Noted tan artists lead MSC activities

Two noted artists, one the head of one art department at the Maryland State College, Jimmy Mosely, and James D. Parks, head of the art department at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo. are leaders in the annual Maryland State art activities.

Mr. Mosely and eight of his students have works display at the 25th Annual Exhibition of Painting Sculpture and Prints by Negro Artists a Atlanta University, April through May 1.

The students whose works are represented at the annua show are: Agatha Blair, Ethel Cevis, Otonia Colna, Bruce Davis, George Knight, Gregory Smith, George trotter and Gregory Williams.

Last year Mr. Mosely won first prize in watercolors at the Atlanta exhibition for "Protest." Recently he was awarded the blue ribbon for a water color, "Migration, No. 1" at the 13th Annual Art show of the Wiconisco Art League.

Mr. Parks spoke at Maryand State at the Art Education Department's assembly racing the history of colored art and encouraged young artists to seek careers in the field.

Musical selections at the assembly were offered by Joyce Laney, soprano, and Alonzo Price, baritone. Miss Bernice Bolden, speaking for the art department discussed purpose and techniques.

A DANCE concert given by the Judimar of Philadelphia company presented the Concert Tri-Choreum on the MSC campus recently.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Marion Cuyjet, dancer, teacher and director of Judimar and featured three separate dance companies.

The well-received performance included the Judimar School (classic), the Terez Nelson Company (modern) and the Iyong Nash Company (ethnic-primitive).

Morgan's arts confab set to open Monday

Ulysse Kay, gifted composer and conductor, will be among the persons appearing on the Morgan campus, April 25-29, during the conference on "The Arts and Society."

Mr. Kay, whose best known film score is "The Quiet One," has written operas and a variety of works for orchestra, band, chorus and individual instruments.

His works will be performed by the Morgan Choir, directed by Joseph Eubanks, and the symphonic band, conducted by Dr. R. Hayes Strider. It will highlight the conference concert 8 p.m. Wednesday in Murphy Auditorium.

John Sweeney will be at the organ.

Mr. Kay will also speak at the college Convocation, 11 a.m. Monday, in Murphy Auditorium.

He will speak on "The Composer Looks at Music in Society" and give an illustrated lecture on "The Composer at Work." 1 p.m. Tuesday

Other participants are:

Paul F. Keene, whose paintings and drawings will be exhibited in the Art Gallery in Murphy Fine Arts Center, Sunday through May 15.

Mr. Keene will give gallery talks on "A Painter and Society," 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., Friday.

Allan Morrison, editorial bureau chief Johnson Publishing Co. will be the conference dinner speaker, 7:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Memorial Refectory.

* * *

JAMES W. ROUSE, whose company has financed $750 million real estate development in Baltimore and other cities, will lecture on "The Arithmetic of Beauty," 10 a.m., Thursday, in the Student Union.

Kenneth Resnick, independent film director-producer, will participate in the illustrated lecture-discussion 1-3 p.m., Thursday, in Holmes Hall.

A symposium on "The Arts in a Democratic Society," 10 a.m., Wednesday, in Holmes Hall, Room 100, will feature Ray E. Robinson, dean of instruction, Peabody Conservatory; John Stoneham, head librarian, Maryland Institute; and Drs. Ulysses Lee and Philip Butcher of Morgan.

Dr. Haywood Harrison is chairman of the conference which is under the auspices of the Division of Humanities.

Store wanted at 1039 Carey

An appeal to operate a confectionery store and shoe shine parlor on the first floor at 1039 N. Carey St. will be heard by the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals on Tuesday.

Also among the cases scheduled, beginning at 1 p.m. in Room 231, City Hall, are these appeals at the following locations:

528 N. Stricker St. —use first floor front as beauty shop, and at 2801 Springhill Ave. — to house five families.

Group cancels teen sex talks

The Myrtlette Block Improvement Association has announced that the last two lectures in its three - part series of talks for teenagers on sex have been cancelled.

The talks were to have been held on successive Sunday evenings, April 24 and May 1, at the Wayside Baptist Church, 1410 Pennsylvania Ave.

A spokesman said the cancellations were due to scheduling difficulties and did not stem from any adverse reaction by the community to the talks.

APRIL 26

"A Dancer's World" and "Watching Ballet;" films will be shown in the Wheeler Auditorium at 2 p.m. Admission is free.

APRIL 27

An organizational meeting with the aim of forming a committee to combat police brutality will be held at 8:30 p.m. at 112 N. Greene St. All interested persons are asked to be prompt. Sponsored by the Baltimore Committee to End the War in Vietnam.

18 from Baltimore at ADA convention

Herman E. Weatherbee, chairman of the Baltimore Chapter of the Americans for Democratic Action, led a delegation of 18 Baltimoreans to Atlantic City, N.J. (Friday), where they will represent Maryland at the 19th annual ADA national convention being held at the Shoreham Hotel.

Dr. Harry Bard, president of the Baltimore Junior College, on invitation of Congressman Don Edwards, national ADA chairman, is serving as a consultant to the study commission on state and local government.

During the three days of the convention, delegates will prepare positions papers on such topics as Viet Nam and Southeast Asia, disarmament, civil rights, election financing and the guaranteed minimum family income.

* * *

Highlighting the Convention will be speeches by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and former Ambassador John Kenneth Galbraith.

Both men are active ADA members and take sharply opposite points of view concerning this country's role in Viet Nam.

Other delegates representing Maryland include:

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hollander Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hollander Jr., Mrs. Henry Waskow, Howard Murphy, Mrs. Margaret Neustadt, Dennis Colbert, Mrs. Harry Goldman, Linwood Koger Miss Una Corbett, Mrs. Ida Swanson, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Furstenberg, Edward Holmgren and Eugene Feinblatt.

BROOKS — A tribute of love to the memory of our beloved mother, MARY C., who passed away April 22, 1947; our father, WILLIAM BROOKS, our sisters HESTER and MARGURITE BROOKS:
Remember above this troubled sea
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our family rests in Heavenly peace,
God grant some day we'll meet them there.
DEVOTED FAMILY,
MARY TANCEY,
HELEN HOLLOWAY,
ALICE BOWEN
and HARRY BROOKS

BOOKER — In loving memory of our mother and sister-in-law, SARAH E., who passed away April 23, 1964:
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes
For all of us you did your best,
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
MR. and MRS. WILLIAMS C. THOMAS

BRYANT — In memory of our dear father, LEROY VINCENT BRYANT, JR., who passed away April 23, 1964:
You are not forgotten loved one,
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we miss you more;
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.
MOTHER and FATHER
SISTERS and BROTHERS and OTHER RELATIVES

BRYANT — In loving memory of our dear sister, SADIE L., who departed this life, April 27, 1959:
Seven years ago you left us,
And still we miss you so,
Hoping some day to meet you,
When parting will be no more.
THE BRYANT FAMILY

BUTLER — In loving memory of my wife, EDNA JATTERSON BUTLER, who passed away April 22, 1962:
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own.
And day by day I miss him more,
As I walk through life alone.
WIFE — EDNA BUTLER
REV. LEROY BUTLER
THE FAMILY

BUTLER — In loving memory of our mother, ROSIE BUTLER, who passed away April 24, 1961:
A wonderful mother, women and aid,
One who was better God never made,
A wonderful worker so loyal and true;
One in a million — that, mother, was you.
Just in your judgement, always right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
Wonderful mother — that, mother, was you.
LOVING CHILDREN —
WILLIAM FOWLER,
ROSA P. BRIGHT

CORNISH — In loving memory of my husband and our father, RAMPTON WESLEY, who passed away April 26, 1955:
Broken in the family circle,
Our dear one has passed away;
Passed from earth and earthly care,
Into bright and perfect day.
But we must all cease to languish
O'er the grave of him we love,
Strive to be prepared to meet him
In the bright celestial grove.
WIFE, CHILDREN

DAVIS — In loving memory of my dear mother, ROSEY B., who passed away April 23, 1964:
When I remember all you've done,
To guide my footsteps right
And all the loving ways in which
You made my childhood bright,
The best blessing that I ever knew
Was God's blessing of a mother
Mom, as wonderful as you.
LOVING DAUGHTER,
LORAINE and FAMILY

DOWNS — In loving memory of my dear husband and my father, HOWARD DOWNS, who passed away April 26, 1964:
If we had seen you in the last
And held your dying hand,
Your heart would have told your heart
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had
We did not see you die,
We only know you went far away,
And never said bye bye.
WIFE — CLARA DOWNS
DAUGHTER: DOLORES HENRY

DOUGLAS — In loving memory of our dear husband, REV. PHILLIP D. DOUGLAS, who passed away April 19, 1962:
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own.
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.
WIFE — SARAH E. DOUGLAS and FAMILY

FISHER — In memory of our loved one, EUGENE, who passed away one year ago, April 25, 1965:
Age is from our household gone,
A voice we loved
is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten,
Though on earth
you are no more,
But in memory
you are with us
As you always were before.
