ROSE BURNHAM

Burnham, Robinson in TV pin finals

Two former champions of the event — Rose Burnham of Woodlawn, and Mary Robinson of Odenton — bowled their way into the finals of the citywide tenpin tournament at Fair Lanes Timonium, Tuesday night.

As a result, they will make up one - third of the field battling for the title on television Sunday afternoon.

CHALLENGING Mrs. Burnham, who enters the climatic round 44 pins ahead of her nearest pursuer are: Barbara Cramer, Mrs. Robinson, Leni McConchie, Miriam Oland and Ada Jewell. All will be in the battle at Fair Lanes Ritchie.

The attractive Woodlawn bowler, who won the championship in 1964, built up her lead on the field with some of the most consistent scoring the tourney has witnessed. She rolled over 900 on three occasions during her rise to the top, and has not been under 866 going into Sunday's finals.

• • •

BEST performance of the Tuesday night program, however, was turned in by Mrs. Robinson. The winner of the 1962 crown roared from apparent oblivion with a 962 block that rocketed her into third place in the standings.

Mrs. Robinson captured the event in 1962, before her marriage. At that time, she was Mary Jackson.

With her 4,510 pinfall, Mrs. Burnham leads second-place Miss Cramer's 4,466 by 44 pins; Mrs. Robinson's 4,464 by 46 pins, and fourth place Mrs. McConchie's 4,451 score by 59 pins.

Ashe wants title more than reprieve

SALISBURY, Md. — Although he has an entirely different motive in trying to win the U.S. national indoor tennis singles championship here this week, Arthur Ashe could win reprieve from early military service by so doing.

Ashe blasted his way into the quarter - final round of the tourney on Wednesday, by taking the measure of 19-year-old Stan Smith of Pasadena, Cal., 6-4, 7-5. In his opening match, Tuesday, the 22 - year - old, now bespectacled UCLA senior whipped Jaidip Mukerjea of India, 6-4, 6-4.

Ashe, who is second seeded in the tournament, advanced on a day when the No. 1 men in both the domestic and foreign ratings were eliminated. Both Dennis Ralston, the pre-tourney favorite, and Ron Holmberg, who defeated Arthur in the 1965 play, suffered upsets.

• • •

ARTHUR WANTS very much to win here. He had a brilliant overseas tour, taking four of the six major tournaments in which he competed. Prior to that, he was the guiding force that led the United States past Mexico in the American Zone finals of Davis Cup play.

It is his importance to the Davis Cup team, and Uncle Sam's hopes to regain the attendant world prestige, that could delay Ashe's coralling by the Army.

• • •

SOME BELIEVE that the slender, Richmond - born, first tan player in Davis Cup history can be of greater value to the national image in world politics, than as one of thousands of lieutenants in the military forces.

While victory for that reason is far removed from the mind of Arthur, it is suspected that a win for him here this week would enhance the chance of Uncle Sam waiting . . . LACY.

Speed races promise thrills at All-Eastern

They're over in a flash but track fans everywhere get a kick out of sprints and the fields for the All - Eastern Games at the Civic Center, Feb. 26, are guaranteed to create excitement.

If it doesn't happen in the remaining four meets before the All - Eastern, the opposition once again will be out to stop Willie Davenport, who has managed seven victories without a defeat on the circuit this year.

• • •

THE SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY freshman is the All - Eastern defender and will be widely favored again, but it won't be easy. Arrayed against him are Marine Cour'land Gray, ex-Naval Academy star who has three runner-up finishes to his credit, a third and a victory in Philadelphia; Richmond Flowers, young Tennessee freshman who won on succeeding nights in New York and Los Angeles, and John Bethea, the local boy who has won the All-Eastern event twice previously.

Despite these headliners and others completing the 18-man field, the timber topers expect the meet and indoor 60-yard record of 6.8 set here in 1964 by Hayes Jones.

• • •

FLOWERS IS the only hurdler expected to see double duty in the 60 - yard sprint although Davenport could do it as attested by his runner - up finish a year ago.

The favorite, however, will be Southern University's George Anderson, who suffered his first defeat of the year last Saturday in Louisville. Before sustaining an injury, Anderson scored in Detroit, Boston and Kansas City.

• • •

OTHERS IN the field are Olympian Edwin Roberts of N.C. College and Trinidad; Jim Stewart, consistent finalist from the Quantico Marines, and Ray Pollard, of Morgan State, who won the New York, K.C. dash and twice was runner - up in Boston.
