Arena Players score at gala dinner dance

By LULA J. GARRETT

'Twas glad tidings to their patrons when the Arena Players announced, Sunday evening, that their awards presentation will be an annual affair.

The program, dinner and dance was a colorful affair, with its chicly gowned women, its exciting entertainment by the beauteous Sallie Blair, and its appreciation awards to three who had shared in the success of this year's program.

Added to these were interpretive dancing by Diran Johnson, and music by Claude Grant, organist, and his orchestra.

* * *

THE AWARDS went to Langston Hughes and Dr. Richard L. Long.

Mr. Hughes' award was accepted by Sam Wilson. Mr. Hughes is currently in Africa, under auspices of USIS.

He read for the Players in one of their presentations this season. The award was presented by Harvey Denmark.

The award to Dr. Long was presented by Mrs. June Thorne. Dr. Long, who has assisted the group in writing as well as staging productions, is recently back from study in France, where he won a Ph. D. He has just resigned from the faculty of Morgan State College to accept a post on the Hampton faculty.

* * *

CITATIONS to Miss Lola Amis and Harmon S. Watson were made by George Barrick and Verna Day, respectively.

Mrs. Camilla M. Sherrard, chairman of the Advisory Board of the Arena Players, welcomed the guests. Mike James presided.

* * *

AMONG THOSE attending the affair, which was held in Eastwind were:
