WHERE'S HIS BENG'S OFFICERS.

We do think that Hagerstown has need of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. We notice some of our country people as they arrive in town, hitch their horses and leave them stand in the broiling sun all day, and in winter in the bitterest weather it is all the same, standing out all day with nothing to eat and no protection. There should be an ordinance against this, and if men have no souls or conscience for the protection of the poor beasts of burden, they should be made to do so by the arm of the law.

Messrs. Editors: I understood taxpayers' communitarian in yesterday morning's paper and proceeded to answer it. I did not understand bookkeepers and therefore did not and could not reply. During my own incumbency books have not been sold by the Board.

Very Respectfully, P. A. WITMER.

VERY LITTLE.—On Sunday evening last we posted some large bills at the customary places which announced an excursion to Greenwood Park on the W. M. R. R. We took pains to place them along by the side of the B. & O. R. R. bill which announced an excursion to Washington, but did not place any over them or deface them in any way whatever, but on Sunday morning we noticed with much regret that one of our bills was completely hid by a B. & O. bill, but this was on a private board, therefore we pass it with this notice only. Another which we had placed on Mr. Seibert's fence was torn in pieces and scattered over the pavement, but the B. & O. bill was not touched. Why was this? Who did it? are the questions we would like answered, but we suppose the person or persons who do so little, mean and contemptible to do such an act will read this and laugh, consoling themselves that this is one of the things that can never be found out. We will remind them that we intend to protect our customers, and if the like is repeated again we will spare no time or means to find them out, when they will be punished and rebuked.

Call at A. Yinging's and see the excellent quality of yard wide 61 cts. J17 21

All Summer Dress Goods, Parasols and Lace Shawls will be closed out at cost at A. Yinging's. J17 21

OLD CREDIT DEAD.—The following obituary we clip from the Cumberland News. It is at once novel and good. It would be well if some of our merchants would try their hand on a funeral of the same kind.

DIED.

At his late residence, Mr. Credit System. Though not greatly respected by most of our citizens, he fell a victim to a disease of 25 years standing. Some two years since his family physician and friends entertained great hopes of his recovery, but owing to circumstances over which he had no control, he received a severe shock, which caused his family and friends to give up all hope of his recovery.—Since that time he has been waiting his final departure to take up his abode with the more blessed. No reflections are cast upon the physicians in attendance as this disease has heretofore baffled the most skillful. The funeral will take place from his late residence, 103 Baltimore street. The family and friends of the deceased join in extending an invitation to the community at large to attend the funeral. The services will be conducted by Rev. R. S. Pay, assisted by Rev. N. Pay. The pall bearers have been selected from his numerous friends, namely: Pay Shortly, Due Bill, Promissory Note, Renewed Promise, Johnny Protest, James Mortgage, Sammy Super-de-due, Jereen's Collapse. Funeral services to commence at Saturday night, July 14, 1877. His former place of business will be reopened by a new and enterprising citizen by the name of CASH, on Monday morning, July 16.

Just received, plain Black French and American Lawns, also plain Black Percales, at Mrs. Heard's.

COOLEY'S CORK CORSET.

A REVOLUTION IN CORSETS

Cork in Lieu of Bone.

Elegant, easy, durable and delightful to the wearer. No more bones breaking! No cutting of Fabric! The public may rely upon Cooley's Cork Corset, as being the very best and most comfortable corset made. It gives a plumpness to the figure, which no other corset can approach. It has been long and favorably known in Europe as the most beautiful corset in use. The aim of the inventor, under the best medical directions, was to produce a corset free from pressure on the lower part of the body, thus preventing physical deformity, which so often paralyzes and restrains the vital organs. The pressure and burden of dresses, as now worn, render it absolutely necessary for ladies, who pay any regard to health, to wear some kind of a corset to relieve this pressure. Ladies will find it to their satisfaction and comfort that Cooley's cork corset is the best adapted for this purpose.
