If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

A Lenten Sermonette

The following sermonette is from Forward: —

A "church" is a gathering of people to do something together on the basis of shared purpose.

What churches do you belong to? Only one?

The one with the Gothic or Colonial architecture which meets on Sunday to worship God in Christ?

That's a church, surely.

But what about the church where you work? People gather there for a purpose.

Most likely they do much the same things every day—a ritual.

It may even have a particular architecture, like a steel mill or a bank or a railroad.

What other churches are there in your life?

Everything true about the Church gathered to worship God is true also of a church gathered to make shirts.

Only the people in the shirt church do not know it.

This mission — to infiltrate the churches of the world as disciples of their Lord.

The Collect: O Almighty God, who hast committed to the hands of men the ministry of reconciliation, We humbly beseech thee, by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, to put it into the hearts of many to offer themselves for this ministry; that thereby mankind may be drawn to thy blessed kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A Prayer for Lent

The following Lenten thoughts are from the Fellowship of Prayer:—

Only what is revolutionary today has a chance of being classical tomorrow.

—Adapted from Paul Tillich

Merely to be afraid is to be less than man. Merely to renounce and condemn is to reject moral responsibility.

Merely to teach for whatever private advantage we can take from the situation, heedless of whether the new development is really good for man, is profoundly immoral.

But, also, merely to hail every material change as progress is foolish and dangerous.

Our task as spiritual and rational beings is to wrestle with the situation that confronts us, remembering who we are, praying that we may have the grace to make it minister to our growth.

—Herman F. Ressig

There are shadows of turning on the heart
Shadows of advancing age;
Shadows of missed opportunity;
Shadows of times when faith and hope have failed.
Lord, turn our hearts to thee.
in whom there is no shadow of turning.
Renew our spirits when we are weary;
Help us to see and seize the glory of the Now;
Heal our hurts and the hurts we have given others;
Restore our faith in Thee, knowing that "our times are in Thy hand."

—Truman and Virginia Douglass

This is to report that Mr. Prettyman is the editor of the firm's college department.

And, that was no easy accomplishment, what with checking tickets, table assignments and maintaining a vigil at the bedside of her brother, Hayes Buddin.

He died Wednesday.

About this and that

Love that Adam Clayton Powell. He flew here from Harlem Sunday evening to address the 4th District Democratic Campaign dinner at the Lord Baltimore.

To the 1200 plus audience, he described himself as 'the big daddy' of the Black Revolution.

He is indeed big — not only in size (he's a commanding six - footer); but also in responsibility.

He is chairman of the powerful House of Representatives Committee on Education and Labor.

He promised legislation which I intend to push through, will strike at de facto segregation in public schools and will be known as the Powell Amendment.

Urging 'black togetherness,' he told his rapt audience:

"We talk about first class citizenship — well you are not second class citizens in these days unless you think second class.

"I will play ball with the devil to get the things I want for my people,' and,

'We are soon going to have Operation Headstart on a year - round basis.'

Cuff notes: Congressman Powell's plane was late. He did not arrive at the dinner until after 7:30 and the program was well along.

Early arrivals were Governor and Mrs. Tawes who arrived near the 5:30 opening hour and remained through the program.

Gracious gesture: —Speaker of the House: Marvin Mandel and State Senator William S. James were scheduled to speak but declined in the interest of time for the speaker.

Feeling at home among the many Baltimoreans he knew . . . Powell was introduced by Senator Welcome as Mr. Civil Rights. . .

His response: "You called me 'Mr. Civil Rights,' but right over there is the person who deserves that title, Dr. Lillie M. Jackson."

He turned to Councilman Henry Parks and recalled he knew him when . . . from the old WPA. . . and now Rockefeller will honor him as "Businessman of the Year" in New York, next week.

He had a ball. He told City Council President Tommy D'Alesandro. . . he hoped he was not like his Daddy (former Mayor). . . "Your Daddy was sump'in else."

He pointed to the Rev. A. J. Payne, who started his ministry under his late father at Abyssinia Baptist Church in New York. . .

He called the AFRO's Dr. Carl Murphy 'one of my oldest and dearest friends,' and

He scored 86.5 for the quarter and was promoted to corporal.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results—here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids—without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoidal conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H. Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Mrs. Annie B. Draper, long Sharp St. member

Mrs. Annie B. Draper, 79, the Daily Vacation Bible School and taught the Children's Bible Class.

BORN IN Kent Island, Eastern Shore, Md., Mrs. Draper's parents were James T. and Mary Saunders.

Her husband, Andrew Draper, died in 1956.

Medicare message

out of increased monthly Social Security checks) and will pay doctor bills. "It's to your advantage to sign up," Mr. Chapman tells his listeners.

THE DISADVANTAGES of not signing up now for the added plan, he told residents, Wednesday are threefold:

"First you will have to wait until 1967 to be able to sign up again. Then you will have to wait until 1968 until it takes effect, and finally, if you wait, your payments will be more than $3 a month."

Among those Chapman and his co-workers have interviewed are many who have received their Medicare cards for the hospital coverage, but were not aware of the plan for paying doctor bills at a cost of only $3 a month.

One such person was James F. Bennett, 65, a retired crane operator who lives at 940 W. Saratoga St. Mr. Bennett displayed his red, white and blue card for hospital Medicare, and when Chapman explained the advantages of the added plan, Bennett quickly expressed interest. "I can see where that would be a good idea."

He was left with a form to mail in for the added coverage before March 31 with the admonition. "It's to your advantage," and urged to attend the meeting at the Poe Homes.

LIKE MR. BOWMAN, it is estimated that there are six million other people who have not signed up for the added coverage. Another 13 million eligible persons have signed up. The National Council of Senior Citizens says that about one-third of the unsigned - some elderly are colored men and women.

Another purpose of the massive canvass is to find elderly citizens who are not covered by Social Security and do not realize they are eligible for Medicare.

The door-to-door workers knock on each door asking, "Does anyone live here who is over 65?"

The "Alert" teams distribute Medicare literature, organize and help escort the elderly to meetings and can refer individuals for help to other anti-poverty projects.

They also make out information forms on each house visited—forms that will be valuable in helping to coordinate other local anti-poverty programs.

THE CANVASS projects have been financed all over the country by the Office of Economic Opportunity to help reach the "unreachables"—those over 65, who are lonely and cut off from radio, newspapers and TV.

The prime target areas in Baltimore, according to Harold C. Edelson, executive director of the Health and Welfare Council which is sponsoring the local drive, are poverty districts, because these residents have not responded as expected.

Each community is headed by one of ten district captains. Mr. Chapman, a former social worker, is the captain for District 9. One of his 18 aides, working with him Wednesday, was Mrs. Mary E. Miller, 65, a former employee of the Telephone Company.

Both have signed up for the added coverage under Medicare.

Chapman has called for additional field helpers who are needed for canvassing neighborhoods on a 20-hour week basis at times convenient for themselves.

The workers are paid $1.50 an hour under the grant and must be age 60 or over.

OTHER LOCAL-LEVEL informational meetings will be held March 8 at the following places and times: St. Francis Xavier Church at Caroline and Eager Sts., Community Center at 1411 Gough St., Sharp Street Community House at Etting and Dolphin Sts., all at 3 p.m.

Also on March 8 at 6 p.m. is the meeting to be held at the Little Fountain Baptist Church, 817 Pennsylvania Ave.

Mrs. Sallie E. Fletcher, project director, has asked relatives of elderly persons to come to the meetings also to learn the extent of health coverage.

"We want persons over 65 especially," Mrs. Fletcher told the AFRO.

Those interested in applying for coverage or becoming workers may contact the project office at 800 N. Broadway phone 675-5442.

One red, white and black sheet handed out by the workers reminds the elderly that: "You don't have to have a medical examination, don't have to have worked under social security, don't have to be retired . . . Remember the March 31 Deadline!"

Mt. Calvary gets overhaul

The church is spacious with a double pulpit, choir lofts behind the pulpit and flanking on each upper side.

The full basement houses a modern kitchen, rest rooms, nursery and Sunday school sections.
