Civic League 53 years old marks date with luncheon

The Women's Civic League marked its 53rd anniversary at a luncheon held in the Quality Court Motel, Sunday afternoon.

Pointing to more than a half century of community service, Mrs. Beryl Williams who gave the history of the organization, noted that the founders had been pioneers in working for desirable living conditions in this city.

• • •

SPEAKER AT the luncheon was Mrs. Thelma Daley, counselor at the Kenwood Street High School.

"Real joy," said Mrs. Daley, "comes not from ease and riches, but from doing things worth while."

She called women who are remembered and revered: Nannie Burroughs, Jane Hunter, Phyllis Wheatley, Mary McLeod Bethune, all of whom dedicated their lives not to advancing themselves, but to helping others.

Mrs. Daley was presented by Mrs. Helen Mae Chamberlain, luncheon chairman.

CERTIFICATES OF merit were presented to past presidents: Mrs. Viola C. Jackson, Mrs. Violet H. Whyte, Senator Verda Welcome, Mrs. Vivian Cook and Mrs. Ethel Harris.

Certificates also went to Mrs. Celia Crawford, president of the East Baltimore branch; and to Mrs. Rosa Jackson, president of the Pimlico branch.

Women who had rendered outstanding service to the organization, and who also received merit awards included Mrs. Nellie Waters,

Mrs. Edith Scott, Mrs. Lula Mackay, and Mrs. Sarah Rayne, who has been treasurer since 1954.

MRS. MARY BACOTE, co-chairman, presided. Mrs. Celia Crawford gave the invocation. The greeting came from the president, Mrs. Naomi Camper, and the closing remarks from Mrs. Julia Rawlings.

The presentations were made by Miss Marion Jones.
