Miss Anderson feted at debutante party

MISS EUGENIE ANDERSON was honoree at a reception given by her mother, Dr. Eugenie Anderson, recently. Miss Anderson was presented at the Me-De-So's spring cotillion.

The Me - De - So Club was artfully decorated in a color scheme of pink and green for the reception given by Dr. Eugenie Anderson in honor of her daughter, Miss Eugenie Anderson, Saturday evening.

The color scheme was carried out in the carnations and astors which formed the flower arrangements; the large tiered cake, iced in pale pink and green rosebuds, and the pale green frappe, which was a part of the refreshments.

The cake, which was the featured table decor was topped with a horn of plenty, out of which cascaded glazed fruits.

• • •

MISS ANDERSON, who made her debut at the Me-De - So Cotillion in April.

For the reception on Sunday, she wore an empire frock in pistachio green crepe and lace, the top of lace being enter-laced with a forest green velvet. Her shoes matched the dress, and she carried a nosegay of pink and white rosebuds and cymbidium orchids.

Dr. Anderson's gown was of pink silk chantung, worn with matching jacket and shoes.

• • •

ALSO IN the receiving line were Miss Gwendolyn Biddie, wearing a dress of pale pink enhanced with rows of white ruffled lace; Miss Marjorie Lewis, godmother of Miss Anderson, in pale blue peau de soie; Mrs. Charles R. Campbell, wife of the Debutante's Me - De - So sponsor in pink chiffon with matching shoes; and Mrs. Richard Hunt, wearing a two-toned pink and rose raw silk dress with rose shoes.

Mrs. Albert Laforest introduced guests to the line. She wore a dress of pink silk linen with matching shoes. Mesdames Bruce Alleyne and I. Bradshaw Higgins, senior hostesses, chosen dresses of rose beige linen and blue Italian silk, respectively.

The junior hostesses, Misses Roberta Redd and Clara Henson, wore dresses of pink organza and green silk, respectively.

All of the ladies wore corsages of pink and green flowers, while Misses Redd and Henson had wristlets of the same flowers.

Miss Anderson is a student at Syracuse University.

Among guests who called Sunday afternoon were:

June 21, 1966

Greetings:

You have been so thoughtful of me that I can hardly find words to adequately express my appreciation.

So, this is meant to say "THANKS" for the gracious manner in which you participated or expressed your warm sentiments incident to the recent testimonial in my honor at the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel, sponsored by the Historical Society named in my honor. Mrs. Frisby joins me in this expression.

This world is so much nicer because of friends like you.

Again—THANKS

Landlord gets 'mad' about tenant petition

A group of tenants at the Kennedy North Apartments, Rossiter Ave. and the Alameda, are planning to picket their landlord to protest conditions at the year-old development which they say go unimproved because of racial discrimination.

Gilbert Gray, chief of the drafting division of the Baltimore Urban Renewal and Housing Agency and leader of the tenants' group, said picketing at the offices of Charles St. Steffey, Inc., in the Lexington St., would be held from noon to 1 p.m. Friday, and had been assured support from CORE.

Mr. Gray said he had given a petition signed by all but one of the 126 tenants in the development Wednesday to King White, residential manager for Steffey, Inc., which is the landlord of the development.

• • •

THE PETITION, which listed complaints of the tenants, was accepted by Mr. White but no promises were made to act on it, Mr. Gray said.

The complaints were failure to remove trash from the laundry room; lights out in entrance areas, hallways and basements; and failure to maintain hallways in a clean and safe condition.

Other problems not on the petition included holes in wall, mice and roaches in apartments and, in one case, water coming into a tenant's kitchen whenever it rained, Mr. Gray said.

HE CLAIMED that Mr. White had refused for the most part to act on these complaints since the development was open, despite the fact that rents at Kennedy North were higher than at two developments of the same design run by Mr. Steffey in white areas. All but one of the tenants at Kennedy North are colored.

Where he was paying $123.50 plus utilities for a two-bedroom apartment, Mr. Gray said, a similar Steffey-operated apartment in Essex, with free heat, air conditioning and hot water, rented for only $100 a month.

• • •

MR. WHITE, reached at the Steffey office, called Mr. Gray a "troublemaker" and said the conditions mentioned in the petition had been corrected.

"Mr. Gray is being very unfair about this. I'm very mad. It's true we had some maintenance problems, but they don't prevail any more."

Mr. White said he didn't know why so many tenants had signed the petition, but maintained the issue was brought up primarily because Mr. Gray "has to have something to do."

"He has an ax to grind. I've never had a tenant before like Mr. Gray," Mr. White claimed.

A second section of the development containing another 126 units will be opened next month, he added.

Knox Church to honor Wm. Barber

The Knox United Presbyterian Church cited Elder William L. Barber on Father's Day to be honored on Layman Sunday, Oct. 16, as one of the distinguished fathers of the church.

His wife, Mrs. Mamie Barber, will share the honor with him.

Mr. Barber has given yeoman's service in the church in all areas.

He is only absent from the regular worship service and prayer service when he is out of the city.

His children, Mrs. Sarah Richardson, Mrs. Stella Boyd, Mrs. Evelyn Boyd, Mrs. Willie Moore, Mrs. Maisie Brown and Lynn Barber, along with his many grandchildren, are church workers.

AFRO cited for savings bonds effort

The AFRO was one of the area news media presented U. S. Savings Bonds 15th anniversary patriotic awards this week at the Rotary Club luncheon at the Emerson Hotel.

John H. Murphy III, president of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, accepted the award which cited the AFRO "for patriotic service in support of the U. S. Savings Bond program."

William H. Neal, assistant to the Secretary of the treasury and national director of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division, commended the award recipients for their contribution of keeping citizens informed of the significance of the Savings bond program.

• • •

MR. NEAL said $49½ billion dollars in potential purchasing power among citizens in the U. S. had been raised since the bond drive began. In 1965, $4½ billion worth of bonds were purchased and of that total, $83 million were bought by Marylanders.

The speaker estimated that over the years $540 million U. S. Savings Bonds have been bought in Maryland and represents deferred spending for the state.

President Lyndon Johnson was quoted, "We must all do our share to support our men in Viet Nam. One sure way is open to all Americans through the Savings Bonds program.
