Gadabouting

were:

Mesdames Delores Sands, Janette Dates, Louise Bailey, Bette Nunn, Veronica Norwood, Mary Wren, Delores Williams, Maggie Brown, Classie Hoyle, Verna Jackson and Geraldine Coe; and Miss Janet PJOWELL.

Guests attending were:

Mesdames Madeline Robinson, Iantha Lake, Anna Brown, Rose Porter, Bertha Gee, Julia Candy, Veronica Westcott, Hilda Wren, Arlene Shears, Ruth Brown, Truma Elliot, Christine Mitchell and Thelma Coe.

Earlier this year the club expanded their membership to include Delores Williams, Geraldine Coe, Mary Wren and Maggie Brown. Their joining the group was celebrated with a luncheon at Wilson's Restaurant.

THE NORTHWEST Child Study Club met Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Gloria Phillips. Mrs. Ellen Johns was co - hostess. Mrs. Vyna Skinner presided.

Currently, they are planning a bus trip to Hershey Park, Pa., Saturday, for their teen-agers.

For the group en scene, Mesdames Phillips and Johns had a gay evening planned, replete with cards, prizes, etc.

At the close of the evening, Anita Myers, Iona Collins and Lucille Cephas had garnered the gifts.

Also about were Margaret Driver, Elsie Scott, Flozella Clark, Alice Payne and Mary Snow.

GREAT FUN for members of the Chit Chat Club was their annual jaunt to Philadelphia where they were guests of their sister club, Saturday.

There was the elegant luncheon at the Round Table . . . thence to the Spruce Street home of Mrs. Frances Milburn for cards and a later snack.

At cards, Mrs. Mary Miller took the over-all prize, a pendent watch. And then there were beautiful kid gloves and an electric comb that went to Mrs. Iola Minson and Mrs. Mary Holmes, respectively, first and second prizes; a black and white stole to Louise Madden, third; and a beach hat to Dorothy Tilghman, fourth prize winner.

A similar group of prizes went to members of the hostess charter . . . with eight - button gloves to Mrs. Gladys Epps; a comb to Mrs. Milburn, a stold to Mrs. Mae E. Johnson, and a hat to Mrs. Mae Briscoe.

All of the Baltimore Cult-Chats were on the scene with the exception of Mesdames Mary McCray, Morphelia Winston and Emma Jones.

Mesdames Dorothy Smith and Janie Pratt kept score . . . and for their chores were rewarded with napkin and mat sets.

POT - POURRI: W. A. C. Hughes, attorney, who has been ailing for the past five weeks, has been in Johns Hopkins Hospital since Monday. Purpose, a thrurough check - up . . . if he can be pinned down long enough. At this writing he was doing fine and doing business through his office via hospital phone.

Dr. Evan Gilkes, who had been in Provident Hospital for the past two weeks, is back in his Powhatan Avenue home.

Flying down to Charlotte, N.C., last weekend were Gladys and Samuel Daniels, Sadie and Armstead Jenkins and Merita and John E. Stokes . . . for the induction of the 14th chapter into the National Epicureans. Initiation ceremony was on the campus of Johnson C. Smith College.

Mrs. Grace Johnson Patterson was this year's choice as "Mother of the Year" by the trustees of Williams Wesleyan Service Guild of Sharp Street Methodist Church. She was cited at Sunday morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. William Riddick and Mrs. Mable Boardley were guests of Mrs. Boardley's brother - in - law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis in Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Mary Smalley came down from New York, Saturday ago, to entertain her club, (The Knitters). Had dinner at the Benedix' place, went on to club member Helena Edmonds for the post session.

Sharp St. stewards honor eight members

Sharp St. Stewards — 28 Pt. Eight faithful ex-officio members were honored at a "thank you" ceremony Sunday by the Steward Board of Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church.

Following the morning service, the eight stewards were presented certificates in recognition of their many years of dedicated service.

They were Mrs. Lillie Anderson, Miss Emma Morris, Miss Sallie Larkins, Mrs. Mary Camphor, Charles Rogers, Pinkney Briscoe, John Rice and Bernard Whiting.

Mrs. Constance Brent, who presided, made the presentations. A poem was read by Mrs. Lillian Gordon.

Refreshments were served buffet style by Samuel H. Wilson, president of the Steward Board, and his committee. Mrs. Lillian Gordon is secretary and Lee Ames, treasurer.

TO BE HONORED—Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, pioneer Freedom Fighter, whose birthday, May 25, will be celebrated with a mammoth testimonial at Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church at 8 p.m. Subscriptions may be obtained at the NAACP office or the church.

Jazz concert

Sunday the Left Bank Jazz Society presents the All-Stars, Freddie Hubbard, trumpet; George Coleman, tenor sax; Paul Chambers, bass; Herbie Hancock, piano, and Tony Williams, drums.

Hancock and Williams were last featured with the wonderful Miles Davis group. The concert begins at 4 p.m. at the Left Bank Jazz Society Headquarters, Madison and Chester Sts.
