Gadabouting In Baltimore

Sandra Koger now Mrs. Ralph Davis

With Lula Jones Garrett

Brides seem to grow lovelier each day . . . and Sandra Mai Koger was quite the loveliest when she exchanged vows with Ralph Frederic Davis in the Morgan College Christian Center, here, Saturday afternoon.

She wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta with lace bodice. Lace appliques drifted down the front of the skirt from waist to chapel train. She wore a hem and enhanced the chapel train. She wore a bouffant veil and carried a cascade of roses.

Miss Koger was given in marriage by her father, A. Briscoe Koger and attended by Mrs. Harold R. Holloway of Oakland, Calif. Mrs. Holloway is the former Marjorie Alexander, and she and the bride have been inseparatable friends since they were babies, here in Baltimore. Sandra was Marjorie's maid of honor when the latter was married last year.

For the wedding Mrs. Holloway wore a gown of coral chiffon and carried a cascade of green pom pom mums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Eva Marie Lassiter of Baltimore, cousin of the bride; and Mrs. John Nelson of Hollis, N.Y. Their gowns were of avocado green chiffon and they carried nosegays of green and coral pom pom mums.

Herman R. Lee, Jr. of Bloomfield, Conn. was best man. Ushers were James Turner of Marlborough, Conn. and Walter J. Hutchins of Philadelphia, Pa.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Koger wore turquoise crepe sheath which featured a chiffon panel from the low-cut panel in the hem. Her accessories matched and her corsage was of cymbinium orchids. The aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Hurley Rice of Montclair, N.J., wore pink lace with matching accessories, a white hat, and a corsage of the orchids.

The new Mrs. Davis is a graduate of Northfield, was graduated cum laude from Vassar College and has done graduate study at the University of California and San Francisco State College. She has been teaching in California, and beginning in September will teach in Hartford, Conn.

Mr. Davis is an alumnus of Trinity College with a master of arts degree in social work from the University of Connecticut. He is chief of the Family Relations of the Circuit Court of Hartford.

DATE DATA: Come next week end, Lambda Kappa Mu sorors will be off for Flint, Mich. and the Northwestern conference of the sorority. Among the features they look forward to is the luncheon, saluting women in education, who will include Mrs. Odell Broadway, Mrs. Ruth Buckner, Mrs. Mildred Smith, Mrs. Ruth Venzandt and Mrs. Josephine McDougall.

Incidentally, the final deadline for filing applications for the Florence K. Norman Scholarship awards will be April 30. These scholarships are awarded annually to young women pursuing business and professional careers. The scholarships range from one to four years.

An ebening for poetry lovers to look forward to will be that of informal reading of and listening to the works of Kahlil Gibran, best known for his book "The Prophet" at Fellowship House on May 15 at 5 p.m. This will be open to the public and is being sponsored by Mary Carter Smith, Linwood Brown and Sedonia Merritt, sponsors; and Ruth Fegley, executive director of Fellowship.

On next Wednesday evening Coppin State College Alumni will honor Mrs. Grace Hill Jacobs, dean at a banquet at One West. Dinner will be at 7 p.m.

This Friday evening Alpha Kappa Alphas and the Silhouettes will both be having formal dances.

Saturday, Tau Gamma Delta will hold a regional conference, here. Sessions will be in the Stafford Hotel.

Miss Patricia Payne will be honoree at a debutante reception when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Payne entertain at the Me-De-So Club.

MRS. James W. (Jessie) Valentine sent out bids a couple of weeks back to friends inviting them to a reception in the Forest Manor honoring "a devoted and loving aunt" . . . and 140 guests came to greet and shower with gifts that aunt, 84 - year - old Mrs. Mollie Bowen.

. . . and no one had more fun at the affair than the honoree. She was a doll that night in her sheer print of green and blue, a tiara adorning her head, and orchids at her shoulder.

Mrs. Valentine explained that Mrs. Bowen has nursed and aided four generations. She has found time to give help to the sick and blind, and is a distinguished church woman.

Mrs. Bowen is a charter member of the Emanuel Christian Church. Her grandfather was one of the founders of Gillis Memorial Church. Mrs. Bowen is currently president of the Gold Leaf Club of Gillis Memorial, which she also founded.

Mrs. Bowen has been a widow for 30 years. Her husband was the late Joseph Bowen of this city.

She is not only known as "Aunt Molly" by her three nieces and 10 grandnieces and grand nephews, but by scores of West Baltimoreans ho have omcelvtt. oo her who have come to love her.

THE SILHOUETTES (Auxiliary to Kappa Alpha Psi) had fun, Saturday. They had set up a gala program to entertain visiting wives to the fraternity's provincial conference being held here.

Though many of the visitors hadn't arrived when the first affair was scheduled, those chicly frocked local girls betook themselves to La Ronda, Holiday Inn, Downtown, for the pleased cocktail - and - luncheon affair, then to the John Holiday Room for cards.

Bernice Brown, Juanita Harris, Bernice Nickens, Maxine Richardson, Jean Williamson and Loretta James of Norfolk, Va. garnered the prizes.

Other playing were Mesdames Doris Tarter, who was chairman for the entertainment of the ladies; Hilda Wallace, Bernice Nickens, Carolyn Chissell, Lelia Ray

Hints for Homemakers

INEZ KAISER

"Oh, how I hate to get up in the morning . . ." is a standard phrase for most of us. However, while some of the "younger set" were in visiting during Easter vacation, I learned a new dimension in speech as I listened to them "talk."

One of the young men had forgotten his toothpaste, and my son offered our STRIPE. Not being familiar with the product or overjoyed with the "unnecessary" task of toothbrushing, he preferred to bypass this part of the morning's activities. But after some coaxing, he went ahead, and upon finishing his comment was, "This STRIPE is all right, and out of sight!"

Strange terminology, I must admit, but a good way to describe the fresh, minty taste, extra cleaning power and eye appeal of STRIPE. In fact, in a survey of hundreds of parents, 79% of the mothers who used STRIPE reported their children not only were more willing to brush their teeth with STRIPE, but also brushed more often.

Although it may not enlarge your vocabulary or get you a key ring from the "Jet Set," STRIPE can make brushing more fun for your family, too.

I'll bet you were the grandest lady in the Easter Parade . . . shining outfit, chic hat and a crisp white gloves. But did you know you could be the "grandest lady" every day, even while facing dreaded household chores like dishwashing?

With new DOVE-FOR-DISHES, the completely new kind of dishwashing liquid that makes washing dishes more pleasurable, you can. New DOVE-FOR-DISHES brings that famous DOVE mildness right into your kitchen.

Although you cannot see it fly through your window, you will be able to tell the difference when you look at your hands. Those once rough, unsightly hands will be soft and smooth.

Every drop of new DOVE-FOR-DISHES has a skin-lotion ingredient built right in. New DOVE is not only kind to your hands but also kind to your dishes . . . gets them sparkling-clean. In fact, DOVE-FOR-DISHES cleans so beautifully and keeps hands so safe that Lever Brothers unconditionally guarantees your satisfaction.

So go ahead . . . start you a daily parade, boast about how you can be the grandest lady . . . chic and charming . . . with floved or "unscarred" hands.

"A good beginning always leads to a good ending . . ." great advice for the bride-to-be. The most important phase of your new life will be preparing tasty, flavorful meals, and to do this, you will need help.

Rushing to your rescue is IMPERIAL margarine, the margarine that has "triumphant" flavor. But there's even more to IMPERIAL that flavor. This delicious margarine gives you corn oil, too. Yes, IMPERIAL margarine has the polyunsaturated goodness of pure corn oil added to other vegetable oils.

If the new groom likes good things to eat, you can rest assured you will make a hit when you try IMPERIAL. I'll bet he'll like dessert . . . try IMPERIAL for all your cakes and pies; or maybe he'll be a bread eater . . . it goes real great on bread, rolls or muffins; and just watch what he does to a steaming stack of pancakes served with IMPERIAL. Ideal for vegetables, too.

Get a head start on your marriage. Go to your grocer and get the package with the crown on it . . . IMPERIAL margarine. You will be making the right start toward a "triumphant" marriage . . . thanks to Lever Bros.

"More than the greatest thrill the world has known" will be yours when you try new Advanced "all." "all" is the detergent with new brighteners, new whiteners and new cleaning power.

This is great news for all homemakers . . . what with summer coming, bringing its share of mud pies from the baby, outdoor frolicking from the girls, roughnecking from the boys, and do-it-yourself projects from Dad.

Nights will be getting shorter and "washdays" longer, unless, of course, you take a tip and try "all." Advanced "all" outcleans the leading white detergent, outcleans the leading blue detergent . . . in fact, "all" outcleans them all!

Kids will be more relaxed because you will not mind their playing, and Dad can get just as dirty as he pleases in the yard. You will have a carefree attitude about washing because "all's" famous controlled low suds protect your washer as well as your wash.

So just put new Advanced "all" on your shopping list, then put "all" in your washer and enjoy the results. Once this is done, your washday recovery will have you humming happily, too.
