Junior High (very informative).

And there was an address by Paul Bamela Engo, of D.C., minister - counselor of the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Cameroon.

Excerpts: History can not fail to record the untiring efforts of colored people and the sacrifices to achieve lasting peace and equal justice . . . discrimination on the basis of color is out of step . . . we in Cameroon . . . are working for a united nation . . . for peace and justice . . .

James A. Parker, the Baltimore - born foreign service officer with the State Department for 20 year, introduced the speaker.

Mr. Parker is a lifetime member of Waters.

Special guests: Representatives of Boy Scout troops from all sections of the city.

This integrated group maintained honor guard at strategic spots in the auditorium during the service.

Also in the audience: Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, president, Baltimore NAACP; her husband, Keiffer Jackson; their daughter, Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell, state NAACP president; and their grandsons.

And, also, Second District Legislator Julian Lapides.

Longtime communicants here: Members of the Byrd family of E. Biddle St. Mrs. Imogene Byrd Douglas made the announcements.

Also spied, Mrs. Rose Simpson, an old friend. Several members inquired about our neighbor, Mrs. Mabel Denkins, who has been ailing. She belongs to Waters.

Other church leaders: The Rev. James L. Hill is associate minister; Mrs. Bertha Cole who is organist (and can she make lovely sounds!)

Mrs. Jane Buckson is director - organist for the Youth Choir.

Mrs. Mary Gibbs is director - pianist for the Chorel Club (And, did they sing, 'Lord, Keep Me Every Day!')

Lloyd Barry is Sunday School superintendent.

Mrs. Genevieve Wisner directed the Senior Choir in the singing of the anthem, "I Will Sing Praise.' (It was beautiful.)

Just as inspiring was the hymn singing, especialy when all choirs and the congregation united in 'Come Unto Me.'

It goes like this: 'Come, no longer tarry, I your load will bear. Bring me every burden, bring me every care.'

Cuff note: The Hon. Joseph Owono, Cameroon Ambassador to the U.S. was scheduled to be the Sunday speaker, but he was called home because of an accident involving his seven - year - old daughter. Minister Engo was a pinch hitter.

Note on Waters Church programs, designed and edited by the church secretary, Miss Carolyn Bevans:

'If you must whisper, whisper a prayer.'

UNION LEADERS MEET —Attending the convention of District 5lx of the United Packinghouse, Food and Allied Workers in Baltimore tary-supervisor.

Highlight of the evening: Announcement of the engagement of Miss Alice Shields and Andrew Harvey, Mr s. Frances Jolley gave the news via loudspeaker . . amid oohs and aahs.

About were: Mesdames Margie Harvey, Lena Wood, Chas. Gaskie, Estelle Pinkett, Deloren Jessup, Lillian Holley, Dorothy Dugan; Messrs. and Mesdames George Sword, Raymond Jolley, Joseph Cassidy (he's a former member of Clifton's faculty); Alcone Lamont.

Messrs. Marcel Jacque, a native of Haiti, who is a houseguest of his Lamonts while visiting American schools under the Teacher Development Program; Wilbur Jones, Jr., George Richardson, Roland Haywood, Jr., Humphrey Bruce, Crosby Washington, Willis Keeling, Arthur George, Charles Brown.

Misses Mary Keeney, Winifred Marcus, Rebecca Ray, Genevieve Kennedy and Catherine Brown.

At Trinity Baptice Church on Sunday afternoon, members of Rebecca Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, gave a chicken dinner. Delicious!

Co - chairmen were Mr s. Inez Richardson and Mrs. Mabel Hawkins. Mrs. Lucille Russ is worthy matron.

We shared a table with Mrs. Esther Hall of Hyde, Md., grand worthy matron of Myra Grand Chapter, and Mr. Hall, (Rino, the longtime (37 years). Friends School bus driver.

At the same table: Elwood Turner and Mrs. Turner (Emma) of 700 N. Monroe St. He's active in Masonic circles.

Several hours after leaving the church, Mrs. Turner collapsed and died in their home.

And, she was looking the picture of health!

Cuff note: Another longtime Friends School bus driver (40 years), John H. Byrd, 78, was buried last week. He lived at 220 E. Lanvale.

A large number of Friends faculty and staff turned out for Mr. Byrd's funeral at St. Matthews Methodist Church, including John Cornell, headmaster, and Messrs. Forbush, Bliss Jr. and Byron.

He is survived by a niece, Mrs. Anna Thomas and a nephew, Robert Byrd.

More people remembering: Baltimore Chapter, Johnson C. Smith Alumni Association holds luncheon Saturday at 1 at Sheraton - Lanham to honor CORE Chairman James M. Griffin.

About people, places, things

People being kind to other people . . members of the Clifton Park Junior High faculty braved the snow a Friday ago for a hospitality evening at the lovely Hilton Rd. home of John and Marlene Mohammed.

He's on the Clifton Park faculty — she's an elementary-treasurer; Donald R. Smith, director of District Six; and Ralph Helsten, international president.

More about people, things

How it turned out. It was still raining late Sunday at the hour of the Camp Mohawk Mothers' benefit at the Sphinx.

Just the same, over 200 persons turned out to hear the Bill Murphy Trio and to win the prizes offered by local merchants.

Club president, Margaret Ross, is calling for final ticket reports at next week's meeting on Feb. 23.

Emcee for the afternoon was Fred Bailey, who was back in harness for the first time since he returned from Okinawa eight months ago. Over there he had his own radio show.

Looking for a real gone outfit for a small party? You won't go wrong if you hire the Bill Murphy trio, with Bill on drums; Gene Walker, piano; and Phil Harris, bass.

Mohawk Mothers, you know, are working for improved facilities at the YMCA Camp in Huntingtown, Md., where a new swimming pool is due to open this summer.

AMONG merchants who gave prizes were:

Bill McConkey, Carling Brewing Co.; Roland Wheatley, Hauswald's Baking Co.; Maurice Jones, Koester's Bakery; Dave Johnson, National Brewing Co.; Bernie Lounge, James Morton, Morton and Dyett, the Sphinx's proprietor, Charles Tilghman and Pauline Brooks.

Baby note: — It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. James Simmons of Eldorado Ave. He arrived Valentine Day.

Mrs. Simmons is the former Jerilyn Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Murray, both Baltimore teachers.

Daddy is the postal employee and son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Simmons of Bristol, Md.

you cards to Miss J. Elizabeth Carr, a good neighbor. She is in the nursing home at 1410 McCulloh St.

Gracious living note: The Forest Park Ave. home of Dr. and Mrs. Elroy Young (Waltye), is saying something, especially the spacious clubroom, big enough for youngsters to have recreational activities in one section and grownups in another.

E. Gantt, Mrs. Dorothy Tildon, William K. Wheller, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Taylor.

Cuff note: Lent begins Feb. 23 which is Ash Wednesday. Easter, you know, comes early this year (April 10).

When the former Catherine Smith of Philadelphia became Mrs. Howard H. Murphy in June, 1939, her chum, Mrs. Leon Newsome (Irene), also of Philly, was her bridesmaid.

Mrs. Newsome was among friends who attended her funeral last Tuesday.

Cuff note: Mrs. Murphy, 'Kitty' to neighbors and friends, was a lady who spent herself worrying about and helping others.

This verse, author unknown, suggests the kind of generous person she was:

"A friend in need," my neighbor said to me;
'A friend in need, is what I mean to be.
'In time of trouble, I will come to you,
'And in the hour of need you'll find me true."

* * *

Feb. 20 is date of dedication of the Vernon Johnson Jr. ward at the Anna May Hunter Home for the Blind.

It honors the popular Baltimore Army officer who died in an auto crash.

P.S. — Dedication is the same day as birthday of Mrs. Evelyn Henderson, a resident of the home. Best wishes to her.

Reception note: the newlywed Raymond Judge Johnsons will be honored at a reception Saturday at 3 at Metropolitan Methodist Church. They were married on the 20th.

The bride is the former Shirley Yvonne Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Dixon (Gladys Sembly).

Howard H. Murphy, AFRO comptroller who buried his wife a week back, collapsed in his office on Thursday, was rushed to Hopkins, treated and released, is now at Provident Hospital doing better now.

Pleasant good neighbor met this week: Melvin Harris, a Yellow Cab Driver. He's been on the job for 15 years — which means he was one of the first to be hired when the firm dropped its color bars. Remember?

AFRO visitors this week: Mrs. Nina Curry and her sister, Mrs. Frances Thomas, Charleston, W. Va.

They were here to visit their brother, George R. Hawkins of Greenmount Ave. He's been hospitalized for nearly a month.

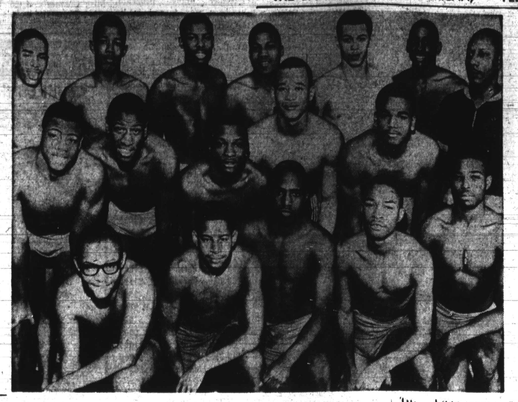
S. C. State quint in NCAA tourney

ORANGEBURG, S. C. (UPI) —South Carolina State has won a berth in the National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) Mideast regional tournament for small college basketball teams.

State cinched the berth Tuesday night by defeating Morris Brown, 92-72, in Atlanta. The win was State's 19th against no loss.

The bulldogs with one game remaining, are assured of finihing with the top regular season record in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

State was ranked 18th among the nation's small college teams in this week's UPI ratings.



Duck-Redskin clash looms as MSA mat spectacular

The most hotly - contested battle in the history of Maryland Scholastic Association team wrestling appears in prospect for this afternoon (Friday) when Douglass and Edmondson meet for the conference crown at Edmondson.

Both coaches, Artie Williams at Douglass, and his rival, Augie Walbel at Edmondson, are confident that, regardless of the outcome, the duel will be thrill - packed from start to finish.

Williams and his Ducks captured the Division 2 crown on Tuesday, with a 29-16 victory over McDonogh, and the Redskins, under Waible, repeated as Division 1 champs by disposing of previously unbeaten City College.

Neither Douglass nor Edmondson has been defeated going into today's payoff clash.

ONE OF the most important battles will take place early in the program when Douglass' Pernell Reed tangles with Edmondson's Doug Pender in the 130 - pound class. Both are undefeated in MSA competiton.

Edmondson's Joe Banks, who also boasts a clean slate against 115 - pound foes thus far, takes on Ron Jackson of Douglass in the opener pairing. Jackson has lost only once.

In the 137 - pound class, both the Douglass and Edmondson representative lost for the first time on Tuesday. The 9 Ducks' Ellsworth Bryan had his win streak snapped by McDonogh's Billy Grubb, and Redskin Don King bowed to City's Larry McCoy, who is the defending MSA champion.

IF THERE is an edge to be accorded either team in today's matches, it probably would have to go to host Edmondson in the heavier weight divisions.

From 145 pounds to 175, the Douglass High School captured the B Conference swimming championship, Wednesday, scoring a squeaking 48 - 47 victory over Edmondson. The Ducks completed their season with a 9-1 slate, losing only to Southern in an upset. They later reversed that loss. Members of the title aggregation are shown here, left to right: front row —Frank Owens, Larry Lee, Andre Barnhardt, Kirkland Taylor, Michael Richardson; second row — James Hayes, Samuel Hicks, Larry Thomas, Wallis Lansey, Delano Tucker; third row — Stewart Brooks, Ronald Wood, Robert Thomas, Carnett Fields Frank Lansey, Kenneth Mosley and coach Marsden Rawlings.

coach Waibel's youngsters have lost only one match all year. That sole defeat was suffered by Bill Matthews, Tuesday, at the hands of Jerome Jordan of City, at 154 pounds.

Charlie Anderson took the measure of the defending MSA champion, Greg Watkins, at 145 pounds. Dave Stuckey, 169, went to 8 - 0 for the year with a washout of City's Dave Jackson, and 175 - pound Greg Senior proved why he is the current champ by decisioning Don Leak with relative ease.

MEANWHILE, Douglass romped to her 8th straight triumphy on the strength of Reed's 6th in a row in the 130 - pound division; Jackson's 6th in 7 outings at 115 pounds, and Fred Moses' similar 6 for 7 at 169 pounds.

Today's pairings will probably go as follows:

115 pounds — Jackson (D) vs. Banks (E); 123 pounds — Ingram (D) vs. Hendricks (E); 130-pounds — Reed (D) vs. Pender (E); 137 pounds — Bryan (D) vs. King (E); 141 pounds — Johnson (D) vs. James (E); 148 pounds — Howard (D) vs. Anderson (E); 169 pounds — Moses (D) vs. Stuckey (E); 178 pounds — Bailey (D) vs. Senior (E), and Unlimited —Chester (D) vs. McKinney (E) — SAM LACY.

Scholar-Athlete dinner cites 36

Thirty - six beaming youngsters were honored Wednesday night at Eastwinds as "leaders of tommorrow" by virtue of their selection as Maryland's top scholars among schoolboy athletes.

The youths were toasted by some of the leaders in college and professional sports and presented plaques in recognition of their achievements in the classroom as well as on the football field.

A $500 scholarship to the college of his choice, the main prize awarded before the audience of 840, went to Howard Meyers of Archbishop Curley High School. The award is made annually by the Baltimore Quarterback Club, which co - sponsors the affair with the National Football League Foundation.

Meyers was captain of the Curley eleven which played only its second year in the Maryland Scholastic Association last fall.

Additionally, he is president of his class, president of the Student Government, a member of the National Honor Society and twice a member of the All - Maryland scholastic football team.

ALSO RECEIVING plaques at the dinner were Raymond Chester of Douglass, Charlie Pittman of Edmondson, Dave Hyden of Dunbar, George Lewis of Carver, Ron Gallup of Mervo, and John Stone of McDonogh;

6 pt. to gollow.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKERS were Ara Parseghian, coach of Notre Dame's famed Fighting Irish, and Bill Elias,
