NEW ENON CO-PASTOR

'For me, it is like a dream unfolding..'

REV. JAMES E. THOMAS — REV. A. J. PAYNE

NEW CO-PASTOR — The Rev. Mr. Thomas of Hampton, Va., assumes duties as co-minister of Baltimore's Enon Baptist Church, where the Rev. Mr. Payne has been minister for 43 years.

By BETTYE MOSS

'For me, it is like a dream unfolding . . I feel a great honor has been extended to me to assist Dr. Payne, and to help continue the work at Enon . . .'

The Rev. James E. (for Edward) Thomas 3rd, of Hampton, Va., was reacting to his new post as co-minister of Enon Baptist, famed Baltimore Church, with over 1,400 members.

The Rev. Arthur J. Payne, 72, Enon pastor for 43 years, will introduce his 33 - year-old associate to the congregation at the Sunday morning communion service. He will preach his first sermon entitled, 'At His Table.'

* * *

A NATIVE of Baltimore, the Rev. Mr. Thomas returns home after ten years as minister of First Baptist in Hampton.

He recalled Dr. Payne had first asked him to serve as his associate five years ago.

'Today, I feel a sense of humility. I knew Dr. Payne as a child. We lived in the same neighborhood. I was his AFRO boy.

'He has been a great inspiration to me because of his participation in the civic and religious affairs of the state. I am humbled to be asked to serve with this great leader . . .'

* * *

MAJOR PROGRAM facing the new co - pastors the building of the A. J. Payne Christian Center

It will be constructed on a site adjoining the church at Schroeder St. and Edmondson Ave.

Houses have already been demolished for the project which is expected to cost in excess of the $250,000 estimated three years ago.

* * *

PLANS FALL for the Center to be open seven days a week with a staff of five.

Said the Rev. Mr. Thomas: 'With additional space, we will have an opportunity to attract more people and serve the community.

'I visualize our young people, as well as our senior citizens, as being able to enlarge their programs. This is a great challenge.'

Mother of Enon's new co-pastor is Mrs. Mabel A. Turner, 3011 Rayner Ave. His father, James E. Thomas 2nd, a government employee, died in 1949.

He has a sister, Mrs. Celestine C. Reid, a nurse's aide at Lutheran Hospital.

The Rev. Mr. Thomas credits his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. James H. White (Jennie), for providing 'the real spiritual force in my life.'

Mr. and Mrs. White have lived at 904 Bennett Place in Northwest Baltimore for 47 years. He is a retired Sun Life employee.

* * *

'THEY WERE longtime members of Leadenhall Baptist Church. I grew up in the church and I was ordained there by the Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Davis.

'At our house, there were morning prayer and Bible reading before breakfast.

'It was understood that you went to church on Sunday.'

As an afterthought, the young minister added, 'all day long.'

* * *

THE REV. MR. Thomas is a 1952 graduate of Douglass High, where he was a member of the track team.

He has fond memories of his coaches, Wrenty Payne and the late Duck Gibson and Melvin Cade.

* * *

HIS COLLEGE record: One year at Morgan, 1956; A.B. degree from Va. Union University; 1959, B.D. degree, Va. Union School of Religion; 1960, certificate Medical College of Va., so I could do counseling in religion for the sick.'

First and only pastorate was Hampton's First Baptist, which he served while still in college.

'I commuted and stayed in school, which proves if you want to work and go to college you can do it.

FAMILY: The minister's wife is the former Jean Walker of Richmond. They married in 1957.

She is a Va. Union grad. she has been on the Hampton faculty. They have a daughter, Jaquelyn, 7.

Prayers For The Target City

We, a group* of Baltimore citizens, welcome the opportunity afforded by C.O.R.E.'s choosing Baltimore as its Target City. We share C.O.R.E.'s intent to improve the conditions of Baltimore's Negro citizens, and to gain them acceptance and opportunity in the community. We hold that this can be done without bitterness or violence.

We hold that lasting correction of racial and religious inequities may best be effected by a change in man's attitudes. The selfish become unselfish; the indifferent become concerned; the wrongheded become rightheaded through the grace of God.

Baltimore has a wonderful opportunity to set a pattern for racial reform by peaceful means.

To all people of good will, we issue a call for cooperation in our effort to promote calmness, good will, and mutual respect and understanding. To this end, we ask all who pray to join us every morning and evening in prayer. To provide solidarity in this movement, we publish this prayer for this week:

Father in Heaven:

We thank Thee for all groups who are moved to improve the conditions of Baltimore's Negro citizens and to gain for them acceptance in the community. Direct and bless them in their efforts. Look with patience upon those who have become impatient. In Thy great mercy, give them wisdom and understanding that some things must be earned and that true freedom and dignity come only from Thee.

May we have peace, we pray Thee, in our City, and justice, equity, and good will for all of our citizens.

Amen

* This group consists of laymen of Jewish, Catholic, and Protestant faiths.
