Mrs. Willis on Perkins staff

Mrs. Peggy Willis, has recently been named to the staff of the Clifton T. Perkins State Hospital as project director of patient readmissions, discharge and after-care services.

Mrs Willis is a graduate of Morgan State College and the Howard University School of Social Work.

She has had supervisory experience at the Baltimore City Department of Public Welfare and was a social worker with the city public schools for eight years.

Mrs. Willis is a member of the National Association of Social Workers, board of directors of Parents Without Pardons, and the Howard University School of Social Work Alumni.

She is a member of the Mt. Olivet Christian Church, the Rev. Karey Gee, minister.

Mrs. Willis has one daughter, Lynn Willis. They live in the 2400 block Woodbrook.

Raleigh mixes summer school

RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI) — The Raleigh Board of Education voted Tuesday to fully integrate its summer school and other special programs.

In the past, the summer school session had been segregated, with colored students attending Ligon High and whites attending Broughton and Enloe.

The Board decided to hold the summer school sessions in a single school this year since the U.S. Office of Education said "Freedom Of Choice" assignment as a basis for integration would be allowed only for regular school terms.

A little oil added to the water in which macaroni or spaghetti is cooked will prevent boiling over.

She's No. 1

ADDIS ABABA —(NPI)— Ethiopian Airlines flight hostess Mamitu Tesfaye received the airline's 1965 Cabinet Attendant award recently for chalking up a perfect record of service. A four-year member of the airlines, she received a certificate of recognition, a check for $50, $200, and a seven-day vacation trip for two.

Library Week program held at Crownsville

Dr. Herbert Frisby, the Arctic explorer, was one of the recent speakers on the National Library Week program at Crownsville State Hospital.

Others on "The Arctic" panel were Francis Adams, Sylvester Jones and Harry Singleton who were followed by members of the "southeast Ads Today" panel members, Earl Redmond, William Fitzgerald and John McAndrews.

Mrs. Beulah Adkins and Mrs. Helena Vahtras were participants on the "Milady's Boudoir" area of the program while Mrs. Madeline Lighsey, make - up artist, was demonstrator.

Mrs. Virginia Ann Strayton, author and artist, displayed her works. An adolescents panel discussed "Behavior Patterns." Films shown included "Acts of Courtesy," "Words of Courtesy" and "A Tour of the White House with Mrs. John F. Kennedy."

For the first time, the program was conducted by the hospital patients with the librarian, Mrs. Eloise Richardson, in charge. Under the auspices of the Patient Library, the activities are a part of the bibliotherapy of the Rehabilitation Department of which Dale Bennett is director.

CHOIR SCHOOL ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS

The St. Michaels and All Angels Choir School, to be opened in the fall of 1966, still has openings for young singers for the 1966 - 67 year.

Students interested in applying must have completed the second grade of an accepted elementary school.

Application should be made to the Headmaster, St. Michael Choir School, 2029 St. Paul St., Baltimore 21218.

Regular curriculum studies in language arts, science, history, art, mathematics and other subjects will be taught in addition to choir activities.

The Choir School will have a five - day week, running from 8:30 a.m. with Chapel service and ending at 4 p.m.
