Miss Vashti Smith reception honoree

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. S. Edward Smith entertained in honor of their debutante granddaughter and daughter, Miss Vashti Murphy Smith, Sunday.

The reception was held on the lawn of the home of Dr. and Mrs. Murphy in Morgan Park. Miss Smith, who was presented by the Me - De - So Club in April, is a sophomore at Morgan State College, where she is member of the Spokesmans staff and the Pyramid Club of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. For the past two years she has been teen-age columnist for the AFRO-AMERICAN. She is the oldest granddaughter of Dr. Murphy and the namesake of the late Vashti Turley Murphy, one of the Alpha Theta Sorority.

• • •

THE RECEPTION used yellow as the color scheme, with members of the We Wives, Firesiders and Philomathian clubs, and the cousins of Misses Smith wearing ensembles in that color. They wore corsages in that color, sparked by orange.

Mrs. Smith and her daughter wore sister dresses of yellow linen. The mother's corsage was a yellow orchid. The debutante carries a nosegay of orange and yellow mums, the gift of the We Wives Club.

• • •

HOSTESSES AT the tables on the lawn included Mesdames Vivian Cook, Althea Cornish and Flossie Dedmond. Serving at the punch bowls at the reception table which was draped in yellow net and flowers were Mesdames Agnes Reaves, Dorothy Wood, Ruby Reid, Mae Dyson, Ada Weaver, Iris Mapp, Roberta Kels, Priscilla Lanaey, Evelyn West, Bea Nixon, Milburne Brown, Helen Cothorn and Dorothy Brown.

Junion hostesses included Misses Aloha McCulough, Pat Hayes, Elaine Thomas, Betty and Bonnie Matthews, Mrs. Toni Wood Peck.

Greeting guests on the front lawn were Misses Rachael Philips, Susan Wood, Yvete Shipley, Bruce Henderson, and Benjamin Phillips.

Music for the reception was aranged by William Meredith Birche Jr. who played many of his own original songs, some composed when he and Mrs. Smith were classmates at Douglas High Schol. Mrs. Beatrice Wright helped create the yellow reception table.

Fruit Elegante

It's summertime, so make the dessert easy on the homemaker and easy on the eye all at the same time.

"Fresh Fruit Elegante," assembled ahead of time and chilled, cuts down on last - minute dinner chores and provides a refreshing, elegant - looking hot-weather dessert. It features golden fresh nectarin slices, cherry halves and melon balls in a spiced orange - and - lemon - flavored sauce sure to please all palates.

• • •

THIS YEAR'S California nectarine crop is exceptional in both quantity and quality. The tangy fruit with its fuzz - free, red - and - gold skins will be in markets all summer long to pamper appetites any time of day.

Make Fresh Fruit Elegante with one - fourth cup brown sugar, packed, two tablespoons cornstarch, two cups orange juice, one teaspoon grated lemon rind, three tablespoons lemon juice, dash nutmeg, six whole cloves,

Also one stick cinnamon (3 inches), three cups sliced fresh nectarines, two cups halved pitted Bing cherries, two cups melon balls and one - half pint dairy sour cream (optional).

Combine sugar and cornstarch in small saucepan. Gradually blend in orange juice until smooth. Add lemon rind and juice, nutmeg, cloves and cinnamon. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Cool. Pour over nectarines, cherries and melon balls. Chill 2 to 3 hours. Serve plain or topped with sour cream. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

Western Maryland, ho!

Come to the land of the friendly fish. The lake and mountain country of Western Maryland.

Head west on historic U. S. 40, the old National Pike. Everything is there for you. Fishing, swimming, boating, breathtaking mountain views, hiking and cool, cool sleeping. Take your pick, or take it all.

There are a number of fine motels and hotels throughout the area. But here's a tip. Be sure to call ahead for reservations. After 8 p.m. weekdays and all day Sundays, you can make a three-minute station call to any place in Maryland for only 40 cents or less.

How about checking on those friendly fish in person next weekend?

Barbecued ribs favorite fare

Barbecued spareribs are a favorite out - door dish.

Practically every cook has his or her version of a recipe for the sauce that makes the barbecue. But, here's one that you will find tasty.

This recipe serves six.

YOU WILL need three pounds of spareribs, some fat for browning, 5 tablespoons chopped onion, the juice of one lemon, three tablespoons vinegar, a tablespoon Worcestershire sauce,

Two tablespoons brown sugar, a cup of tomatoes, a half cup catsup, one and a half teaspoons salt, an eighth teaspoon pepper, and a teaspoon prepared mustard.

Cut ribs into six servings. Brown well on all sides. Add remaining ingredients. Cover tightly and simmer for one hour.
