—Clay dazzles

to keep in shape living in Paris? And tell me, in all your life, did you ever see a heavyweight as fast as me?" Carpentier: "Never."

Clay: "Thank you. You may stay."

CLAY STARTED with 45 minutes of fast shadow boxing, moving mostly backwards, then spent 15 leisurely minutes on the heavy bag. He didn't spar.

Clay also took time out to exchange wisecracks with former world middleweight champ Terry Downes, who is trying to hire Clay as a fellow vampire in a movie called "The Vampire Killers."Tommy Farr, the Welsh heavyweight who went 15 rounds with Joe Louis, also was introduced.

Meanwhile, challenger Cooper restricted his session to three rounds with American Sparmate Jimmy Fletcher of Los Angeles. Fletcher again drew applause for a first-rate imitation of Clay as he jogged around with his hands held low. He made Cooper do a lot of chasing, but Cooper caught him time and again with lefts to the body.

Cooper followed this with a round of shadow boxing followed by a workout on the heavy bag and some rope skipping.

Manager Jim Wicks said, "We have begun to ease off a bit now. We gave Henry a full session yesterday and we have decided to reduce his sparring from now on. In any case, three rounds with Fletcher is as good as six with lesser men.

Cooper is really pleased with him—but he's certainly making Henry work hard."

The fight will be beamed back to the United States by Satellite relay and seen on the ABC Wide World of Sports from 5 to 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 21.

Danes hesitate but OK Liston comeback tour

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (UPI) — Former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston is welcome to fight in Denmark this summer, but only in the name of democracy.

The Danish press and several boxing officials had objected to an appearance here by Liston because of his background. However, the Danish Boxing Association ruled Tuesday night that since Denmark is a democratic country it couldn't reject the American on those grounds.

THE PRESIDENT of the Danish Boxing Association was among those opposed to Liston.

Liston, who lost his world crown to Cassius Clay on a seventh - round knockout in February, 1964, already has one fight lined up as part of his comeback attempt. He'll meet German champion Gerhard Zech, June 9.

TWO OTHER fights are planned in Scandinavia, at least one of which will be in Sweden.

Liston's wife, Geraldine, said in Las Vegas Tuesday night that the contracts for the European fights had not been returned yet and until then Liston's travel plans are undecided.

Offer assistance to credit unions

A series of special training programs to help officials of credit unions in low-income areas advise their members on money matters has been announced by the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions.

Noting people in low-income areas often pay more for what they buy and are forced to pay high rates of interest, the Bureau said it will open six training programs in selected locations throughout the country.

Set up under agreement with the Office of Economic Opportunity, the first training program will be held in Boston from May 16 to June 10.

Air Natl. Guard lists openings

The 136th Air Commando Group of the Maryland Air National Guard has announced a number of openings for qualified officer applicants.

Col. Richard T. Lynch, commander of the Martin Airport based unit, said the group is seeking applications for pilot slots, for the position of flight surgeon and for navigators, nurses, air police, transportation aircraft maintenance, supply, motor vehicle, production control and intelligence officers and airmen.

Inquiries should be directed to Major Paul Bittorf at the unit headquarters, 601 Wilson Point Rd., or by phone, 686-9100.

Pro quints draft 26 tan athletes

NEW YORK — National Basketball Association teams selected 26 collored players at their annual draft meeting here Wednesday.

Of the 26, four were first-round picks, two are products of Washington, D.C., and two come from predominately - tan schools.

Cazzie Russell of Michigan, as expected, was the first collegian to be drawn. The two - time All - American was plucked by the New York Knickerbockers, whose lowly position in the NBA standings gave them first pick.

OTHER first - round choices were Dave Bing of Syracuse, Walt Wesley of Kansas, and Jerry Chambers of Utah.

Bing and John Austin, selected by the world champion Boston Celtics on the fourth round, are from Washington.

The predominately tan schools tapped were Centar State College and Grambling University. Central's Ken Wilburn went to the Philadelphia 76ers, and Grambling's John Comeaux was taken by the Chicago Bulls.

Following are the teams in the league and the man to which they drafted:

NEW YORK KNICKERBOCKERS — Cazzie Russell, Michigan; Henry Akin, Morehead State; Stewart Johnson, Murray State; Lee Dedore, Auburn; Jim Goodrich, Iowa; Dave George Fishman, Utah; Mike Dillon, New Mexico State; Mike Silliman, Army.
DETROIT — Dave Bing, Syracuse; Harris Murray, Detroit; Gene Tarver, Michigan; Earl Cowden, Brigham Young; William Pickens, Georgia; Carroll Hosner, Southern Methodist; Ted Manning, North Carolina College and George McNeil, Southern Illinois.
SAN FRANCISCO — Clyde Lee, Vanderbilt; Joe Ellis, San Francisco; Steve Chubin, Rhode Island; Steve Vacenski, Duke; Tom Kerwin, Centenary; Jim Pitt, Northwestern; Lee Rudley, Fresno State and Ken Washington, UCLA.
