
MOHAWK POOL — Olympic - size pool now under construction at the Baltimore YMCA Camp Mohawk near Huntingtown, Md., will be ready for the camping season which begins next week. Dedication of the pool is set for July 10 at which time memorial plaques for persons and organizations which have contributed $100 or more will also be dedicated. A. P. Moss is director of the camp which serves both boys and girls ages 7 to16.

Camp jobs still open

Camp Greentop still has the following job openings available for summer employment: a dietician, three cooks, three male junior counselors, and a male and female senior counselor to serve as co-leaders in arts and crafts.

The resident summer camp for physically handicapped boys and girls is sponsored by the Baltimore League for Crippled Children and Adults which serves Baltimore City, Baltimore and Howard Counties.

Miss Sally Robinson, camping and recreation director, has urged qualified applicants to contact her at League headquarters, 111 East Cold Spring Lane, TU. 9-0222.

Dave Clark 5 at Civic Center

The Dave Clark 5, on a 8-week, 32 - city tour of the United States, will make a one - night appearance at the Civic Center on Saturday, July 9. On the bill with The Dave Clark 5 will be Mitch Ryder and the Detroit Wheels, and The Swingin' Medallions.

The American four of The Dave Clark 5 will begin with their live appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show on Sunday, June 12. They are the only English group to have appeared there more than 10 times, and have an open invitation to visit the show whenever their schedule permits.

Debutante reception for Deidre Johnson

The beautiful patios of Sterling A. Johnson and his neighbor, Mrs. Louis A. Johnson, was the setting Saturday, when Mr. and Mrs. Sterling A. Johnson received guest in honor of their daughter, Miss Deidre Karen Johnson.

Miss Johnson, who was sponsored by Dr. William H. Beamon, was presented at the Spring Cotillion of the Me-De-So Club.

* * *

PRESENTING a picture of loveliness was the Debutante dressed in French blue taffeta sheath covered with an overdress of matching chiffon. Her accessories were white. She carried a nosegay bouquet of blue and white baby carnations.

Mrs. Norman Watkins, in a two piece silk chiffon in shades of pink and beige and touches of blue, was among guests who were received by Mrs. Sterling Abrams. Mrs. Abrams was attractive in a blue floral ensemble and introduced the guests of the line.

Mrs. Sterling Johnson wore a pale blue crepe sheath adorned with an orchid. Her accessories were white. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Johnson in the receiving line were: Mrs. James Hall of Philadelphia, godmother; Mrs. E. Marie Lewis, paternal grandmother; Mrs. Frances Brown, grandaunt; and Mrs. Louis Johnson.

Mrs. Wayman Holley kept the guest book, and assisting as hostesses were Mrs. George Parrish, Mrs. Irvinton Williams, Mrs. Cassius Mason, and Mrs. Donald Murray.

In keeping with the Debutante's blue color scheme, all of the hostesses were dressed in varying shades of blue and wore blue and white carnation corsages. Norman Watkins, Jr. of this city, and Richard Diehl of Ohio were ushers.

The color scheme was repeated in the table setting.

Appropriate music was provided by the Duframs' String Ensemble.

A canopy and lawn umbrellas and chairs were provided on the lawns for the comfort of the guests. Mother Nature, wearing her best finery, and the elements displaying their best behavior cooperated to enhance the beauty of the affair.

Auxiliary honors Majorie Chatman

Miss Marjorie Chatman, a this year debutante who was presented by the Baltimore chapter of Girl Friends, was honoree at a reception, Sunday.

The reception was given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Funeral Directors and Mortticians Association, the club which sponsored Miss Chatman. The affair was held in the George G. Kelson Funeral Home.

* * *

MISS CHATMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William I. Chatman, and her mother wore pink dresses. The latter's dress was of lace, and the Debutante's a crepe sheath. She carried a nosegay of matching flowers, as did the subdeb, Miss Dorothy Terry.

The hostesses were:

Mesdames Rosa James, who heads the Auxiliary; Mae Locks, Juanita Morton, Juanita Kelson, Alma Wade, Roberta March.

Mesdames Gloria Jones, Elizabeth Phillips, Majoric Chatman, Constance Bailey, Mary Hayes, Doris Rice, Alice Young, Vivian Nutter, June Carroll, Lucille Russ, Helen Brown, Beatrice Gilmore, Lillian Webb and Otella Bullock.

GUESTS WERE:

Messrs. and Mesdames Francis Camp, Joseph Cooper, Willard March, George Nelson, Charles Pinkney, Robert Wade, Maco Thompson, Donald Glover, Harmon Brown.

Mesdames Ella Anderson, Esmarlene Ellicott, Maxine Nicholas, Bessie Scott, Emma Burkett, Bernice Taylor, Eleanor Nicholas, Gloria Jones, Rosa James, Mamie Johnson.

Howard County News

An old fashioned revival will be held at the First Christian Community Church during the month of June. There will be several ministers preaching. The Rev. J. J. Flemming is host minister.

The members of Payne's AME Church are extremely happy to have their pastor, the Rev. F. Holt, back from the conference. Mrs. Agnes Allen and Mrs. Violet Allen were delegates.

Mr. and Mrs. David Allen and Mrs. Violet Allen attended the banquet honoring their bishop, Bishop George W. Baber at the Washington Hilton Hotel.

Children's Day will be at Asbury AME, 6 p.m. Sunday. The Rev. Mrs. Aileen Moore is superintendent and the Rev. Lovell Parham is pastor.

The Rev. Samuel Moore, pastor of Unity Baptist Church, his choirs and congregation will serve at Psalmist Baptist Church, Sunday at 3:30.

Is there really a Tiger in Esso Extra?
Some folks doubt it. But not our customers. They've proved to their own satisfaction that High-energy Esso Extra can bring power back alive.
That the first tankful starts neutralizing power-robbing engine deposits to help prevent hot spots and misfiring. And just a few more tankfuls can clean up a fouled-carburetor to restore lost power and mileage.
And that Esso Extra gives them the high octane for lively performance—to help them pass safely when they need to or take off in a hurry when they enter a freeway. Oh, it's a Tiger all right.
Still skeptical? Try Esso Extra and find out for yourself. "Happy Motoring!"
