McKinnon and Mrs. E. C. B. Hopkins. Mrs. Beautine DeCosta who was out of town sent a check and a breath taking beach bag, traveling iron, perfumes, and even paintings.

The guests not only vied at cards but guests and hostesses took chances on this, that and the other!!

Anything for Core. A bottle of liquids was won by Lil Jones who squealed "the first thing I have ever won this way" Her husband, Tom, and several of the youngsters had gone to Mississippi to participate in the March.

No accurate guest list is available but among those seen were, Mrs. Judith Martin, Betty Fry, Audray Pinderhughes, Mary Robinson, Mary Sprout, Courtney Valetine, Mildred Taylor, Sarah Giles, Mildred Harris, Gloria Phillips, lovely Cardrienne Griffin who is expecting the old long legged stork

The dedicated, serious minded and caring women who sponsored the affair in spite of marriages, receptions, teas, picnics, graduation parties, and meetings were Nikki Randolph, an extremely able chairman; Phalthea Hall, who had the greatest number of guests Arnetta Lottier, Flozella Clark, Mabel Byrd, Julia McDaniels, Lil Jones, Mabel Grant, and the hostess, the exhuberant Dollie Walker, who has returned to Department of Education on a special assignment to the Superintendent; but who is also a consultant for Health, Education and Welfare and still travels all over the U.S. and on occasions outside the states.

It was Dollie who announced that the second Saturday in July (the 9th) at 3 p.m. this group and others will join in the same kind of pastime and fun at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Donald H. Brandon, 1809 Chelsea Road (Rember Gwen Howard and Bernice's yards join) this time the gals will bring their beaus!!
