'She lived a happy and jolly life . . .'

"She lived a happy and jolly life, she always had a smile on her face and a pleasant word for everyone with whom she came in contact."

Relatives were speaking of Mrs. Harriett V. Washington Moss, 22, 2915 Dupont Ave., who died last Monday. She had a heart ailment.

Funeral services were held Friday at St. John's AME Church, where she was a member.

Burial was in Baltimore National Cemetery.

• • •

Mr. Jones is survived by his wife, Mrs Louise Jones; two sons, Oliver S. and Cedric A. Jones; three daughters, Debra D., Avis G. and Nutley M. Jones, all of Baltimore; and four brothers and five sisters, all of Whaleyville.

Mahalia Jackson at Civic Center April 18

Mahalia Jackson, whose powerful voice and extraordinary musical talents are voted exclusively to "making a joyful noise for the Lord" will appear at the Baltimore Civic Center for one night only on Monday, April 18.

The remarkable Mahalia Jackson, whose position as keeper of sacred music is affirmed by critical and popular acclaim all over the world, regards her talent as a gift of the Lord and her life mission to spread his word by song.

That she absolutely mesmerizes her audiences is a fact. Wherever Mahalia Jackson sings — Carnegie Hall, Berlin, Tel Aviv or in her own church — the occasion is marked by a profoundly emotional response from the audience.

Churches set service today

Seven East Baltimore churches will climax Holy Week today (Good Friday), with services from 12 noon to 3 p.m. at Waters AME Church, Alsquith St. near Orleans.

The churches, one Presbyterian, two AME and four Methodists, have united in services each evening since Monday.

Bible breakfast

A Bible breakfast and world pageant will be held Easter Monday morning, April 11, from 9 to 11, at Wayland Baptist Church, 3200 Garrison Blvd., under the auspices of Mrs. W. J. Winston.

Levi Lemons

St., was buried Tuesday Mt Calvary Cemetery.

Funeral services were held at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church.

Mr. Lemons, who died Friday, was employed at the Hat Tractor and Co. for more than 10 years as a truck driver and later a shipping clerk.

He was born in Baltimore. His parents were Webb and Marie Adams Lemons.

Mrs. Holt is survived by a son, Joshua Dorsey; two brothers, Thomas Dorsey, Baltimore; and Howard Dorsey, Howard County, and five sisters Mrs. Lillian Stockett, Mrs. Emily Barnes, Mrs. Zelda Connall and Misses Hattie and Annie Dorsey, all of Baltimore.

Taste of college for prep students

High School students will receive a taste of college life in a new lecture series on the novel, it was announced Thursday by the Baltimore public schools and The Johns Hopkins University.

The five - week lecture series on selected novels will be made available to 1,200 students from the public and parochial schools in the city and Baltimore and Anne Arundel counties.

Beginning April 28, and to be held on succeeding Thursday afternoons at 3:30 in the college's Shriver Hall, the lectures will be given by Hopkins professors on the different aspects of four novels selected for the series.

The novels included are "The Old Man and the Sea," by Ernest Hemingway; "Crime and Punishment," by Fyodor Dostoyevsky; "The Assistant," by Bernard Malamud and "The Great Gatsby," by F. Scott Fitzgerald.

• • •

ACCORDING TO School Superintendent Laurence G. Paquin, 50 tickets will be given to each high school and students can obtain them free from their English teachers on a first come, first served basis.

About 650 juniors and seniors in the public high schools are expected to participate.

Citing the expected "stimulation" to be gained by the high school students in the college atmosphere, the project was announced jointly by Dr Paquin, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, Hopkins president, and Eli Frank Jr., school board president.

They expressed the hope that this would be the first in a number of such ventures, including a series in the future on science.

• • •

DR. PAQUIN said the schools, with funds from the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, would give copies of each of the four novels to the students participating as the start of their own "personal library."

He said transportation would be provided if it appeared necessary.

The five lecturers, all authorities in their fields, will be English professors Jackson I. Cope, Earl R. Wasserman and Edgar Dryden and Professor of Romance Languages Rene N. Girard.

William Keene

William Raymond Keene, 76, 1615 E. Biddle St., died unexpectedly on Friday at home.

He was a grand nephew of Harriet Tubman, (1822-1913), the Maryland - born slave who was famed as a conductor on the Underground Railroad.

Funeral services for Mr. Keene were held Tuesday noon at the Collick Funeral Home.

The Rev. W. B. Nash, AME Church presiding elder; and Bishop Monroe Saunders of the United Apostolic Church, officiated. Burial was in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

• • •

BORN April 7, 1890, Mr. Keene was the oldest of nine children of John Lake and Georgianna Tubman Keene of Cambridge, Md.

As a direct descendant of Harriet Tubman he and members of his family participated in the launching of a Liberty ship named for her during World War 2.

The family still maintains its Baltimore home at 830 N. Bond St., which they have occupied for 46 years.

Until his retirement ten years ago, Mr. Keene was an aide to several physicians, including the late Dr. Hugh H. Young, famed Hopkins urologist for whom he worked 27 years; and Dr. Charles Iliss and Dr. Frank B. Walsh.

• • •

SURVIVORS are his wife, Mrs. Carrie Dennis Keene, whome he married 42 years ago; two daughters, Miss Betty Keene, a Los Angeles teacher; and Mrs. Virginia Lloyd, a Detroit teacher.

Also, four brothers, Elmer, Frederick, Louis and Mrs. Marie Stewart and Mrs. Charles Keene; two sisters, Joe.

There are also two grandchildren, Kenneth and Kevin of Detroit. B. M. MOSS

EASTER Tributes

STOKLEY — An Easter Tribute to the memory of my dear wife and our mother, VASHTI M., who passed away November 4, 1962.

This Easter brings back memories
Of wonderful times we knew,
A family day together
For then dear, MOM, we had you.
And all these recollections
If the happy days now gone,
Bring heartaches and a longing
As Easter morning dawns.
HUSBAND—JAMES
SONS—RONALD M.
TYRONE J. GENE M. and
REGINALD M. STOKLEY

SYDNOR — An Easter Tribute in loving memory of our husband and father, REV. AUSTIN SYDNOR, who passed away June 7, 1965:

"UNSPOKEN"
Sometimes along the way of life
I'd hurry thru the day
And often miss the sweet things
I'd really meant to say.
Those little words of tenderness
I felt deep in my heart
But though I cannot tell you
You'll always be a part
Of every loving thought I have
Today and all the year
Because in words unspoken
I love you Husband, dear.
Loving Wife—AILEEN B. SYDNOR
Children—REBECCA ANNE, AUSTIN L. JR., WILLIAM and SAMUEL

WALKER — An Easter Tribute to the memory of my dear husband, DENNIS WALKER who passed away August 29, 1965:

"UNSPOKEN"
Sometimes along the way of life
I'd hurry thru the day
And often miss the sweet things
I'd really meant to say.
Those little words of tenderness
I felt deep in my heart,
But though I cannot tell you
You'll always be a part
Of every loving thought I have
Today and all the year,
Because in words unspoken
I love you Husband, dear.
Loving Wife—LOUISE

WALLACE — An Easter Tribute in loving memory of my mother, ISABELLE, who passed away November 3, 1964:

"OUR EASTER MEMORY"
Dear Mother, you were the light of our life.
Always happy and gay,
God knows how much we miss you
On this blessed Easter Day.
LOVING DAUGHTER—THELMA

WALTON — An Easter Tribute to the memory of my dear husband, ROBERT GILMORE WALTON, who passed away June 4, 1962:

No matter how many Easters
Come and we're still apart,
I still have that faith, my love one,
We're still in each other's heart.
So as ever on Easter morning
I'll say 'Happy Easter', dear,
And pretend we never parted
For your presence I'll feel very near.
Loving Wife—THELMA WALTON

WATERS — An Easter Tribute to the memory of REV. WILBUR R. WATERS former Pastor of Emmanuel C. C. Church:

'Tis one thing that deeds you wrought have brought success, and given man his due.
It is another when a master's hand has builded better than he knew;
You built so that success did crown, our efforts as you guided deed or act.
But to lay plans that others, coming on might shape fancy into fact, is better still
Praise unmeasured unto masters of this class is due.
And on your tomb might read: A Man who builded better than he knew.
EMMANUEL CHURCH FAMILY
Loving Wife — VIRGINIA

WATFORD — An Easter Tribute in loving memory of my husband, THEODORE R., who passed away November 15, 1965:

And pretend we never had parted.
For your presence I'll feel very near.
MOTHER and FAMILY

WILLIAMS — An Easter Tribute in memory of my daughter, CHARLOTTE who passed away October 21, 1963:

Easter brings sad memories
Of my dear daughter who has gone to rest
She will never be forgotten
By the ones who loved her best,
Though her smile is gone forever,
And her sweet face I cannot touch,
I shall never lose sweet memories
Of my dear daughter I loved so much.
HER MOTHER—GRACE A. WILLIAMS

WILLIAMS — An Easter Tribute in the memory of my parents and grandparents, SAMUEL, who passed away November 26, 1950 and AGNES, who passed October 3, 1955:

"OUR EASTER MESSAGE"
