ated, added, "Go the h--- on home."

Addison stated the younger brother was struck and the older brother told the officer, "Don't hit my brother. I'm taking him home."

ADDISON TOLD the court the officer then turned, slapped the other brother and grabbed the first one, saying, "I'm going to arrest you."

At this point, Addison stated, he remonstrated the policeman to say, "That brutality was unnecessary."

When the policeman replied, "You have nothing to do with it," Mr. Addison made it known he had the officer's badge number and would report him.

ADDISON CLAIMED a crowd of some 30 or 40 persons gathered upon hearing Leroy's persistent out - cry from the pain suffered as police handcuffed him and put him in the wagon.

He denied he urged the crowd on and stated only one bottle was thrown by an observer.

Mrs. Mitchell termed Addison's actions "kindred human emotion" that resulted from obvious mistreatment by the police officers.

She claimed the policemen were in error since James had stated he was trying to take his hard - of - hearing brother home.

"He was in the process of obeying the officers," she pointed out.

The charge against Addison for interfering with the arrest "by pulling, pushing and laying hold" of the officers was stricken by Judge Prendergast.

His ruling was that the Grand Jury indictment signed by the State's Attorney was inaccurate.

However, Addison and James Johnson were fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Both were found not guilty of five other charges of disorderly conduct and James Johnson was not required to pay court costs.

The younger brother, charged with assault on an officer, will be represented by Mrs. Mitchell at a later date.

At the recommendation of Judge Prendergast and Assistant State's Attorney James McAllister, the afflicted young man was released from City Jail where he has been confined since Jan. 14.

He left the courtroom accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Edith Johnson, and his brother, James, who is an Oriole Bakery employee.

Character witnesses for the CORE member were the Rev. Francis Smith, pastor of St. Phillips Lutheran Church, 501 N. Caroline St., and Maurice Moody, a city firefighter, 2400 block Loch Raven Blvd.

Both longtime acquaintances of Mr. Addison, they told the court they knew him as a peaceful citizen who would uphold the law.

Eastern District policemen who denied any brutality occurred with K-9 Officer Hartman Dillingham, Officers Edward Malecki and Daniel Caulk and Sgt. Edward Cook.

Tan sophomore on Tulane 9

NEW ORLEANS — Steve Martin, a sophomore, has become the first colored athlete to compete in a varsity sport for any Southeastern Conference team.

Martin, from Marrero, La., made his debut with Tulane's baseball team Wednesday as the Green Waves beat Spring Hill College 9 - 5 in the season opener.

Martin played in the outfield for the eighth and ninth innings.

He did not get a chance to bat.

TULANE COACH Bed Abbadie says he considers Martin, who is attending Tulane on an academic scholarship, a topflight baseball prospect.

Martin played with the Tulane frosh team last year — also an SEC first.
