If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

People, places, things

Prediction: Methodists are meeting this weekend in Washington. Appointments come Sunday afternoon.

This column predicts the new pastor of Baltimore's Union Memorial Church will be the Rev. Edward McGowan, presently minister of Mt. Zion in D.C.

He would succeed our beloved Rev. N. B. Carrington, who retired last week after 42 years service to the church.

Another prediction: The two Sparrows Point churches will be merged. There no longer will be a colored Methodist Church and a white one in that area.

You read it here FIRST.

More church news: Catholic Archbishop Shehan recently announced creation of a new archdiocesan group to expand work begun by the inner city program.

It will be known as the Archdiocesan Urban Committee and will be directed by Father Henry J. Offer, S.S.J.; Francis J. Bien is executive director. Father Offer is well known as pastor of St. Peter Claver Church.

Other priests on the committee are: Msgr. Austin L. Healy, Father Henry V. Satler, C.S.S.R., Father Edmond J. Stroup, Father William J. Lee, S.S., and Father Joseph M. Connolly.

LAY MEMBERS of the committee are Charles G. Tildon, John J. Sweeney Jr., Mrs. James F. Brown and Mrs. Agnes Magrogan, administrative assistant.

The committee will carry out programs to combat poverty, racial injustice and inadequate education.

Sad news: Mrs. Hazel M. Simms, the longtime beautician who was found dead in her home on Sunday at her McCulloh St. home, was given last rites on Thursday at St. Peter Claver.

She operated the beauty shop at Madison and Bloom for 17 years. She retired two years ago shortly after her husband, James Simms, was beaten to death by hoodlums. (Remember he was the bath attendant at School No. 122?)

A sister, Mrs. Alma Rozier; a brother, Herman Holley, survive. Her brother-in-law, is George E. Simms, the school principal.

Buried in Philadelphia this week: Mrs. Verona Elsey Beckett, wife of Walter C. Beckett, the funeral director.

She was well known as a fraternal, education and civic leader, held membership in and was active in a score of groups including Order of Eastern Star, AKA Sorority, American Association of School Administration. She was a retired school principal.

Thinking - of - you cards to Mrs. Hazel Lonnie Spruill (Hazel), 3413 Fairview Ave., and members of her family. They lost their brother, Robert Chester on Monday. Remember, he was the one you cheered with get well cards during his long illness. (He had brain surgery.)

Good news: Talked on the phone this week with Paul Henderson, the veteran photographer, who is now at home.

He sounds cheerful and like his old self. Continue to cheer him with best wishes.

His address: 1925 Druid Hill Ave.

More good news: W. A. C. Hughes Jr., the pioneer NAACP lawyer, will be out of Hopkins Hospital by the time you read this. His address: 2400 Arunah Ave.

His spirits were lifted over the weekend when members of his Lincoln University class took time from their 40th anniversary celebration and called him long distance.

Wasn't that thoughtful of them!

Released from Lutheran Hospital (June 1), was Calvin Ashe the retired postal worker.

Remember he suffered gunshot wounds last month when an intruder invaded his swank Mohawk Ave. home.

Out of Sinai Hospital on Wednesday was Mrs. Florence Hooley, the principal in Sinai for surgery, Mrs. Bernice Williams, the C. and P. employee.

Special sunshine, please to Marine PFC Eugene S. Roberts, who is in Ward 2A at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Philadelphia.

He is the former Forest Park High track star who lost one leg and part of the other while on patrol duty in Viet Nam early this month.

His parents are: Lyle Roberts and Mrs. Margaret Mason Roberts of Baltimore. He is the grandson of Dr. Mason, a pioneer track star in our town, remember?

Note: Eugene's twin brother, James, is due home on emergency leave from Ft. Benning, Ga.

Instalation: The Rev. William Edward Hamilton will be installed as minister of the Star of Bethlehem Spiritual Temple, 1109 W. Lanvale, at 3 p.m. on Sunday, June 12. Many know the Rev. Mr. Hamilton as the assistant at Summers - Norwood Florists.

Another Sunday evening scheduled to attract a large number of persons, the testimonial honoring Dr. H. M. Frisby, by the historical society, which bears his name. It is set for 6 p.m. at the Sheraton - Belvedere.

Music event: Sunday at 5, with the Arts Festival.

Music will be under the direction of Douglas' minister of music, James S. Hammond. Over 50 drawings and paintings of Bill Banks and other students will be on display.

Mailbag: Mrs. Velma R. Croxton writes from Cedar Grove, N. J. ("Last week's If You Ask Me,' was like a prime roast of beef done to a queen's taste. Yes, God is good.")

Graduation notes

Two graduates in the family: At Loyola on Sunday: Mrs. Raymond M. Taylor, (Ruby), science teacher at Lomabard Junior High, received her Master's.

Her daughter, Maybelle, finished Western High. She goes to Vassar in the fall.

Congrats to the Taylors at 1717 Moreland Ave.

Dunbar High's 666 grads were looking good on Monday evening in their mortar and white gowns. Mayor McKeldin awarded diplomas.

Two girls led the class — Janice Louise Tuggel, who won a scholarship to Hampton, was valedictorian. Regina Eleanor House, who won a scholarship to Howard, was No. 2.

Cuf note: Dunbar grad Andre Adams, son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, entered the Marines four days after graduation.

A number of the Dunbarites already have jobs including Nancy Briscoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Briscoe, who has begun training with the C and P Telephone Co.

Hero's kin: The Paula Michele Pecou who finished Morgan this week is the daughter of a meeting Morgan faculty member who died in the fight for freedom.

Her dad was Lt. Ferdinan Pecou, who was killed in action in 1944, a week before his daughter was born. Mother is the former Maude Grimes.

ONE OF three colored graduates at Park School in Brooklandville, Md. last Wednesday was William Knox.

He plans to attend the University of Pennsylvania this fall.

William is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Everet Knox (Clementine). He is the Ambassador to Dahomey, West Africa.

The other graduates at Park were Alice G. Jackson, formerly of Columbia. Miss. who was a ward of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Frank of Rogers Ave., where she made her home for the past year; and Thomas B. Wallace, 430 Ethland Ave.

Some 2,500 persons tended the ceremonies at Lincoln University, Pa. on Sunday. Highlights: Reunion of the Class of 1926, having among its greats, the Rev. Tollie L. Caution, William (Bill) Taylor, Dean Laurence Foster, W. A. C. Hughes Jr., Dr. Walter (Peanuts) Johnson and Episcopal Bishop Cedric Earl Mills — all of Baltimore.

One of the four outstanding educators receiving the Honorary Degrees — Franklin H. Williams (class of '41) the NAACP lawyer who did a distinguished job out on the West coast, and as one of the directors of the Peace Corps. He gave the convocation.

For the first time in history a white girl, Florence Collins, was valedictorian.

A white youth Edward Halter, was salutatorian.

The class of 1926 pledged to the University $20,000 and paid in cash $5,000 on Saturday.

* * *

DR. NOW: Mrs. Rebecca Evans Carroll, Baltimore school area director is now Dr. Carroll.

She earned her doctorate degree in education at the University of Maryland in May.

Her doctoral subject: "A comparative study of the self-perceptions of fifth graders as learners."

In Memoriams

ARMSTEAD — In loving memory of our son, husband and father, JAMES LEWIS ARMSTEAD, who passed away June 10, 1962:
We tried so hard to understand,
Why you had to go.
But God has said a million times
It's not the time to know.
You know we loved and miss you too.
Your memory we shall keep,
For God reminds us everyday
That shepherds keep His sheep.
I'm glad our faith makes us believe
These things we cannot see
For the more we try to understand
The happier you will be.
Loving, MOTHER, WIFE AND CHILDREN

BELT — In loving memory of my husband, HENRY who passed away June 7, 1962:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His work is done, his days of pain
His weary nights are past,
His ever - patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Devoted Wife, ELAINE BELT

BROWN — In memory of WILLIAM T. BROWN SR., who passed away four years ago, June 10, 1962:
One thing I will have you do dear,
Walk along down that long, long path.
For soon I will follow you,
I want to know each step you take,
So I may take the same.
For some day down that lonely road,
You will hear me call your name.
Loving Wife, EVA

FIELDS — In loving memory of our loved one, JAMES, who passed away June 7, 1962:
He wished no one a last farewell,
Not even said good bye—
He was just gone, we knew it;
And only God knows why.
His busy hands are resting now,
His work on earth is done.
His worries are all over now,
And his heavenly crown is won.
Our hearts still ache with loneliness
Our eyes shed many tears
God knows how much we miss him
At the end of one long year.
LOVING WIFE, CHILDREN, FATHER, SISTERS, BROTHERS, GRAND PARENTS, AUNTS and UNCLES

GWALTNEY — In loving memory of our husband and father, THEODORE W., who passed away June 7, 1964:
What would we give his hand to clasp,
His patient face to see,
To hear his voice, to see his smile,
As in the days that used to be
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more,
In Heaven, that Happy life.
Wife, SARA and Daughter, CAROLYN

HIGGINBOTHAM — In loving memory of my beloved husband, SAMUEL, who passed away June 11, 1962:
Do you know that God above
Created you for me to love?
He picked you out of all the rest
Because He knew I loved you best.
I had a heart, and it was true,
But now it's gone from me to you.
Take care of it, darling; as I have done
For you have two...and I have none.
LOVING WIFE, EMMA

HILL — In loving memory of my dear husband, JAMES E., who passed away seven years ago, June 10, 1959:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance cut last all,
And though days be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance dear JAMES of you.
LOVING WIFE—NETTIE

MARSHALL — In loving memory of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, CYRUS W. MARSHALL SR., who passed away five years ago, June 10, 1961:
We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what

That keep them always close in thought
In memories that last forever,
That time can never change or

MATTHEWS — In loving memory of my husband and our father, SAMUEL W., who passed away June 9, 1963:
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.
Wife, Lois Matthews
EVELYN L. JOHNSON, MAE E. FAIRFAX

SAVAGE — In memory of our loved one, OAKLEY, who passed away June 8, 1962:
God, our father saw the road was getting rough,

He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His ever - patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Devoted Wife, ELAINE BELT

SUTTON — In loving memory of my husband, JAMES, who passed away June 9, 1960:
Today my heart is heavy with sorrow,
My thoughts are all of loss,
Oh, how I miss you husband dear,
None but God in Heaven can see
Some day soon there is going to be a happy meeting
But, no it isn't true,
For six long years have passed away,
And my heart still aches for you.

TURNAGE — In loving memory of our husband and father, WM. LIAM, who passed away June 13, 1961:
Pop was tired and weary,
Weary from toil and pain.
Put aside his glasses,
He'll not need them again.
I'm a Heaven's Mansion be entered;
Never to sigh or weep.
After long years of life's struggle
Pop has fallen to sleep.
You made none a last farewell.
You said goodbye to none.
Your dear heart just ceased to beat,
And suddenly you were gone
At the time when life could be sweeter,
And you could have lived your best.
The gates of Heaven opened,
And you entered into eternal rest.

WIGGINS — In loving memory of our mother, wife and grandmother, GRACE L., who passed away June 8, 1962:
There is no death! Although we grieve
When beautiful, familiar forms
That we love have learned to leave are torn
Form an embracing arms
They are not dead! They but passed
Beyond the mists that blind us here
Into the new and longer life
Of that serener sphere.
