themselves into groups of three to ply her with some of the most beautiful lingerie, gloves and bags. Henry, the perfect host, mixed the "sours" for a fun filled afternoon.

Eula Watkins is president of the club, and other club members about were Milburn Brown, Bea Nixon, Ada Weaver, Iris Mapp, Irma Dancy, Ida Smith, Evelyn Nixon West, Helen Cothorn, Florence Ringgold, Dot Brown and Frances Ashby.

Guests were Dot Wood, Cleo Diggs, Iona Collins, Elizabeth Williams, Thelma Bell, Mabel Denkins, Shirley Watkins, Adelle Foreman, Emma Bright, Gwen Seaborne, Florine Thomas and Alice Pinderhughes.

Talk about some snazzy outfits for a 90 degree day — take Lil's beige linen suit with black and beige shoes. Her jewelry was black and biege Siamese cameo with earrings to match. Dot Wood's white suit which had stripes of pale purple. Gwen Seaborne's original creation of white with thin shoulder straps; or Dot Brown's yellow linen, embroidered in red.

On Tuesday night, when Lillian was hostess to the We Wives club, members sneaked a shower umbrella and gifts from next door and set up the gift table while Lil was in the kitchen.

Gifts carried out Lil's fondness for green, in glass and linens. They ranged from a frothy nightie to a bottle of cold champagne, with glasses as part of the gift.

The group heard from member Hiawatha Shaw in California, who has been ailing. Josephine Brown is the new president of the club, and Margery Prout conducted this, the last meeting of the year.

About were Gwen Tarter, Ida Smith, Ada Weaver, Margaret Armstrong, Mae Dyson, Adelle Foreman, Margaret Hythe, Roberta Keets, Priscilla Lansey, Iris Mapp, Agnes Reaves and Ruby Reid.

Love that Priscilla Lansey — on Sunday at reception for Vashti Smith she was decked in all yellow including yellow kid gloves.

On Tuesday night she was in all red linen with red kid gloves and shoes to match.

SORORS OF KAPPA Chapter, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, awarded scholarships to four young women when they met at the Central Branch YWCA, here on Saturday.

Recipients included Miss Geraldine Ransom of Douglass High School. Miss Joan Underwood of Dunbar High School, who will attend the colleges of their choice, and Miss Barbara Dyson and Mrs. Hermena Butler, students at the Cortez Peters Business School who will pursue their second year at that school.

The sorors took advantage of this time to present a gift to Soror Jessie Nicholson, who is leaving the Chapter and Baltimore to make her home (new ranch style built by Soror Nicholson and her husband) in North Carolina near Durham.

Under the skillful direction of Soror Naomi Lee who wrote the original skit, the sorors presented "This Is Your Life" depicting various phases of Soror Nicholson's life and at the end presented her with a Sunbeam Mixmaster.

Members in attendance were:

Sorors Thelma Jiggets, Hazel Hyman, Blanche Pelliford, Mildred Noel, Helen Weatherford, Vivian Young, Mary Crump, Isabel McConnell, Gladys Ball, Fannie Poulson, Mary Ames, Marie Lewis, Marion Ransom, Jessie Nicholson, Ethel Douglass, Margaret Robinson, Claudine Harden.

THE WOMAN'S Auxiliary to the Monumental City Medical Society met recently for their closing meeting at the home of Mrs. Samuel Owings, Jr.

Guest speaker for the evening was Gerald Moasnow, executive director, State of Maryland Commission on the Asing.

Mrs. Earl Clay presided at the meeting.

Members present included: Mesdames Emerson Waldron, Lawrence Zollicoffer, Claude Hill, Carl Clay, Shirley Clinton, Charles Venter, Joshua Mitchell, Mary Bacote, Atwell Jones, John Chissell, R. Garland Chissell, H. Garland Chissell, Roland Snott, George Faredelton; Mesdames Charles Campbell, Thomas Jones, Archie Robinson, McDonald Bando, C. Arthur Lamb, Donald Hughes, James Washington, J. Douglas Sheppard, Carlson Johnson, and James Priest.

SPEAKING OF barbecues, it was a real posh one that Phyllis Diggs threw when she asked a host of friends to don patio clothes and join her in celebrating her husband, Bob's birthday Saturday evening.

The spacious front and back lawns of their home were gaily decorated with tables — umbrellas, patio lights and lawn torches. A large canopy housed tables laden with a variety of gourmet dishes while several grills turned out succulent ribs and chicken barbecued Texas style, and prepared by the hostess herself.

Long before it was time to sing the usual "Happy Birthday" to the guest of honor, David Dobson, Mike Bisco and Fred Peck had played mood music on the piano, which the hostess had had moved to the outside for the Parents hosts to Miss Connie Perry

Miss Connie Bernadette Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Perry, and a current debutante, was honored at a reception given by her parents, Saturday afternoon, in the Elegante Room, Forest Park Ave.

Miss Perry, a sophomore nursing student at the University of Maryland, was presented by the Me - De - So Club at the April Cotillion.

FOR THE reception, Miss Perry was radiant in an empire dress of yellow crepe and peau de sole, a yellow rose enhancing the waist at front. Yellow shoes complimented the dress. She wore short white gloves. Her jewels were pearl necklace and earrings, and she carried a nosegay of yellow and white roses accented with yellow and blue ribbons.

The Elegante Room was further decorated with the numerous floral gifts. Dávis Dobson, pianist, provided the background music.

GUESTS WERE greeted at the door by Miss Sharon Smothers, who kept the guest book. Miss Patricia Jackson presented the guests to Miss Gwendolyn Biddle, who introduced them to the receiving line.

In the line with Mr. and Mrs. Perry and Mis Perry were Dr. Benjamin Kimbers the Debutante's sponsor, and Mrs. Kimbers; Mrs. Cassie Perry of Suffork, Va., her grandmother; Exum Copeland, her grandfather; Mrs. Vera Sharples, godmother; and Messrs. and Mesdames Frederick Copeland and Spelton Bevina, uncles and aunts.
