Dismiss case against Black

CHICAGO (NPI) — John Black, brother of Holice and Richard Black, the two who were charged with the slaying of police Sgt. Charles Eichhorst during a supermarket robbery last August, has been freed of a charge of harboring a fugitive.

The dismissal was ordered at the government's request. John was charged with hiding Holice, who was subsequently captured in Florida last Dec. 17. Richard surrendered Dec. 29.

MINISTER CITED — The Rev. Dr. A. J. Payne, minister of Enon Baptist Church, received distinguished service citation from Prince Hall Grand Master Samuel T. Daniels during mammoth mass meeting Sunday sponsored by the Baltimore NAACP and the Masons at Bethel AME Church. Guest of honor was Baltimore-born Thurgood Marshall, the nation's new Solicitor General. The Rev. Mr. Payne is an NAACP vice president and life member. His church leads in life memberships.

Minister gives up fight to keep tan youngster

FULLERTON, Calif. (UPI) —A Caucasian minister and his wife will give up a two-year - old colored boy they adopted a year ago because they have been "harassed, humiliated and threatened" by persistent telephone callers.

The Rev. Albert Cohen, 38, and his wife, Ann, 33, said they will return the boy, Davic, to the Los Angeles County Adoption Agency on Monday. They were scheduled to sign final adoption papers later this month.

The Rev. Mr. Cohen, a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, serves as the Protestant chaplain at California State College at Fullerton.

"We have to give up," Cohen said. "We thought we could stand up and be counted but we just don't have the personal strength.

"We found out what Fullerton's like. It's Watts in reverse."

Cohen said the callers often would ask, "Have you checked all the kids recently?" The couple has four natural children.

Last Sunday night he said he received a call from a man who told him, "Get rid of the n—r or you might find one of your children gone."

• • •

COHEN SAID he had been given police protection since someone painted "Watts" on the front door of his home two weeks ago.

"It was all right at first," Mrs. Cohen said. "We thought it would work out even though all our friends, black and white, told us it wouldn't.

"I can feel and see the resentment. I'm afraid to take David into a store with me," she said.

"Giving up David at one time would have been the worst thing that could happen. Now what's happening is worse."

Cohen served as a line officer in the Navy until 1954, then studied for his Divinity Degree at Oberlin Seminary. Before coming to California State College last July, he had served as pastor of Congregational churches in England and in the nearby communities of Whittier and South Pasadena.

Cohen said he had been told by the Los Angles Agency that David would be put up again for adoption.

Soviet resolve condemns S. African apartheid

UNITED NATIONS (UPI)— The Soviet Union proposed this week that measures be recommended to the General Assembly to eliminate racial discrimination "with specific attention to halting apartheid in colonial countries."

The move by Soviet Delegate Evgeny Nikolaevich Nasinovsky came as the U.N. Commission on Human Rights took up for the first time the discussion of South Africa's policy of racial separation.

The debate brought on an immediate barrage of attacks on the colonial policies of South Africa, Portugal and Rhodesia by Soviet bloc delegates in the 21 - nation commission. Poland appealed for strict application of sanctions against South Africa.

THE DEBATE responded to a resolution by the economic and social council, the commission's parent body, that the human rights group take up the issue as an "urgent" measure.

The issue of human rights violation through racial discrimination and segregation, including apartheid, was assigned number two spot on the commission's 13 - point agenda.

Nasinovsky presented a draft resolution in which the human rights group would share the "profound indignation" over apartheid and express its support for its limination as called for in resolutions of the 24 - nation special committee on colonialism and the General Assembly.

$400,000 SALE — Daniel W. Spaulding (left), president of the Spaulding Realty Company, stands outside the new Wayland Baptist Church building at Garrison Blvd. and Fairview Ave. Sale of property through his office representing transaction. With seats Spaulding's biggest Mr. Spaulding is Mrs. Sarah Diggs, Spaulding salesman who is credited with the sale, and the Rev. W. W. Payne, pastor of Wayland. Opening services will be held Sunday morning.

Wayland Baptist to move into $400,000 church Sun.

Wayland Baptist Church, pastored by the Rev. W. W. Payne, will hold the first services in its new $400,000 building tomorrow (Sunday).

The opening service, scheduled for 10:45 a.m. will be preceded by a police - escorted motorcade originating at the old building, Monroe and Franklin Sts.

Open House will be held at the newly - acquired edifice, Garrison Blvd. and Fairview Ave., immediately following 3:30 p.m. services.

The new Wayland Baptist Church and its complex, once the property of a Sfe. brew congregation, contains a 1600 - capacity sanctuary, a school building of 27 classrooms, smaller auditoriums, a completely equipped gymnasium, hotel - type kitchen, and a community center, and is air - conditioned throughout.

• • •

NEGOTIATIONS FOR and sale of the property were handled by Daniel W. Spaulding, real estate broker and president of Spaulding Realty Co.

According to Mr. Spaulding, the building is valued well above the purchase price, thereby warranting total financing by a local lending institution.

"Wayland Baptist will be a center for fellowship and study," the Rev. Mr. Payne said. "We hope to be able to meet the needs of our community.

"We shall try to pay for this building in five years," he added.

Negotiations for the property began last winter and possession was passed to Wayland Baptist on March 1.

• • •

CLEANING, painting and remodeling of the building has been performed mainly by volunteers from the Wayland congregation.

"We needed a new and larger building to take care of our ever - expanding congregation and our increased involvement in community services," the Rev. Payne said.

"We expect this building to meet those needs and do earnestly invite people of all sections to join us in fellowship.

"We are the only Baptist church in this area," he concluded.

Wilkins cites tan press' aid

NEW YORK — The tan press was "a trailblazer in the fight for freedom long before the professions civil rights organizations were established," NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins said in a telegram to Frank L. Stanley, president of the National Newspaper Publishers Association, congratulating the organization on its observance of the 139th anniversary of the founding of the tan press in the U.S.

"Without the foundation laid by the early colored editors and publishers, and without the continuing support of the tan press, the remarkable civil rights gains would have been well nigh impossible," Mr. Wilkins said.

The telegram was dispatched for Founders' Day of the tan Press, March 16, in the midst of "National Negro Newspaper Week."

The NAACP leader expressed the hope that the tan press will "continue in this struggle as long as any American is discriminated against solely because of his race, color, religion or national origin."

States hold home rule lever, Wilkins declares

WASHINGTON —The battle for home rule in the District of Columbia will be won out in the states through pressure exerted upon members of Congress, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP told a meeting called to kick off the District Branch's drive for 25,000 members.

The NAACP leader endorsed the local branch's action in withdrawing from a movement to boycott merchants repeatedly opposed to home rule. If the city is to gain self - rule, the citizens "will have to do some hard work and study ... devise plans and stick to them," he said.

Addressing the rally at Metropolitan Baptist Church here, recently he said it was a mistake to believe that signing up corner merchants would "bring about home rule."

• • •

THAT CHANGE, he said will require action by Congress "which is made up of people from Iowa, Michigan, Oklahoma, Texas, Mississippi and the rest of the states."

He cited the NAACP drive in the states to get local branches to call upon their representatives and senators to support home rule for Washington.
