Mr. Edward C. Papenfuse
State Archivist and Commissioner of Land Patents
P. O. Box 828
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Papenfuse:

Allow me to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 8 agreeing to the conditions stated in my letter of June 3 relative to micro-filming our parish records. I am only too happy to clarify the points you raised.

You are quite correct in noting that my understanding is that access to records less than 100 years old is being restricted. In fact a clarification is needed here as well. The records which are being restricted are not those concerning marriages and deaths but only baptismal records. The purpose of this restriction is related to such matters as adoption and illegitimacy.

Permission is readily granted to have a member of your professional staff examine reels of film containing restricted records for a search of records dating before 1877 on an individual request basis. It is understood that these reels will not be available to the public. You may sell to the Maryland Historical Society those reels which contain restricted as well as unrestricted records only if they are able to guarantee the same understanding.

Hoping that this presents any clarification needed, I am

Sincerely yours,

William D. Borders

Archbishop of Baltimore

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

St. Mary of the Annunciation
Lonaconing

Lonaconing lies in the George's Creek Valley of Allegany County, a town created by the development of the George's Creek Coal and Iron Company which began operations in 1837. The first Catholics in the area were Germans who attended services at Cumberland and Arnold's Station, now known as Mount Savage. For a time itinerant priests served Catholics in Lonaconing until the Redemptorists began their ministry there in 1843. Father Newman assembled a congregation of German Catholics and held services in the "stone house" in Knapps Valley until 1865. Irish Catholics moved into the area during the late 1850's and were tended by priests from St. Michael in Frostburg.

Encouraged by the Archbishop, efforts were made to construct a church where all Lonaconing Catholics could worship together. Foundations were started in 1859 but lack of funds and the Civil War delayed construction of the building. The church was not completed until Christmas 1865. During construction, the Redemptorists and Archbishop Eccleston had intended the church be named St. Raphael but it ultimately became known as St. Mary of the Annunciation. For several years the church was a mission of St. Michael (Frostburg) and later put in the charge of the Carmelites.

In 1870, Father James O'Brien began his thirteen year pastorate at St. Mary's and also served a mission at Barton. During this period a rectory was built and a school was constructed.
