Terrell fumes as defense against Doug Jones nears

HOUSTON (UPI) — Two things make big heavyweight boxer Ernie Terrell mad.

The first is Cassius Clay. The second is referring to Terrell as the "World Boxing Association Heavyweight champion."

The 6 - foot - 6 - foot titleholder touched on both during a news conference Tuesday with Doug Jone, the second-ranked WBA challenger who meets Terrell Tuesday night for the championship here.

The fight will be shown on closed circuit TV at National Guard Armory in Washington and at Civic Center in Baltimore.

"It is not fair to Jones or myself to refer to the championship as the WBA championship," Terrell said.

"The rules keep boxing from becoming a street fight. Clay broke the rules and was stripped of the title and I won out in the elimination."

• • •

TERRELL SAID that Clay's advisers are a problem. "The heavyweight champ of New York should get some more sensible people as counselors, Terrell said.

The 5 - foot - 11 Jones got a big laugh when he ribbed Terrell about his guitar playing. Big Ernie has a Rock 'n Roll band called "Ernie Terrell and the heavyweights."

"It's a good thing you play the strings and not the horn," Jones said, "because I'm gonna punch you in the mouth."

THE FIGHT will be nationally televised over a closed circuit network, with Terrell getting 40 per cent of the proceeds and 20 per cent going to Jones.

Terrell said he would use a new style to fight Jones and promised there would be "Hell in the ring."

"I'm looking to beat him," Jones said, "I want to tell him I'll knock him out, but predictions, like I said, don't always turn out."

Jones has won 37 of 44 fights, 25, of them by knockout, has lost six and fought to one draw. Terrell's 38 victories include 18 knockouts and four losses.

Versalles due back, may need surgery

ROCHESTER, Minn. (UPI) —Minnesota Twins shortstop Zoilo Versalles, hampered by torn muscles that caused a blood clot near his right shoulder blade, may seek the help of a specialist in the field in Detroit today (Friday).

Dr. William Proffitt, club physician, said Tuesday Versalles would probably forego surgery at season's end if his condition continued to improve.

Terrell (I'm Champ') meets Jones Tuesday

Comparing Cassius Clay to Barry Goldwater and golfer Doug Sanders, Ernie Terrell said Thursday that he (Terrell) the only legitimate heavyweight champion of the world, and it is that title which he will be defending Tuesday night when he meets Joe Jones of New York, in Houston, Texas.

The match, billed as the World Boxing Association heavyweight title promotion, will be seen on closed - circuit, television in Washington and Baltimore.

In D.C.it will be shown at the National Guard Armory, and in Baltimore it will presented at the Civic Center.

• • •

"CLAY IS regarded as champion in only two states. Goldwater won two states in the presidential election, but nobody considers him President of the United States.

"Sanders is a good golfer who failed to sign his card in a big tournament. He violated the rule which says cards must be signed, and so he couldn't claim the championship.

"Clay signed a return-bout clause contract when he ought Sonny Liston. He violated the rules, he knew he was violating them, so he can't cry unfair because they said he isn't the champion."

• • •

ASKED WHAT he thought of Clay as a fighter, Terrell declared he'd rather not think about Clay — one way or the other. Then, an afterthought, Ernie replied: "He's like Sanders was in the tournament."

Terrell, who holds stature as the champion in the eyes of the WBA, was joined by challenger Jones, contender Cleveland Williams and upand - coming Tod Herring in an open - telephone interview with Eastern newsmen Thursday. The Washington writers were hosted by Promoter Bill Campbell at the Touchdown Club prior to the call to Houston.

"Let's get one thing clear," an irked Terrell insisted at the outset of the interview. "I am the heavyweight champion. I am defending that title here Tuesday night against Joe Jones."

• • •

WHEN REMINDED that few people recognized the WBA's authority to dismantle Clay and identify its own champion, Ernie asserted: "That's because the people either don't know better or have not thought about it. In that one, he was just another golfer. Clay's just another fighter in my book."

The Terrell - Jones bout will follow a 10-round match between Williams and Herring. The latter fight will go on screens at 10:15 p.m. originally, the title go was scheduled to open the Tele-Prompter program, but the order was reversed early Thursday for an undisclosed reason.

• • •

AN ESTIMATED 67 locations have been signed for the TV doubleheader, the fight ever shown involving four men rated at the top of their division.

Terrell and Jones also will be competing in the first heavyweight title bout in Houston, long considered one of the best boxing cities in the Southwest.—SAM LACY

In Baltimore, the closed circuit fight will be seen at the Civic Center and colorful Hulbert has initiated something new aimed at attracting women fans.

Tickets for the 25 rounds (or less) have been pegged at $3, $4 and $6 but for women, all the tickets are going for half price.

Famed as radio deejay and innovator known widely as the "living legend," Hot Rod took the Clay-Chuvalo fight in the last few days and won bouquets from the promoters for his handling of the screen showing.

Tickets are on sale at the Civic Center box office.

Clay gets $300G bid to fight 'a young man'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Promoter Lou Thomas said this week that he is offering Cassius Clay a $300,000 guarantee to defend his world heavyweight title against Thad Spencer at the Cow Palace in October.

"Spencer is the only man in the heavyweight ranks who can beat Clay," Thomas said.

• • •

SPENCER himself told a press conference that he wanted to challenge Clay on a winner-take-all basis and claimed that the champion is restricting his opponents to "old men."

"In his last four bouts," Spencer said, "Clay fought Sonny Liston who was on his last legs, Floyd Patterson who no longer had the ability or desire to win, George Chuvalo, a punching bag, and Henry Cooper, an Englishman with an ability to bleed."

The challenger also claimed that he is learning a "poison punch" from a karate instructor.

Jonh H. Johnson cut by Steelers

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Steelers have announced the release of veteran fullback John Henry Johnson.

Dan Rooney, Steelers vice president, said Johnson was signed for the 1966 season but in a recent letter expressed dissatisfaction with his contract.

"The letter had a general tone of discontent," Rooney said.

Johnson is an 11 - year veteran of the National Football League.

He originally was drafted by the Steelers but elected to play in the Canadian League. In 1954 he returned to the NFL but played with the San Francisco 49ers. He also saw action with the Detroit Lions.
