Gadabouting in Baltimore

Pot-Pourri of items enliven calendar

The Baltimore chapter of Girl Friends have an early start on their Christmas Cotillion, with the date having been set for Dec. 29th at a call meeting with Agnes Patterson on Wednesday.

Plans were announced at the regular meeting hosted by Theta Wilson on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Wilson, Fr. (Donald O.) Wilson and their trio of daughters provided a most delightful dinner session for the group at their Hilton Ave. home . . . with the host tucked into an apron upon which was imprinted "Anything you can do I can do better" . . . and I do believe he meant it! At any rate he was sharing the kitchen chores and the most delicious food was coming therefrom.

Immediate plans of the Girl Friends include the national conclave in Richmond within the month, and a club party during this spring.

Attending the session, Saturday, were Georgeanna Chester, who heads the chapter; Gwendolyn Lewis, Vera Williams, Laura Jones, Bernice Chatman, Catherine Law, Olga Parker.

Also Mae Parrott, Lula Mackay, Elma Robinson, Gaynell Spaulding, Elizabeth Stewart, Frances Vessells, Anita Wheatley, Doris Wheeler, and the hostess.
