and all three lives were lost.

The apartment building was leveled to the ground by flame, Coach Banks said.

James Harrison, husband and father, was at work during the fire which swept out of control before he could be summoned.

The Harrisons have resided in Chicago, Mr. Banks' hometown, nine years.

In addition to her parents, grandmother; brother, Raymond and uncle, Mr. Smith; Mrs. Harrison is survived by sister, Miss Yvonne Banks

4 ask review of kidnap bonds

MONROE, N.C. (UPI) — Four men charged with a 1961 racial kidnaping here have asked the U.S. Supreme Court to rehear their appeal from an order that they forfeit $37,500 in appearance bonds.

The four were convicted in 1964 of the kidnaping of an elderly white couple but the State Supreme Court reversed the convictions because of an improperly constituted Grand Jury.

A later grand jury returned a second indictment but the four failed to appear in court and their bonds were ordered forfeited.

The State Supreme Court upheld the ruling and the U.S. Supreme Court refused to hear the case in the first appeal.

motel employee killed in a $76 holdup.

Spencer's death started the string of murders on March 10. The series ended with the death of Carter on the week-end of May 21.

Thomas Lee Penn was also charged with attempted murder and rape in the wounding of a 14-year-old Richmond colored girl who was attacked, shot and left for dead.

It was her hospital bed statements that led to the charges against the brothers.

NAACP plans memorial rites for Medgar Evers

NEW YORK — Units of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) across the country will hold special services on June 12, commemorating the third anniversary of the assassination of Medgar Evers the Association's courageous field secretary for the state of Mississippi.

MR. EVERS was slain by a sniper's bullet on the threshhold of his Jackson, Miss., home as he returned from a NAACP rally just after midnight on June 11, 1963. Since then, another NAACP leader, Vernon Dahmer, former president of the Hattiesburg NAACP branch, was killed on Jan. 10, last when a bomb destroyed his Hattiesburg home.

AMONG BRANCHES already scheduled to hold services are three in Mississippi—Laurel, Newton County and Natchez. The Natchez ceremony will be held in front of the home of Branch President George Metcalfe, who also narrowly escaped martyrdom last Aug. 27.

In Springfield, Ill., members of the Anti - defamation League, clergymen of all faiths and the human relations commissioner will participate in a march to the statue of Abraham Lincoln the "Great Emancipator," at the close of the service.

Among other units observing the anniversary are Ithaca and Deer Park, N.Y.; Allegheny, Pa.; Owensboro, Ky.; Providence, R.I. (the Sojourner Truth Youth Council); Burton, Texas; New Iberia, La.; Midway, Ala.; Chandler, Ariz.; West Hartford (Medgar Evers Youth Council) and Stamford, Conn.; Jesup, Ga.; Edwardsville, Ill.; Davenport, Iowa; Talbot County, Md.; and Van Buren, Mich.

Deadwyler inquest shame of L.A., councilman charges

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The inquest verdict of "accidental" shooting in the killing of Leonard Deadwyler by a Los Angeles policeman "demonstrates how far law enforcement will go to protect the police officer, whether he be right or wrong," said City Councilman Billy G. Mills Tuesday.

Civil rights leaders throughout the United States, he said, would call the verdict "the shame of Los Angeles."

"The colored community does not complain when a colored bank robber is shot. But I hope it will continue to be the first to shout when a member of its community is gunned down for apparently only one reason—because he was born black," Mills said.

DR. H. H. BROOKINS, chairman of the Los Angeles chapter of the United Civil Rights Council, said he has asked Dist. Atty. Evelle Younger to bring the case "to a judicial process."

"Black men live under a special burden and those of Watts under a particular burden, and the apprehensions remaining from the verdict rendered today make it mandatory that an opportunity for reasonable doubt be left" he said.

The finding by a nine-member coroner's jury was however followed swiftly by an announcement from Younger that he agreed with the verdict and did not plan to prosecute the patrolman, Jerold M. Bova 23.

"The case is closed in the absence of further evidence," Younger said.

BUT DEADWYLER'S pregnant widow, Barbara, 25, disclosed plans to file a civil suit against Bova, who shot her husband May 7 after a high-speed chase through riot-scarred South-Central Los Angeles. She was being driven toward a hospital at the time the car was stopped.

Violence has erupted several times since the emotion-charged inquest began May 19, but only minor incidents were reported in predominantly colored areas following—the inquest Tuesday night.

The jury heard an unprecedented 49 witnesses in what became the countys' longest inquest. It deliberated about three hours before reporting its finding.

Bova and five fellow officers testified that his revolver accidentally discharged when Deadwyler's halted car suddenly lurched forward. Bova said he was leaning through a window trying to turn off the ignition.

A WHITE BUS driver said he saw the vehicle lurch. But Mrs. Deadwyler and several witnesses said the car never moved, and Bova shot Deadwyler, 25, without provocation.

The jury considered four possible verdicts: accidental, justifiable, or criminal homicide, or a declaration that it could not reach a decision.

Younger's office was not bound by the verdict and could have preferred charges against Bova. A police investigation into the shooting still is under way.

Mrs. Deadwyler's attorney, Johnnie L. Cochran, said he felt "no deals were made," but he was dissatisfied with the inquest procedure, which did not afford him direct cross-examination or screening of jurors.

COCHRAN SAID he advised Mrs. Deadwyler he would file civil suit," and she said she was perfectly satisfied with that and she hoped there was no further trouble."

John Povenzano, who represented the district attorney's office and asked both his own and Cochran's questions, said "It seems to me that the verdict was unanimous — unanimous in that there was no criminal motive."

The jurors did report differences, however, in deciding between "excusable" and "accidental" homicide but some leaders expressed dissatisfaction with the verdict. City Councilman Mills said the inquest procedure did not "provide equal protection for all involved parties."

Date set for Penn trial

ATHENS, Ga. — Five Klu Klux Klansmen will stand trial Friday June 27 in Athens on federal charges of conspiracy in the death of Washington, D.C. educator, Lemuel Penn. Penn was killed in July 1964 from shotgun blasts fired into the automobile in which he was travelling. The shots had come from a passing car.

CECIL MYERS, George H. Turner, James S. Lackey, Denver Willis and Herbert Guest will face a federal jury after losing a third attempt to have the charge against them dismissed.

Howard Sims, 41, a sixth defendant, is under psychiatric examination in the federal penitentiary in Atlanta on charges of assault with intent to murder his wife. Two of the five had were acquitted in September 1965 of the charge.
