THE WEDDING of Miss Patricia Young and Leroy Aquilla took place in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Saturday afternoon.

MISS PAZ WINGFIELD were married, recently in St. Edward's Roman Catholic Church, Baltimore. and James E. Jackson were married, recently in St. Edward's Roman Catholic Church, Baltimore.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES O. McNEILL, JR. were married in Baltimore, recently. Mrs. McNeill is the former Jean L. Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Foster.

Jackson-Wingfield wedding rite held

St. Edward's Roman Catholic Church was the setting on Saturday for the wedding of Miss Paz Wingfield and James EE. Jackson.

The Rev. Edward T. Hill officiated at the high nuptial mass; Joseph Neal was organist.

• • •

MISS WINGFIELD is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm Wingfield of Brooklyn Heights. She designed her own veil, which was appliqued with white rose petals and rhemoroidered with irredescent sequins and seed pearls. The design was executed by Mrs. Dorothy Shaw. She carried a cascade of white roses.

• • •

MISS JUSTINE JOHNSON her cousin, was maid of honor. Other attendants were Miss Edna Jackson, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Clarisa Johnson, also a cousin; Miss Cecelia McDaniels and Miss Audrey Robinson. N.Y. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Either Taylor and the late Rev. John H. Taylor, founder of Mt. Sinai Church of this city. A Morgan State College graduate, she is a teacher in the public schools of this city.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Chisholm Wingfield. She wore a gown of white silk peau de sole with a chapel train. The bodice, sleeves and skirt were decorated in seed pearls and sequins.

• • •

THE BRIDESMAIDS wore pink A-line gowns with matchinz scalloped laced jackets. On their heads they wore pink bouffant veils They carried bouquets of green mums.

The maid-of-honor wore a green bell sleeved A - line gown with a green scalloped laced jacket. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and on her head she also wore a green bouffant veil.

The flower girls were Danease Turner, cousin of the bride, and Cheryl Moore, the bride's godchild. They wore pink taffeta and organza dresse with matching green belts and pink and green pom poms in their heads. They carried baskets of rose petals.

Best man was Andrew Jackson, brother of the bridegroom. The ushers were Robert Johnson, Rodney Johnson, both cousins of the bride, and John McCaskill, and Bernard Hill. The men were attired in formal cutaways and had boutoniers in their lapels.

DURING THE procession, before giving his daughter to the prospective groom. Mr. Wingfield raised his daughter's veil and fondly kissed her on her cheek.

• • •

DAN G. TURMER, godfather of the bride, introduced the receiving line at the reception which followed.

The hostesse were Mrs. Justine Turner and Mrs. Fopeanna Johnson, both aunts of the bride. Guests were received by the bride and bride groom under an arch of roses and lilies.

Another reception was given by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jackson at their home, for close friends and members of the immediate families.

The couple will be at home at 3706 Belle Avenue.

MR. AND MRS. Roland Parker, this week, announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to James Bass, 3rd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bass, Jr.

Mr. Bass, a mathematics major at Morgan State College, will graduate in June. The bride - elect, who was graduated from Cortez Peters Business College is employed by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. She is a member of Delta Omega Pi Sorority.

A June wedding is planned.

EVERY WOMAN who follows the basic, natural laws of beauty can keep herself physically attractive and mentally alert for many years. This was the theme of a spirited and very interesting talk given by Miss Loren Welters, owner, director of the Walters Academy, during the annual Ashburton Family Group luncheon.

Miss Walters discussed seven basic laws and how they are employed universally by women who wish to maintain or acquire healthy, attractive bodies and minds.

The affair was held at the Emerald Gardens on Saturday past, and attracted a bevy of the city's matrons who enjoyed a wonderful afternoon. The guests helied the fact that they had come to receive hints on beauty care. Any one of them could have given their own secrets on the subject of beauty.

Roxie Richardson, Sara Gray, Ida Lynch and Joan Scott were pictures in combinations of black and white. E. Louise Robinson and Gloria King chose brown and beige costumes. Mary Pitts and Clarice Parrish were smart in white suits with blue accessories.

Other smartly attired guests included:

Mesdames Bernice Jackson, Merita Stokes, Vinessa Porter, Sylvia Mackey, Margaret Butler, Mabel Grant, Edith Smith, Marian Russell, Marcia Mills, Stephanie Howard, Shirley Stewart, Sonya Brown, Mesdames Melvin Wilson, Margaret Davidson, Adelle Foreman, Wilhelmina Garner, James LaForest, Edward VanDeCastle, Anethiz Williams, Hilda Higgins; and Miss Margot Jones.

Members of the Ashburton Family Group who were hostesses were Mesdames Gloria Carpenter, president; Helen Lee, secretary; Robbie Chisell, treasurer; Miriam Brown, Saretha Green, Carolyn Chissell, Edith Davidson, Shirley Hargrove, Norma Madden, Rebecca Davis, Peggy Jones and Louise Mildred Hall, Joan Scott, Peggy Jones and Louise Owens.

DATE DATA: The Pierians will meet with Pearl Brackett tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 p.m. Special feature will be a talk by Louise Lamb, recently returned from Hawaii, who will discuss her lengthy stay here. Other business will include the May meeting and the June closing affair.

Zeta Phi Betas will be dancing tonight (Friday) at the Alcazar.

Dr. and Mrs. Percival Smith will entertain in honor of their daughter, Laura Davene, a current debutante, at the Me-De-So Club on May 8th.

And Mr. and Mrs. George A. White will have a reception in honor of their daughter, Myra Lorraine, also a current debutante, in Forest Manor, on May 15th.

The Modern Ladies (with Anne Drayton, milliner, as star) will hold forth at luncheon and fashions in the Sheraton-Belvedere, Sunday.

The Democratic Women's Committee will dine and dance at North Point Gardens on Friday, May 6th.

The Philomathians will have their dinner meeting in the Sheraton - Belvedere on the 7th, with Dr. Regina Goff as speaker.

And come the 17th, the DuBois Circle will be dining in the same hotel as their closing session.
