MRS. ANNIE JOHNSON
To mark 100th birthday

Never too late; even after 100-year wait

Mrs. Annie Johnson of the [illegible] attended Baltimore [illegible] McElderry St. [illegible] Missionary Baptist [illegible] 1200 [illegible] Court is public schools. [illegible] Johnson has been [illegible] more than any [illegible] almost [illegible] and [illegible] her parents died [illegible] regular church member and feels that her slowness to [illegible] awaited [illegible] centennial [illegible] brought up by the [illegible] in several organiza- [illegible] the church has [illegible] birthday [illegible] Harry Johnson [illegible] such as the Power life [illegible] that there is [illegible] Union Baptist Church [illegible] Circle, Choir and Usher [illegible] getting news [illegible] Ladies she joined the First Ward [illegible] She is [illegible] more [illegible] Bethel Church on Carolina [illegible] SHE IS still a member of [illegible] but believed erroneously, as do perhaps others, that the charge would be more than she could afford.

She came prepared to pay [illegible] to [illegible] and learned [illegible] surprise that AFRO policy has always been no charge for news.

Mrs. Johnson is alert, but reported she has a slight hearing defect.

Her only relatives are nieces who live out of town.

Tragically, Mrs. Johnson waited almost a century to inquire about having her picture printed.

There is an additional touch of irony.

Mrs. Johnson will never see the picture she chose to put to the AFRO after waiting so long — she is blind.

In Memoriams

BLACK — In loving memory of our beloved son, and our dear brother, HERBERT BLACK JR., who passed away June 24, 1965.
Some may think you are forgotten,
Though on earth you'll be no more.
But in memory you are with us,
As you were always before.
Blessed are they whose memories we cherish.
Our thoughts are jewels to their crown.
Loving MOTHER
And FATHER
SISTERS and BROTHERS

BULLITT — In loving memory of my husband, CHARLES M., who passed away June 25, 1965.
We walked together, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy.
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love.
For thru the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky—
Our glad eternity.
Loving Wife, EVELYN

CLARK — In loving memory of our husband and father, JAMES, who passed away June 24, 1963.
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past.
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving WIFE
And CHILDREN

EPPS — In loving memory of my husband, WILLIAM H. EPPS, who passed away June 26, 1963.
God made lots of beautiful things,
Gorgeous sunsets and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends.
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare
More loving and more true.
Of all God's gifts, the one most fair
A husband as dear as you.
Loving Wife, GRANGIE

LEE — In loving memory of my grandmother, ALICE VIRGINIA, who passed away, June 18, 1964.
I do not forget her. I love her too dearly
For my memory to fade from my life like a dream.
My lips need not speak when my heart doth affect,
For, great Allen dwells where it seldom goes.
Loving Granddaughter,
BARBARA A. MYERS

PALMER — In loving memory of our dear wife and sister, LEDORA S. PALMER, who passed away this life June 24, 1956.
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain.
To have to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of the heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never.
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
Her Devoted Husband,
EDGAR PALMER
And Sister,
ESTHER D. SMITH

SAVAGE — In memory of my husband, CHARLES who passed away June 18, 1961.
A light has gone from our house hold,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home,
That never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten,
But in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.
Wife, MAMIE
Children and
GRANDCHILDREN

SEBREE — In loving memory of our dear brother, JOHN, who passed away June 24, 1964.
We miss you dear brother.
We miss your smiling face.
There can never be another to fill the empty space.
Someday we'll meet you in the clouds beyond the sky.
You can't imagine how hard it was for us to say good-bye.
Sister's, ALICE L. HANDY
INEZ V. MARTIN
And
CHARLES G. SEBREE

SMITH — In loving memory of our son, SIDNEY T., who passed away June 25, 1965.
A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more;
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
MOTHER, FATHER
And FAMILY

WADE — In memory of our loved one, VERNON F., who passed away June 25, 1965.
I cannot say, I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
His needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you — Oh, you, who the wilderness of sorrow
Follow the old-time step and glad refrain,
Think of him faring on, as dear,
In the love of There, as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same, I say;
He is not dead — he is just away.
WIFE, BROTHER
And SISTER-IN-LAW

WILDS — In loving memory of our loved one RAYMOND, who passed away June 22, 1964.
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you.
Life has never been the same
In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly, tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear loved one,
That we do not think of you.
FAMILY and FRIENDS

In Memoriams

WOOD — In loving memory of our dear mother, ANNIE ROBINSON, who passed away June 26, 1966.

Your memory to us is a keepsake,
With which we shall never part.
Though God has you in His keeping,
We still have you in our hearts.
Children, MOSES I. HEARNS
SUSIE HEARNS CLARK
CLARA HEARNS HAYNES
Grandchildren.

DR. WILSON R. DICKERSON
FRANCES D. HUGGARD

KEAPING — In loving memory of our mother, MABEL, who passed away June 23, 1958.
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days.
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind.
Beautiful memories she left behind.
