AFRO show preps Morganites on cotillions, proms, weddings

The Student Union auditorium at Morgan State College was packed with young people, both men and women, Tuesday evening, for a style show which was a feature of the annual Women's Week at the college.

The show, given by the AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS, was sponsored by the Charm Club, the Women's Dormitory Council and the dean of women, Dr. Thelma Bando, and her staff. It was an annual showing of bridal, debutante and prom clothers, and the registers for prospective brides, debutantes and beginner homemakers.

* * *

MRS. IDA M. SMITH, of the AFRO's Advertising Department, was co-ordinator. Participants on the program included Mrs. James Laforest, who gave hints on proto say he is a man with transition, the areas of his cedures in presenting debutantes.

Mrs. Lula Makay, women's editor of the AFRO discussed procedures in presenting News items on Cotillions, bridal parties and weddings.

* * *

PAULINE BROOKS Fashions for Spring was a hit of the show. Mrs. Joan Stevenson was commentator. Models were Misses Mabel Burton, Carolyn Dotson, Frances Ladmirault, Edla Talley, Melinee Yerrell; and Morgan models, Misses Cassis Sifford and Nashi Smith.

Miss Sifford was a contestant in Glamour Magazine's Best Dressed contest this year, and Miss Smith a member of Mademoiselle College Board for the next three years.

Hats shown were designed by Nell Sheridan. Shoes worn by the models were from David Chester of Mondawmin. Elliott A. Nelson was the demonstrator.

* * *

MISS PAMELA FELTON, a freshman from Washington, worn the dream bridal gown from Becky's. The gown featured in this month's Bride's magazine was an empire A-line silhouette or organza with removable monks cape embroidered in Alecon lace and priced at $125. With it she wore an enchanting shell cap of lace petals outlined with tiny pearls attached to double bouffant society length veil of illusion.

Miss Michele Hoff of Hamden, Conn., vice - president of the Charm Club, modeled the attendant's gown from Becky's.

She wore a pale pink chiffon in the Empire style with A-line skirt and Monk's cape lined with French Alecon lace priced at $49.95. Her headpiece was a shell cap of hand - made rose petals trimmed with pearls and a bouffant veil.

Prom clothes from Sears, Roebuck Co., were shown through their Fashion Co-ordinator, Mrs. Thelma Barrett. Gowns were coordinated with matching gloves and bags.

Miss Roberta Palm, freshman from N-Y., modeled a moss green top and cream crepe in the Empire style, Miss Sylvia Thompson, freshman from Leonardtown, Md., showed an Empire style long gown with cerise top and tapered cream skirt.

Miss Gladys Stringfield, from Philadelphia, modeled a prom dress with embroidered green brocade top and mint green skirt.

The dress modeled by Miss Catherine Woods was a navy crepe, with flower - like white organdy ruching. Miss Alwina Fields from Philadelphia, modeled a powder blue brocade, with detachable flying panel.

* * *

MISS SYLVIA SCOTT, sophomore from Dundalk, modeled a deb gown from Becky's. The dress of organza and Chantilly lace, featured two tiers in front and four in back.

Miss Edna Mae Jackson, a 1965 Me-De-So deb, wore her own presentation gown of polished satin with scalloped neckline; beaded and lace-quined. Miss Shirley Branch, another Me-De-So Deb, modeled her own gown of bouffant Chintilly lace and taffeta re - embroidered with sequins and pearls.

* * *

MISS CHARLOTTE ANNE ROBINSON presented at the Girl Friends' Cotillion in December, wore her gown of white peau-de-soie, embroidered in pearls and sequins.

Before the showings of the gowns, tables were arranged around the room for viewing. They included tables of fine china, silver and crystal by the Stieff Silver Co. Mrs. Janet N. Taylor was consultant.

Summers - Norwood Florists showed fresh flowers including the formal bride's bouquets and flowers for deb receptions.

Crip's Florist, a complete wedding florists, displayed samples of his palms, arches for weddings and prom corsages.

Norman Uncles with the Everlasting Products Co. displayed the latest in cookware. Receptions were discussed by representatives of the Eastwind.

* * *

MALE MODELS were lotte Robinson.

The Arundel Ice Cream company gave the reception which consisted of a demonstration on how to cut a wedding cake and serve.

Hostesses including members of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and members of the Charm Club. Door prizes were by Pauline Brooks and Stieff Silver Co.

VEGETABLE SUPPLIES other than white and sweet potatoes and dry onions have been well below a year ago. The difference is due mostly to bad weather in producing areas including the late January freeze in Florida. Considerable acreage of vegetables was lost and is being replanted. This situation accounts for much of the mediocre vegetable quality and price increases. It will pay to observe quality points for each individual commodity as you purchase in order to get full value.

Birthday Tributes

JONES — A Birthday tribute of love to my son and our brother, CAPTAIN MALCOLM W. JONES, who departed from this life one year ago on March 8, 1965:

Today our hearts are heavy, Our eyes are full of tears, Thinking of you on your birthday, darling. We had to let you go, We know how much we loved you, We miss you more And enlisted you and hated to let you go. But God in His wise ways needed you more.

BERTHA JONES and FAMILY.

In Memoriams

AVERS — In loving memory of our mother and sister, KATHERINE, who passed away March 10, 1960:

Loving and kind in all her ways, Upright and just to the end of her days; Sweet memories she left behind, A mind as true as the wind. Sadness and memories she left behind, Her work on earth was done, Her reward is in heaven, we feel we won.

CHILDREN, JEANETTE and MARK; SISTER — CORDIE HILSIN; BROTHER, GEORGE AVERS

BOST — In memory of my loved one, ALBERT, who passed away March 9, 1951:

If we had seen you to the last And held your dying hand, And heard the last sigh from your heart, We would not feel so bad. We did not know the pain you had, We did not see you die, We only know you went far away, And never said good-bye.

THE FAMILY.

BROWN — In memory of my mother, MINNIE A. BROWN, who passed away March 12, 1947:

They will be done to hard to say, When one you loved has passed away; Remember, perhaps I'll understand, When we meet in that better land.

DAUGHTER—CATHERINE BROWN.

CHAMBERS — In loving memory of my husband and our father and grandfather, JAMES D. SR., who passed away March 9, 1951:

When the evening shadows are falling, And you sitting alone, In our hearts there comes a longing, For you only could come home. Out of our life's sunshine you passed, Your work was done, your race was run, The silver cord was broken, The golden bowl was broken, Your pain was over, your heart was at rest, Your spirit was free, God's angels caught you, And you were blest.

LOVED WIFE, CARRIE CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

GILLARD — In loving memory of my son, MARION GILLARD, grandmother, MARIE H., who departed this life one year ago, March 11, 1955:

Time heals all sorrow but leaves one to weep, Memories linger, precious and deep, How dear to our hearts the loved one we keep. Sleep on, dear son, and take your rest, God knows we miss you, God knows we miss you most.

HUSBAND — HENRY GILLARD CHILDREN, HENRY JACKSON, BETTY WILLIAM, THOMAS E. and VERA D. GILLARD and GRANDCHILDREN.

GOUGH - THOMPSON — In loving memory of my mother, CLAUDIA GOUGH, who passed away March 14, 1960, and LILLIE THOMPSON, March 3, 1962:

A silent hour for thought and prayer, Keeps their memory ever dear, Time may pass and years may fly, But their memory lingers on and on.

Sweet memory turns back every hour, Recalling the days of old, Dear mother, we miss your smile, Your voice we miss the most, Somewhere above this troubled world, Safe beyond all grief and care, Our precious mother, God's angel peace.

Dear mother, someday we'll meet him there.

CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

HALL — In loving memory of my husband, WILLIAM LLOYD, who passed away March 12, 1956:

I miss you more than words can express, I love you more than you will ever guess, I miss your smile, your voice, your caress, A life linked with mine, A life alone.

LOVING WIFE — SUSIE.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of our son, WILLIE JOHNSON, who passed away March 12, 1960:

Dear son, we miss your smile, your voice, your caress, and life's sunshine, Life is dark without your presence, but we know God's will is best, Your work on earth was done, and well done, God called you home, we miss you most.

MOTHER, ANNIE JOHNSON and FAMILY.

LEONARD — In loving memory of our loved one, KATHERINE, who passed away March 14, 1961:

THE SPOTTSWOOD'S, LEONARD'S and PEARL'S

LEWIS — In loving memory of my husband, RAYMOND, who passed away March 12, 1958:

God saw the road was getting rough, The hills were hard to climb; God saw the weary feet had suffered and endured; "Peace to Rest," He said, and gently took you home. The weary work was over, The battle won, The patient years of pain Have found sweet rest at last.

LOVED WIFE.

LEWIS — In memory of our father, RAYMOND, who departed this life March 12, 1958:

Dear, dear father, Gone from our sight, Gone from our loving circle, Gone from our hearts, Gone from our home, Gone from our world of care, Gone to a better home, Gone to God, Our loss is your gain, A happy home we once enjoyed, But now the home is broken, The dear one we love is gone, The world can't see or hear, Only God and the angels know, Rest in peace, dear father.

LOMAX — In loving memory of my husband, WILLIAM HORACE, who passed away February 13, 1962:

I have lost my soul's companion, A life linked with my own! And day by day I miss him more As I walk through life alone.

LOVING WIFE — SUSIE.

LYNCH — In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, FLORENCE, who passed away March 12, 1960:

No one knows how much we miss you, No one knows the bitter pain We have suffered since we lost you, Life has been lonely indeed, In our hearts your memory lingers, Sweetly, tender, fond and true; There is not a day, dear mother, That we do not think of you.

LOVING CHILDREN— LOTTIE JOHNSON, JAMES A. CARTER, GRANDSON — STEWART THOMPSON.

QUARLES — A tribute of love in memory of our dear mother, NETTIE QUARLES, who passed away March 12, 1960:

If we had all the world to give, We'd give it, yes and more, To hear our voice and see your smile, And greet us at the door, But all we can do, dear mother, is go and lend your grave, And leave behind tokens of love To the best mother God ever made. Forever Heaven may be, That you'll be standing at the door Up there to welcome us.

THE FAMILY.

RILEY — In loving memory of our dear brother, JOSEPH R., who passed away one year ago, March 10, 1965:

I have lost my soul's companion, A life linked with my own, And day by day I miss you more, As I walk through life alone.

LOVING MOTHER.

SCOTT — In honor of our daughter, FAYDITTA, who passed away March 14, 1956:

We have your memory, dear daughter, To remember our whole life through; But the sweetness will linger forever, As we remember the angel you.

THE SCOTT FAMILY.

SEWELL — A tribute of love to our dear mother, DAISY, who passed away March 12, 1956 and our father, ALBERT, who passed away February 26, 1962:

TO MOTHER:

To those who have been a mother, Number one with our hearts, You do not know her value Till you do not have her anymore.

LOVING CHILDREN— LUCILLE, BERTHA, ALBERT and LEVI, JR.

Peaceful be thy rest dear brother, Sweet be your memory ever dear, Life is lost, loved you dearly, In death, I am the same.

LOVING SISTER and BROTHERS, LUCILLE, BERTHA, HELEN, OLLIE and LEVI, JR.

STEWART — In loving memory of our husband and our father, STEWART, who passed away March 10, 1961:

We think of you often, and will ever, We think of you, but not to be sad, We think of our memory you ever will be.

WIFE — PAULINE, and SON — CHARLES.

WICKS — In loving memory of our father, MYRTLE, who passed away March 12, 1961:

We often sit and think of her when we are all alone, For memory is the only friend that death has left us, Like ivy on the withered oak, Our love for her still clings, Core from our hearts we can't tear her, From Livingston's family.

WRIGHT — In loving memory of my beloved mother, MARY E. WRIGHT, who passed away March 14, 1955:

Dear mother, you not do I think of you, I think of you often, and will to the end, Gone and forgotten by some you may be, But dear to our memory you ever will be.

SARAH B. SMITH Columbia, S.C.
