Tan players batting .667 in All-Star Game berths

By SAM LACY

Assuming that Earl Battey will be one of the two catchers to be named momentarily to the Major League All-Star Game roster, colored players are boasting a .667 average in starting berths for the 37th Classic.

The office of the Commissioner earlier in the week, announced that player choices for infield and outfield assignments for the game July 12, at St. Louis,

* * *

OF THESE 14 berths, 9 are filled by tan stars. In the light of Battey's strong support for the American League catching slot opposite Atlanta's Joe Torre, it appears virtually certain that 10 of the 15 starters for the game will be colored.

The National League, winner of 8 of the last 10 contests, will take the field with an all-tan outfield and an infield that is three-fourths colored.

* * *

HANK AARON who collected more votes than any player in the balloting, will be in the NL outfield. The Atlanta Braves' slugger will be joined by San Francisco's great Willie Mays and Pittsburgh's 2-time batting champion, Roberto Clemente, in the senior league sweep.

San Francisco's Jim Hart and Willie McCovey, and Cincinnati's Leo Cardenas comprise 75 percent of the NL infield.

* * *

IN THE AL, Baltimore's Frank Robinson and Minnesota's Tony Oliva join Detroit's Al Kaline as outfield starters.

Boston's George Scott, hurtling toward rookie-of-the-year honors, will be seen in the AL starting infield.

Summarizing, colored picks are lodged in 5 of the 6 starting outfield positions, and 4 of the 8 infield assignments.

Frank Robinson joins select All-Star circle

NEW YORK (UPI) — Frank Robinson learns how the other half lives when the Baltimore slugger starts for the American League All-Stars in the annual mid-season baseball classic in St. Louis on July 12.

Robinson drew a high of 251 votes among A.L. outfielders named for the 37th All-Star game. He played for the National League All-Stars last year as a member of the Cincinnati Reds.

* * *

ROBINSON WILL be only the fifth player to see action for both All-Star squads.

Pitchers Jim Bunning and Schoolboy Rowe were members of the Detroit A.L. and Philadelphia N. L. teams; Johnny Temple was the second baseman for Cincinnati and Cleveland, and Johnny Mize wore the uniforms of the St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees in All-Star Competition.

Governor's cinder meet for youngsters Aug. 13

The first annual statewide Governor's Youth Olympic track and field program will be held at Hughes Memorial Stadium, Morgan State College, on August 13.

The program and the events will, in effect, be a revival of the old annual Playground Athletic League track and field meet which was discontinued in 1935, and which brought together boys and girls from the counties and the city to compete in track and field events.

Trials will be held in the counties and in Baltimore city and the winners of these trials will participate at Morgan to determine the state champions.

Boys and girls between the ages of 9 to 18 are eligible to compete in their respective counties in the elimination events in the midget, junior, intermediate and senior divisions which are being held prior to the Baltimore meet.

Events will include two track and two field competitions in each division.

Horn and Kemp score for U.S.

HELSINKI (UPI) —TourING American track stars Darrell Horn, John Pairry and Jim Kemp extended [illegible] themselves Wednesday night to score close victories at the Hannes Kolehmainen Memorial championships opened in cold, rainy weather.

Horn, a spring - legged long jumper from Oakland, Calif., won his speciality with his best jump of the year at 25 feet, 11 inches to edge by three inches Finland's Rainer Stenius, who recently copped the NCAA championships in the United States for Los Angeles State.

* * *

PERRY, a swift half - miler from Oklahoma State, captured the 800 meters in 1:50.5, followed by Jaako Tuominen of Finland and Pavel Hruska of Czechoslovakia.

Kentucky State's Kemp sprinted the 200 meters in 21.2 to nip Russia's Kalju Jurkatamm, who earlier had placed third in the 100 behind Hideo Ijima of Japan and Chuck Kanoy of the U.S.

Clay-Terrell bout reported in works

HOUSTON (UPI) — Ernie Terrell is reported pondering lucrative offers to fight Cassius Clay, Cleveland Williams and Zora Folley the next time he defends his World Boxing Association (WBA) heavyweight crown.

Terrell said he was "ready to fight anybody" but that "money comes first" in talking about who the next challenger will be.

Terrell bested Doug Jones Tuesday, showing only a half-dollar-sized lump between the eyes and a small cut near his eye — both, Terrell said, from butting. He also complained his hands were still sore" from hitting Jones' head.

* * *

GEORGE HAMID JR. of Atlantic City, Terrell's advisor, did most of the talking at Terrell's news conference. From what Hamid said, Williams loomed as the most likely next opponent for Terrell.

Chris Dundee of Miami Beach told Hamid and Terrell that he would bid $200,000 for a Terrell-Williams match and guarantee the champion $150,000 or 50 per cent of "everything."

Hamid said he got a "loose" offer of $150,000 from a Reno promoter for Terrell for fighting Folley in Reno or anywhere else.

* * *

IRVING SCHOENWALD, who was to have promoted the ill-fated Terrell-Caly fight in Chicago before the Illinois Boxing Commission condemned Clay because of his refusal with the draft also got in the act.

WEEDLESS

Replace treble hooks on plugs with doubles, barb up. You'll find them surprisingly weedless.

They'll work through weeds, rocks, etc. without hanging up.

Schoenwald said he would "without a doubt" match Dundee's financial offer for a bout in Chicago with "several opponents in mind."

Schoenwald told UPI the other opponents actually boiled down to Clay.

He said he felt sure a Clay-Terrell bout would get clearance in Illinois now because "Clay's image has changed." He said he had been meeting with Clay representatives and would do so again next Tuesday.

City College principalship heads school appointments

At its special meeting Wednesday to consider the teachers' salary crisis, the School Board also moved to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of City College Principal Julius G. Hlubb and his wife, Evelyn, principal of Jane Addams Junior-Senior High School.

Both Dr. Hlubb and his wife resigned after the conflict with School Superintendent Laurence G. Paquin on his plan to make City College a comprehensive high school.

The Board aproved Jerome Dennburg, now principal of Forest Park High School, to take over the head position at City College.

The Board in its action said the new principal would be obligated to carry out the future course outlined for City College in its recent acceptance of the Paquin Plan for the high schools.

Dr. Dennburg graduated from City College and served as a science teacher there. He received B.S. and masters degrees from the University of Maryland and earned his Doctor of Education degree from Columbia University.

* * *

SIDNEY N. CHERNAK, assistant superintendent for Secondary, vocational and Adult Education, said Dr. Dennburg's appointment and the other personel changes necessitated by it came after a consideration of "all pos-

Also, Gloria Basfield, school social worker, was appointed senior school social worker in the Division of Special Services.

The Board granted 19 leaves of absences.

Clay seeks alimony deferment

MIAMI (UPI) —Cassius Clay, who admits he's the greatest but maybe not the richest, has asked for a 30-day delay in posting a $25,000 alimony bond for his ex-wife, Sonji.

Clay said through his attorney that proceeds from his May 21 fight with Henry Cooper and profits from two previous fights were still tied up in the courts.

* * *

"WE THINK he's just trying to stall until he's drafted into the Army," said Sonji's attorney, Lawrence Hoffman. "Then he'll claim he's got no money at all."

Clay was granted a 60-day delay in posting the bond. A guarantee on his $1,250 a month alimony payments for the next 10 years, last April. He won a divorce from his shapely ex-model wife here last January on grounds she wore tight fitting clothes not befitting the wife of a Muslim.

No hearing date has been set.

Ohio racers top Vista program

Attention, all local motorcycle racers and fans, Ronnie Hall and Thomas Hell, two of Ohio's top cyclists, are matching their Harley Davidsons against all comers.

This big racing event, sponsored by the Land and Sea Sportsmen's Club, comes up Sunday at Vista Raceway.

Rall, of Mansfield, and Heil, of Dayton, won the Big Races at Richmond, Va., on May 30.

Among their challengers, Sunday, will be Richmond's Wayne Cook, who also drives a Harley Davidson cycle.

Riverdale's Gary Nixon will jockey a Triumph and Hagerstown's Don Twigg will be aboard a BSA.

Rall stacks up as the toughest competitor because he rides the outside rail on all turns, without cutting his speed.

Griffith defense vs. Archer okeyed

NEW YORK (UPI)—Middleweight champion Emile Griffith and challenger Joey Archer have signed a contract for a 15-round title fight July 18 at Madison Square Garden.

The signing took place at the New York State Athletic Commission offices where chairman Edwin B. Dooley officiated. His first such action since taking office June 3.

* * *

GRIFFITH in his first title defense since winning it from Dick Tiger April 25, will receive 45 per cent of all revenues, including those from radio and television, while Archer signed for a flat guarantee of $17,000.

Neither fighter predicted a knockout, but both felt sure of winning. However, Archer opined that Griffith may have bitten off more than he can chew by becoming a middleweight.

Father, mother due in court on child neglect

July 5 has been set as the date for the Juvenile Court hearing for Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt White, 800 block N. Caroline St. on charges of neglect of their five children.

Mr. White, age 30, was recently freed of charges of assaulting his 13-year old stepdaughter and his own 11-year old daughter.

Judge James A. Perrot found Monday that the mother, Mrs. Catherine had put her children up to testifying as to the assault in order to "get rid of her husband" so she could collect $200 — a month public assistance.

Following the hearing before Judge Perrott, Mrs. White was served in the courtroom with a summons to bring the children into Juvenile Court June 6.

According to Juvenile Court authorities, the mother did not appear. Since then, all efforts to locate her or the children have failed.

The court charges the children, ages 13 to 4 years, are dependent, neglected children without proper care and supervision and without adequate sleeping arrangements at their home.
