ward the finish line and the first two across with the most votes will be spending their spring vacations on a fabulous cruise to Bermuda.

Likewise, the homeroom class of the winning teacher will spend an exciting day sightseeing in Washington, D.C., and the class of the second place teacher will be fed to a wonderful theatre party.

This all promises that the final gallop to the post will be marked by a fantastic flurry of votes.

In addition the third place winner will collect $150, the fourth place winner will get $100 and there are prizes of places.

IN VOTING since Tuesday, there was still shifting among the top five, although over the previous weekend many had managed to retain their spots.

William H. Ross of Cherry Hill Junior High School 180 went from third place to fifth, and Mrs. Helen DeLeaver of Robert Fulton School 138 and Mrs. Dorothy Thomas of Windsor Hills School 87 jumped over him to third and fourth places, respectively.

More than a half million votes were again added since Tuesday in balloting that saw Mrs. Lucille M. Brooks of Charles Houston School 181 retain her first place lead with 420,600.

Ernest Moody of Collington Square School 97 remained in second place with 377,400. He added nearly 100,000 votes since Tuesday and gained on Mrs. Brooks.

The glorious week - long vacations are still up for grabs — and there will be only three more ballots (including today's) to remind you that time is flying fast. Fast, FAST!
