—Teacher contest

Brooks.

The two teachers will no doubt be thinking of, and planning, their enthusiastic students who made it all possible when they set sail for Bermuda on their luxurious cruise ship next Monday for a week in the sun.

* * *

JUST ON their heels — and the recipient of $150 for third place —Mr. Moody of Collington Square Elementary School 97, ironically, pulled down the same position last year.

The third try is supposed to be luckier, but we won't know about that until next year.

With all three top contenders pulling over a million votes, Mr. Moody checked in at 1,033,300.

Just under the million mark, and the richer by $100 in cash for fourth place, is Mrs. Sylvia Witherspoon of Alexander Elementary School 112.

She jumped from sixth place to fourth with 921,500 votes to run in the big money. Quite a feat, considering that on Friday she had a mere 200,000 votes.

THOUGH THE students of the two top teachers will have the heartfelt thanks of their Favorite Teachers, they are also in line for two bonus prizes from the AFRO.

The homeroom of the first place winner, Mrs. Brooks, will take a fun - filled, all - day sightseeing trip to Washington, D.C. during spring vacation. The trip will also include lunch.

For the homeroom of the second place winner, Mrs. DeLeaver, there is an exciting theatre party in store.

As runners -up in the contest, 10 other lucky teachers will receive gifts of $10 each.

THE TEN runners - up in the order of their finish are:

1. William Ross, Cherry Hill Junior High School 180.
2. Mrs. Dorothy Thomas, Windsor Hills Elementary School 87.
3. Mrs. Ellen Cockrell, Rodman Elementary School 204.
4. M rs. Edna English, Gwynns Falls Park Junior High School 91.
5. Mrs. Edith Mosby, Mosher Elementary School 144.
6. Miss Linda Keys; Calverton Junior High School 75.
7. Miss Maixie Lucas, Gwynns Falls Elementary School 60.
8. David White, Franklin Square Elementary School 95.
9. Miss Pattie Holloway, Rinehart Elementary School 136.
10. Mrs. Elenora Burton, Bentalou Elementary School 150.

Complete tabulations for all teachers will be found on Page 2.

We said it last year and we will say it again:

Heartiest congratulations to all participants for the high esteem in which their students hold them: —as shown by their hard work and support, proving each is a "Favorite Teacher" and a winner.

-Troopers

across the head and a scuffle started. Bottles began flying through the air.

Crisler ordere d the tear gas which broke up the melee.

It was the second incident in which tear gas was used in the last two days.

There was no violence in three marches earlier Tuesday by students protesting the alleged firing of teachers and dismissal of students at Alcorn for participating in civil rights activities. But colored youths had scuffled wth police and thrown bricks and rocks at officers Monday before troopers used tear gas to clear a dormitory.

The largest March Tuesday was turned back at the campus gates by troopers enforcing a Chancery Court order forbidding demonstrations on the campus. The marchers gathered at a nearby store and sang songs.

EARLIER, TWO other marches were halted at the gates without incident and troopers chased about 50 colored youths across the campus after they had taunted and jeered the police.

The argest March Tues-t Colored leader Charles Evers, organizer of the protests, conferred Tuesday in Jackson with the State College Board, which, he said, had asked him to present a formal list of complaints against Alcorn President J. D. Boyd.

Students have complained that Boyd, does not pay laundry and cafeteria employees enough, that he imposed too strict a curfew on coeds and arbitrarily sends students home for minor rules infractions.

Evers, Mississippi field secretary for the NAACP has emphasized that his campaign is for "human rights" rather than civil rights.

Evers told newsmen Tuesday night the college board had asked for a "breathing spell" until Friday to give them an opportunity to study the complaints. "They promised to do everything they can to give us a reasonable and satisfactory answer," he said.

-Judge blasts

had found Mr. Groupp guilty. At that time the jurist fined him and declared him a "disgrace to the city of Baltimore."

Judge Byrnes closely questioned Mr. Groupo on his property at the Wednesday hearing.

At the previous hearings before Judge Byrnes earlier this year, Mr. Groupp testified he had gotten rid of most of his property that at one time totaled more than 100 dwellings.

He repeated the statement Wednesday to say that he now owns no property.

Asked by Judge Byrnes how long the West and Hamburg St. properties had been vacant and in disrepair, he reoiied, "Five years."

Judge Byrnes then asked how much money had been collected on the property over the nine years previous when it was rented.

Mr. Groupp said it had been owned by the corporation 17 years.

ALSO found guilty on five counts of failure to keep property in repair was Franklin Davis Fulton, 68, 2000 block Maryland Ave.

A fine of $500 and costs was suspended by Judge Byrnes who gave Mr. Fulton 60 days to make the repairs "or you will be brought back in court."

William H. Kane, 3000 block Wabash Ave., was found guilty of housing violations on his property in the 1800 block N. Caroline St.

Judge Byrnes levied fines of $50 without costs.

The court was informed by his attorney, Philip Goodman that the property of the Post Office employee is to be sold at auction in two days.

He told the court, "He became hopelessly involved in mortgages and all his property is wiped out."

Herman Block was before the court for charged violations at the 600 block W. Saratoga St. property.

However, the indictment for the February 1965 offenses was dated "February, 1966" and was dismissed as faulty by the court.

'Too much feeling' halts court trial

On Sept. 11, 1965, an early morning street fight among some 40 to 50 persons ended in a near - riot with one of the participants stabbed to death; a teen-aged girl shot through the thigh; a police officer barely escaping serious injury on death and other persons injured.

Jerry M. Carmichael, 18, 2200 block Etting St. was found guilty this week of manslaughter in the fatal stabbing of Frederick Chandler, 27, 2200 block Eutaw Pl.

Judge James Perrott withheld sentence pending the outcome of other cases growing out of the same incident.

During the hearing Wednesday for Clarence T. Burton, 23, 2000 block Eutaw Pl., was in progress testimony was halted.

Upon learning that witnesses had discussed the case among themselves, against instructions from Judge Perrott, Solomon Baylor, defense attorney, moved for a mistrial.

Edward Angeletti, prosecutor, seconded the motion "The defense attorney's one last desperate move."

A heated exchange between the prosecutor and defense lawyer ensued.

JUDGE PERROTT summoned Joseph Howard, chief of the Trial Division, to sit at the trial table and observe.

Mr. Baylor's motion was upheld.

In granting the motion, thus ending the attorny hearing, Judge Perrott declared:

"There is apparently too much feeling in this case. Another date for an entirely new trial will have to be arranged."

Mackey opens first shop in Cherry Hill

John Mackey, all - pro tight end for the Baltimore Colts, has announced the opening of the first of his chain of carry out shops in the Baltimore area.

The Number One shop opened in the Cherry Hill Shopping Center Monday.

Each shop will carry the name John Mackey's and will be richly appointed and feature a football atmosphere. A few of the featured items will be Golden Bird fried chicken, bar-be-cue spare ribs, the Mighty Mack, the 88 and many other sandwich creations.

The second location will soon open on Dundalk Avenue and Liberty Parkway. Many other future sites are on the drawing board for the Baltimore area.

The John Mackey's will be owned and operated by J. T. S. Food Inc., of which John is a major stockholder, along with Tom Feldman and Stanley Kason who will manage the business.

Says property not in Adams' estate

Referring to the story of the will of Dr. George G. Adams, published, Tuesday, Dr. Uthman Ray advised the AFRO that Dr. Adams did not own the property at 2225 W. North Avenue at the time of his death.

Dr. Ray's offices are located in the building, which he says he purchased from Dr. Adams after the will was made and prior to his death.

Walter Miles wins fellowship

Walter M. Miles, now studying in Germany, is one of 92 students who will enter graduate school this fall as reinstated Woodrow Wilson Fellows.

Mr. Miles, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. James Luther Nichols, 2419 E. Biddle St., is a graduate of Loyola College. He postponed the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship last year to accept the Fulbright grant to the University of Marburg, Germany for one year.

The Woodrow Wilson scholar is an English major studying the life of Goethe, the drama of Schiller, the German philosophy of idealism, and the German language.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, supported by funds from the Ford Foundation, supports potential college teachers through awards to more than 1,000 first - year graduate fellowships annually.

James Davis

James Davis, 53, 1502 Pressiman St., World War II veteran, and winner of the Good Conduct Medal, the American Theatre Service Medal, the African Middle Eastern Service Ribbon and the World War II Victory Ribbon, was buried Tuesday in Baltimore National Cemetery.

Services were held at the Hayes Funeral Home.

Mr. Davis was a member of the Church of God. He was employed as a baker in Washington.

A native of Winnsboro, S.C., his parents were the Rev. Benjamin and Mrs. Roseanna Davis.

His wife, Mrs. Carrie Davis, died in 1957, and an only child, James Davis, Jr., died in 1951.

Mr. Davis is survived by two brothers, Elmore Davis, Baltimore; and Luke Davis, Chapel Hill, N.C.; three sisters, Mrs. Frances Feaster and Mrs. Elizabeth Pierce, both of Baltimore; and Mrs. Mary Benton, Arlington, Va.; and four grandchildren.

CHRYSLER DIVISION CHRYSLER MOTORS CORPORATION
If you've never compared the price of a Chrysler with smaller cars...you're short-changing yourself.
Why should you pay almost the price of a Chrysler and end up driving a smaller, less comfortable, less exciting, less warranted car?
Why indeed?
Especially when five Chrysler Newport models, now available in our new Bronze color, are priced just a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars, comparably equipped.
And "comparably equipped" means a 383 cu. in. V-8, automatic transmission, power brakes, power steering, radio, whitewalls — and such safety features as seat belts, padded dash and sun visors, back-up lights, safety-action door handles, Safety-Rim wheels, and the biggest brakes in the medium-price field.
And to make a good deal even better, we add Chrysler's exclusive 5-year/50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty.*
Move up to Chrysler . . . move now.
CHRYSLER'S 5-YEAR/50,000-MILE WARRANTY WITH THIS COVERAGE: Chrysler Corporation warrants, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, against defects in materials and workmanship and will replace or repair at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business, without charge for required parts and labor, the engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual shafts), torque converter, drive shaft, rear axle assembly (excluding wheel bearings), and all other parts of its 1966 automobile, provided the owner has the engine oil changed every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first, the oil filter replaced every second oil change and the carburetor air filter cleaned every 6 months and replaced every 2 years, and every 6 months furnishes to such a dealer evidence of performance of the required services, and requests the dealer to certify (1) receipt of such evidence and (2) the car's then current mileage.
