$500 GIFT — Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church recently observed the 42nd Anniversary of the church and the Second Anniversary of the pastor, the Rev. Olin P. Moyd. Here, Deacon Charles Underwood presents gift from church to honoree as Mrs. Moyd looks on.

REV. LEWIS CAMPBELL

Rev. Campbell is new pastor at New Hope

The Rev. Lewis Campbell was elected last week as pastor of New Hope Baptist Church.

The meeting was conducted by the Rev. Marcus G. Woolf," starring Elizabeth Baptist Church, who served as moderator.

The new pastor was born in Blackstone, Va., and joined Faith Baptist Church, here, in 1936.

He is married to the former Miss Mazie Bland and has one son, Alvin.

The Rev. Mr. Campbell, who assumed his new duties June 5, was ordained in February, 1965.

He is a member of the Baptist Ministers Conference of Baltimore and Vicinity.

Mt. Lebanon marks 42nd anniversary

Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church, 2220 Reisterstown Rd., held its 42nd Anniversary Services recently along with the second anniversary of the pastor.

The Rev. Olin P. Moyd, pastor, was presented $500 by the church.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Moyd were showered with gifts from auxiliaries of the church.

Guest speaker was Dr. Charles H. Harrison, administrative assistant of Morgan State College.

Mrs. Mable Malone, of Gillis Memorial Community Church, was guest soloist.

Approximately 175 attended the banquet and heard the Rev. Mr. Moyd express thanks for the close cooperation of the church during his two years.

He pledged to establish an even better relation between the Mt. Lebanon and the community.

He also promised added effort on behalf of senior citizens and the infirm.

* * *

SENTIMENTS of the congregation were voiced by A. A. Jones and Mrs. Hazel Turner.

Among those participating in the special services were:

The Revs. Frank Dixon, Charles Fletcher, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. John Crummedy, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Ball, the Rev. W. M. Brown, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Norris Owens, the Rev. James Brandford.

The Rev. Marcus Wood, the Rev. W. Lindsay Pitts, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Scott, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Lawyer Swinson, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Moyd;

Also, the Reverends and Mesdames Joseph Kane, Charles Fletcher; the Rev. Arthur Sagleton, and Mrs. Sylvia Tisdale.

Earl Brown was chairman of the banquet committee. Other members were Virgil Reynolds, co-chairman; John Reazer and Mesdames Lydia Brown, Annie Finney, Lillian Gee, and Regina Smith.

Mt. Lebanon was founded in 1924 by the late Rev. Hiram Smith.

Phyllis Harris wins music prize

A Baltimorean, Phyllis Harris, and a Virginian, Mellasenah Young Morris, were among the recipients of awards and prizes at the Peabody Conservatory's 98th commencement exercises held in the Concert Hall, Sunday.

Miss Harris, daughter of Joseph Harris, of W. Fayette St, received the Emanuel Chambers Award, established under the will of the late Mr. Chambers to aid the education of young people in Baltimore.

Miss Harris is a student of music education with Richard Higgins and Mary Malcolm Hunter, and a voice student of Alice Gerstl Duschak, teacher of such prominent Baltimore singers as Veronica Tyler and Jeannete Walters.

Mrs. Morris, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles M. Young of Middle Ave., Norfol k Va., was co-winner of the Alexander Sklarewski piano award with Martin Berkofsky, of Greenbelt. She is a student of Julio Esteban.

Coppin to honor Dean Grace Jacobs

The administration, faculty, and staff of Coppin State College wil honor Mrs. Grace Hill Jacobs with a testimonial banquet on Friday, June 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the Emerald Gardens on Primrose Avenue.

Mrs. Jacobs has been on the Coppin faculty for 40 years, from before the time of its prior location at Mount and Riggs. From the beginning, she taught social studies with emphasis on the geography of Maryland — an area with which she was imminently familiar from her broad knowledge of the land forms, terrain, and weather conditions of the State, from the time of childhood.

MRS JACOBS sprang from a professional background. In earlier years, her father, the Rev. Daniel G. Hill Sr., had pastored Bethel AME Church here. In fact, he moved "Old Bethel" to its present site on Lanvale and Druid Hill. Her mother was Margaret Peck Hill, a teacher at Storer College.

Since 1962, Mrs. Jacobs has been dean of the college at Coppin, and in this capacity has served on many of the higher education policy-making committees in the State of Maryland and in the nation.

SHE EARNED both the B.A., cum laude and the M.A. in history from Howard University, and has a substantial record of graduate study at Clark University, Worcester, Massachusetts; Columbia University, New York City; American University, Washington, D. C. and Rutgers where she was rated a distinguished scholar.

She is a member of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, and a past recipient of a scholarship in Human Relations awarded by the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

* * *

FOR EIGHT YEARS Mrs. Jacobs served as president of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA of Washington D.C. and has been a longtime representative-at-large on the Board of the YWCA, National Capital area. Other offices include secretary to the Board of trustees, and chairman, Commissioner on Education, Douglass Methodist Church.

Also, she is a member of the Association for Supervisors and Curriculum development; of the Eastern Association of College Deans and Advisers of Students; a member of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, and a member of the National Education Association.

Fraternally alied, Mrs. Jacobs is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Alumni and other citizens interested in the testimonial for Dean Jacobs may call Coppin State College for reservations.

South Baltimore

By WALTER W. E. HILL Sr.

Ebenezer AME Church will observe Annual Youth Day Sunday, June 26. Miss Charleene Grimes is chairman and the Rev. S. A. Thompson is pastor.

Changes coming from the General Conference of the Second Episcopal District of the AME Church brought elevation of the Rev. A. L. Murray of Allen AME Church to the rank of Presiding Elder of the Eastern District.

Former Presiding Elder, Nash, was transferred to Annapolis. The Rev. A. R. Powell of Ward Memorial Church in Washington was transferred to the Virginia Conference. The Rev. Hilderbrand was sent to Ward Memorial.

Mrs. Gomell Thompson, wife of the Rev. S. A. Thompson, is at home recuperating after a brief stay in Lutheran Hospital. She lives at 18 W. Montgomery.
