

WILL TRAVEL OVER B. & O

How The Midshipmen Will Go to Philadelphia to Witness Football Game.

It has been settled that the members of the Naval Academy football team, which will play against the Military Academy eleven at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, on Saturday, December 1, next, will leave Annapolis in the morning of the day previous under charge of Head Coach Paul J. Dashiell.

The team and those accompanying it will make their headquarters at Hotel Walton while in Philadelphia. The brigade of midshipmen, naval officers and others will leave by special train on Saturday morning. It has not yet been determined by what route the main body will go to Philadelphia, but it is probable that the Baltimore and Annapolis Short Line railroad will take the main body of midshipmen and others to Baltimore and from there the Baltimore and Ohio will carry the crowd on to Philadelphia.

The members of the team and of the Naval Academy band will have their transportation paid, but all other will pay the sum of $3.15.
